Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” When I contemplate the Sacred Heart of Jesus, I find myself wonderfully lost in the divine and beautiful things of heaven. I lose all sense and concept of time, space, presence. I find myself gently flowing into the ocean of God’s infinite love and his tender mercy. It’s so wonderful to lose all sense of having to be concerned with tracking time or worrying about what comes next or what may or could happen tomorrow or having to measure out success or progress. I can simply be me and enjoy God. I can enjoy the grace of his awe-inspiring presence, his gentle kindness, his beautiful loveliness, his amazing, loving concern for me. I can simply enjoy being still, being loved, being me. What a great and awesome feeling to be free. To be lost from the world and to be found in God. To be found in the great ocean of God’s holy presence where I am a mere breath of moisture; I am little less than a drop of water in the vast body of God. And yet, God knows me. He sees me in a particular way. He recognizes me in a unique and individual and private way. God is amazing. He can identify me, poor little created cloud of vapor that I am, from all other moisture, from all the dewfall, from every drop of water in the universe. In the ocean of God’s love, I am easily and clearly seen by him. God’s ocean is beyond measure. No one can ever measure the depth or width of God’s love. No one can imagine the height or the vastness of his great mercy. And yet, God invites us to bathe and swim in the ocean of his glory. When you look at the Sacred Heart of Jesus, what do you see? Can you feel the warmth of his love, taste the goodness of his ever-flowing grace, smell the sweetness of his holy innocence? Can you imagine being loved so much, so perfectly, so profoundly, so completely? We are invited to pray to Jesus’ heart and ask him for the particular grace that our own hearts may become meek and humble like his. We are invited to ask for the grace to have an interior disposition of gentle patience especially in the midst of hardships and moments of suffering and to prayerfully and joyfully radiate an exterior posture of lowliness, humbleness, submissiveness like the Heart of Jesus.

Are you an adult who has not yet received Confirmation?

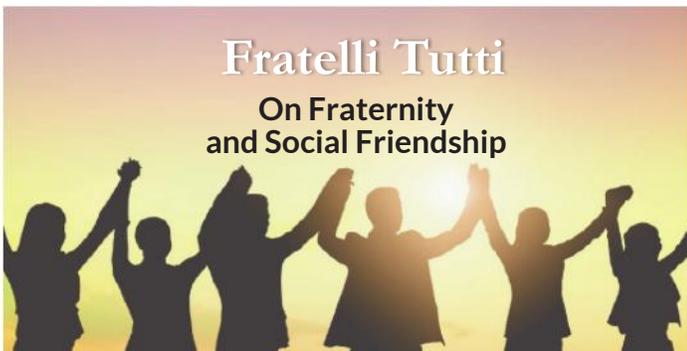

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the RCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program starting on September 16th so that you will be confirmed on October 17th, 2021 at St. James Cathedral by Bishop John Noonan.

TO FIND OUT MORE, Contact Deacon Pete Pronko at ppronko@annunciationorlando.org or 407-869-9472.

Adult Catechesis and Enrichment

In Pope Francis' third encyclical, Fratelli Tutti, the Holy Father reminds us that living the Gospel message is not consistent with immorality and mockery of ethics, goodness, faith and honesty. Every society must ensure that values are passed down so selfishness, violence, corruption, indifference and life entrenched in individual differences do not prevail. These writings give a clear picture of how to live a truly loving Christian life.

Join us once a month, beginning this September 18th for an in-depth exploration of this papal document and its implications on how we experience community.

Visit www.annunciationorlando.org/fratelli-tutti for more information and to register!

The funds collected in this special appeal will become part of the Bishop's Emergency Disaster Fund and will be used to support the response efforts of Catholic Charities USA and/or Catholic Relief Services to immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter, medical care, and aid in long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts. Please prayerfully consider making a donation next weekend - September 18-19. Please use the blue special collection envelopes in the Narthex and note Disaster Relief 2021 with your donation.

If you've been away from the Church, or simply have questions about the Catholic faith please contact Deacon Pete Pronko at 407-869-9472 or ppronko@annunciationorlando.org.

SACRED STORY: FORTY WEEKS

An Ignatian Path to Christ With Sacred Story Prayer ... by Fr. William Watson, SJ

IGNITE YOUR FAITH
Are you ready for a challenge and willing to commit your time to open up to Christ? Be not afraid! Say "YES" to Christ!

We invite you to join us on a spiritual journey, Forty Weeks - An Ignatian Path to Christ with Sacred Story Prayer.

Sacred Story Prayer is rooted in St. Ignatius Loyola's powerful 15-min. Examen revitalized for the third millennium.

You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You. (St. Augustine)

This life-transforming journey leads us to a deeper intimacy and friendship with Christ in daily Examen prayers, frequent reception of the Sacraments of Confession / Eucharist and Spiritual Discernment. These are the Core Disciplines that St. Ignatius and the early Jesuits promoted for the laity and clergy alike.

Make life a sacred story in 15 minutes a day!

St. Peter Claver, Priest – September 9

St. Peter Claver (1580-1654), a Spanish Jesuit, followed the call to the missions. In the year 1616 he was ordained a priest at Cartagena, Colombia, which was then the center of the slave trade in South America. He worked among the black slaves who were brought there, as many as 10,000 a year. St. Peter Claver devoted his life to relieving their misery with medicines and food, and with zealous concern for their spiritual welfare.

Peter's competence was that of "faithfully serving the slaves in charity with the help of God." He was able "to offer them an authentic Christian witness and work for their salvation, teaching them religious and moral truths, which Christ illumined with his light." (Cf. Decree on the Church's Missionary activity, Ad gentes, n.12). It is said that over a period of about 40 years, Peter Claver instructed and baptized over 30,000 slaves.

He was ill and exhausted during the last four years of his life, and he died at Cartagena on September 9, 1654. Those who previously looked with scorn on his work, and "called his zeal indiscreet and his energy wasted," vied with one another to honor his memory. He was canonized by Pope Leo XIII in 1888.

We pray through this intercession for an end to all racial hatreds so that we may love each other as brothers and sisters.
