Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

"The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise." Noise is just that, noise. Noise wants to drown out the sound of truth, the sound of sweetness, the sound of goodness. It chooses to overwhelm, it plans to overcome, it has to overtake silence. Noise wants to be seen. It wants to be heard. Noise draws all attention to itself. It is an unpleasant sound that seeks to confuse, to deafen, to silence the voice of faith, reason and truth. I am struck by the noise, the yelling, the screaming in the Passion of Christ. The crowds are angry, hostile, noisy. They desire to drown out the truth of who Jesus is, why he came, all he did. The noise of the crowd wants to ensure that the Word of God, the words of encouragement, all the miracles are hushed, quieted, silenced so that truth cannot be heard, so it cannot be seen. But truth always flows from the precious lips of Jesus. Truth is who he is and although we are so deaf to the truth, the truth never changes, it is relentless, it never gives up, it never ceases to exist or to be true. The truth sets us free. It moves us and challenges us to change. It makes us work at being good, at being holy, at being truthful. O my sweet Savior, how can anyone hear the racing of your heart beat or the pains of your body trembling or the weeping of your soul in agony or the sound of your tears and blood hitting the ground when there is so much hatred, so much yelling, so much rejection. They yell for your death. They yell out all the louder, "Crucify him!" "Crucify him!" The truth of your love is drowned out by pride and selfishness, greed and ignorance, fear and fearfulness. Our hearts, our souls, our spirits want to hear you. They need to hear the truth that you love us but our minds are plagued with darkness and temptation. They refuse to listen. Our minds oppose truth. They fail to understand that without you, we are nothing. Without you, we can do nothing. Without you, we cease to exist. Sin renders us helpless. It causes us to be hopeless, weak and pitiful. We lack wisdom, we lack knowledge, we lack understanding, we lack counsel, we lack strength. We become unholy, ungodly, noisy, fearful of everything except the one thing we should fear the most — being separated from you.

Are you an adult who has not yet received Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the RCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program starting on September 16th so that you will be confirmed on October 17th, 2021 at St. James Cathedral by Bishop John Noonan.

TO FIND OUT MORE, Contact Deacon Pete Pronko at ppronko@annunciationorlando.org or 407-869-9472.

The funds collected in this special appeal will become part of the Bishop's Emergency Disaster Fund and will be used to support the response efforts of Catholic Charities USA and/or Catholic Relief Services to immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter, medical care, and aid in long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts. Please prayerfully consider making a donation this weekend - September 18-19. Please use the blue special collection envelopes in the Narthex and note Disaster Relief 2021 with your donation.

St. Robert Bellarmine, Bishop and Doctor – September 17

Robert Bellarmine (1542-1621) entered the Society of Jesus in 1560. Ten years later, he was ordained a priest at the age of 28. His first task was as professor of theology at the University of Louvain, Belgium and later in Rome. He was recognized as a brilliant scholar and preacher. Later named Cardinal and Bishop, he was called by Pope Clement VIII to be papal theologian. As a writer, he was an important defender for the Church in the post-Tridentine (post Council of Trent) era, the time of the Counter Reformation. The Latin/Tridentine Mass was one of the reforms of the Counter Reformation.

He upheld the right of the pope to interfere in temporal affairs and he spoke out against the divine right of kings, which earned him some opposition. These are not burning theological issues of our time, but in the late 16th and early 17th centuries they had to be dealt with, and Robert Bellarmine was given this task. It was St. Robert Bellarmine who delivered the admonition to Galileo not to press the theory of Copernicus on the sun as center of the universe. Today, we marvel at that.

In his personal life, he was an austere ascetic (very self-disciplined and penitential), and tried always to live as closely as possible like the poor of his day. To them he was always most kind and generous, sharing all that he had.

Thomas Jefferson, in writing the Declaration of Independence, incorporated the teaching of St. Robert Bellarmine on the inalienable rights of the person.

Robert Bellarmine lived in stormy times. The decades following the Council of Trent were charged with emotion. We learn from him that then, as now, there are matters that can change, but there was also lasting and permanent truths and realities that do not change.

In the last years of his writing, St. Robert turned to spiritual matters, commenting often on the scriptures and incorporating his reflections into his writings and preaching. We read from a treatise "On the Ascent of the Mind to God," where he comments on the great commandment, "You should love the Lord your God with all your heart."

He states: "Truly then the recompense is great for those who keep your commandments. The first and greatest commandment helps the man who obeys, not the God who commands. In addition, the other commandments of God perfect the man who obeys them. They provide him with what he needs. They instruct and enlighten him and make him good and blessed."

Robert Bellarmine was canonized in 1930, and the following year declared a Doctor (Teacher) of the Church.
