Thank you Sr. Maria!

Effective September 1st, Sr. Maria Acosta, SCTJM, will be working in the Chancery Office for the Diocese of Orlando. Bishop Noonan has asked her to fill a recently vacated position as Assistant to the Bishop. Our Parish is thankful for Sr. Maria's nine years of service and ministry. Please join us in congratulating Sr. Maria Acosta on her new role within the Diocese! The Servants of the Pierced Hearts of Jesus and Mary will continue to be in residence on our campus and will be active at Mass and other ministries in the Parish.

Priest Convocation this Week

Our Priests will be attending their yearly Convocation with Bishop Noonan this week.

Due to Convocation, we will have a Communion Service in Spanish at 7pm instead of the Spanish Mass and then Communion Services at 12:15 on Wednesday, September 8th and Thursday, September 9th. Mass will be offered at 7am on those two days. Thank you!

Wearing of Masks Recommended

In light of concerns over the coronavirus resurgence and out of an abundance of caution for the welfare of our parish community, we encourage you to wear masks during the celebration of Mass.

How can we pray for you?

During these challenging times, we want to pray for your intentions. Our Priests and Sisters will be praying for each specific intention that you submit. Visit:

Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

"Thus says the Lord: Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God, he comes with vindication; with divine recompense he comes to save you." When was the last time you had a serious conversation with your heart? Our hearts are vital to our life, to our health, to our well-being. Just the same, our hearts are vital to our spiritual life, to our spiritual health and to our spiritual well-being. We can suffer our hearts, reject them and even despise them or we can allow our hearts to fill us with hope and joy at even the thought that God is near or even with us. God has captured our hearts. He is drawn to them. He is drawn to the beauty of his creation. God loves our hearts. It is a place of refuge, a place of rest, a place of Holy Communion, a place of conversation, a place of unity, a place of peace, a place of deep consolation, a place of everlasting light, a place of profound love, a place of great healing. The heart is the place God chooses to dwell and remain in us and we in him. But we neglect our hearts. We are upset with our hearts because they allow themselves to be duped, to be loved, to be hurt. In our vulnerability, in our desire to be loved, in our desire to trust, we give our hearts away to things, people, events. They can disappoint us. They leave our hearts empty, longing and dry. But the Lord says, "Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God... he comes to save you." Our Lord comes to restore what was lost. He comes to heal what hurts. He comes to love what is wounded. He comes to fill the void. No one can love our hearts better than the One who is love, than the one who created our hearts for love and for himself. Our hearts can love because it is God who uses our hearts to love others. God uses your heart to love your parents, to love your spouse, to love your family, to love your children, to love your friends, to love your coworkers and yes even to love those you hate, to love those who persecute you and to love your enemies. So be good to your heart. Love your heart and it will love you for it. Jesus meek and humble of heart make our hearts like yours.

Are you an adult who has not yet received Confirmation?

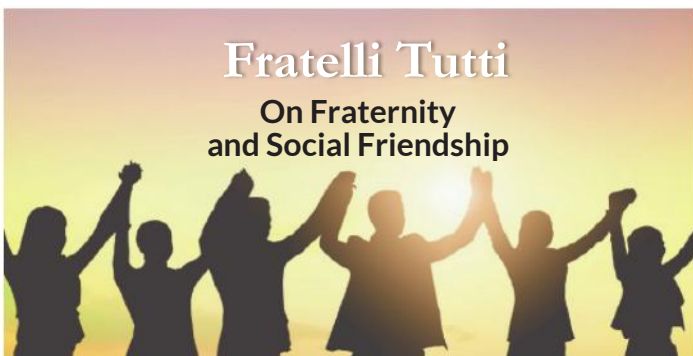

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the RCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program starting on September 16th so that you will be confirmed on October 17th, 2021 at St. James Cathedral by Bishop John Noonan.

TO FIND OUT MORE, Contact Deacon Pete Pronko at ppronko@annunciationorlando.org or 407-869-9472.

Adult Catechesis and Enrichment

In Pope Francis' third encyclical, Fratelli Tutti, the Holy Father reminds us that living the Gospel message is not consistent with immorality and mockery of ethics, goodness, faith and honesty. Every society must ensure that values are passed down so selfishness, violence, corruption, indifference and life entrenched in individual differences do not prevail. These writings give a clear picture of how to live a truly loving Christian life.

Join us once a month, beginning this September 18th for an in-depth exploration of this papal document and its implications on how we experience community.

Exciting Youth Ministry News!

Welcome Mya Garrity to Annunciation as our new Youth Minister. Mya is an adult convert to Catholicism who entered the Church through campus ministry at FSU. On fire for her faith, she has been a Catechist for our Traditional Catechesis, an active leader in our Young Adult Ministry and authored a book chronicling conversion stories of her generation. Mya has a background in education, specializing in children with visual impairments and teaching them to read braille. She brings a fresh passion and infectious zeal to our Youth Ministry Team.

SACRED STORY: FORTY WEEKS

An Ignatian Path to Christ With Sacred Story Prayer ... by Fr. William Watson, SJ

IGNITE YOUR FAITH
Are you ready for a challenge and willing to commit your time to open up to Christ? Be not afraid! Say "YES" to Christ!

We invite you to join us on a spiritual journey, Forty Weeks - An Ignatian Path to Christ with Sacred Story Prayer.

Sacred Story Prayer is rooted in St. Ignatius Loyola's powerful 15-min. Examen revitalized for the third millennium.

You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You. (St. Augustine)

This life-transforming journey leads us to a deeper intimacy and friendship with Christ in daily Examen prayers, frequent reception of the Sacraments of Confession / Eucharist and Spiritual Discernment. These are the Core Disciplines that St. Ignatius and the early Jesuits promoted for the laity and clergy alike.

Make life a sacred story in 15 minutes a day!

The Birth of Mary – Sept. 8th

"Today, the Virgin is born, tended and formed and prepared for her role as Mother of God, who is the universal King of the ages. Therefore, let all creation sing and dance and unite to make worthy contribution to the celebration of this day...Today, this created world is raised to the dignity of a holy place for him who made all things. The creature is newly prepared to be a divine dwelling place for the Creator." (From a discourse by St. Andrew of Crete).

The liturgy for this feast day is filled with rich praise and thanksgiving to God for the gift of Mary. "When the most holy Virgin was born, the whole world was made radiant." (2nd Antiphon at Morning Prayer). "Your birth, O Virgin Mother of God, proclaims joy to the whole world..." (Antiphon at the Benedictus). "Today we celebrate the birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary, whose splendid life has illumined the Church." (Antiphon, midmorning Daytime Prayer).

In the same midmorning hour, we read: "Who is this that comes forth like the dawn, as beautiful as the moon, as resplendent as the sun, as awe-inspiring as bannered troops?" (Song of Songs, 6:10).

The Second Vatican Council puts into perspective the entirety of the Church's honor of Mary. In the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, we read: "Holy Church honors the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with a special love. She is inseparably linked with her Son's saving work. In her the Church admires and exalts the most excellent fruit of redemption, and joyfully contemplates, as in a faultless image, namely that which she herself desires and hopes wholly to be." (Sacrosanctum Concilium., n. 103).

As a local note, the Lady of Lourdes Grotto was blessed by our founding pastor, Monsignor Patrick Caverly on September 8th in 1994, which also happened to be the birthday of his own mother, Mrs. Agnes Caverly.

One final prayer: "The birth of the Virgin Mary's Son, was the dawn of our salvation. May this celebration of her birthday bring us closer to lasting peace."

Surviving Divorce is a program that brings healing and hope to divorced and separated Catholics.
