Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.” The Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius provide a great opportunity to seriously detach oneself from the world and enter into sacred silence and into God’s holy presence to contemplate his love and pray for the grace to intimately know Jesus, love him more freely and follow him more closely.

In the first week of the Exercises, one has the opportunity to review life in light of God’s profound love. Openness to God’s holy love sheds light on how selfishly we respond to God’s gifts and identifies the ways, excuses and sins that prevent us from loving Christ and following him without reservation. In the second week, one reflects on how to better follow Christ by learning where he worshiped, when he prayed, how he served and who he ministered to. In the third week, one meditates on the Passion and death of Christ. In Christ’s suffering, we experience God’s unconditional love for us. In the Eucharist, we share in it. The last week of the Exercises, one experiences the joy of the Resurrection and walks with the risen Christ as he dispels fear from the disciple’s hearts and shares the fulfillment of the Father’s peace. This new life inspires a disciple to make a total offering of self and encourages them to respond more generously to the call to love and serve Christ more faithfully. During the Exercises, we learn different forms of prayer and ways to experience God in prayer. One way is to use your imagination by placing yourselves into a scripture scene to hear what people are listening to, see what they are looking at, smell what they are cooking, taste what they are eating, feel what they are sensing. The object of this form of prayer is to use our spiritual senses to become more attentive to God’s voice, more open to his presence, and more responsive to his holy will. Try it. Disconnect and detach yourself from the world and from all the noise, then enter into sacred silence. Imagine Jesus in the quiet, hidden years of his early life. Enter the scene. What might a school day with Jesus be like? What might a conversation with his friends sound like? How did Mary and Joseph feel living with God, caring for him, feeding him, bathing him? Try it. It is a great way to pray. “Lord, grant that I may see you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day.”

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the RCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program starting on Thursday, December 9th so that you will be confirmed on January 30th, 2021 at St. James Cathedral by Bishop John Noonan.

Our 4th grade students are presenting their biography projects about influential Americans. The project included research, a written report, and lots of creativity and construction skills. ## Dedication of St. John Lateran – November 9th

There was a young man who wanted to find God, so he went into a large and beautiful church. He expected that in the spaciousness, the light and reflection of the stained glass and glittering mosaics, he might experience God. Filled with feelings of God's closeness, he put his head down on the back of a pew. A few minutes later he felt a tapping on his shoulder, and looking up he saw an elderly lady. She asked: "Are you hungry? I could give you a few dollars to get something to eat?" Realizing the risk the woman had taken to approach him, and the simple love that prompted it, the man thanked her, but said that he was alright. A few minutes later, he left the church knowing that he had found God.

Well, God can be experienced wherever He is present – He has many temples. We tend to localize his presence in special places, namely, churches. But God's universal temple is the whole of creation, and God is found there, especially in the depths of the human person, created in his image.

The anniversary of the dedication of the Lateran Basilica – Cathedral of Rome, which was erected by the Emperor Constantine, has been observed on this date since the twelfth century. The name "Lateran" is derived from the Laterani family who donated the land in Rome for the Basilica. There is an inscription on the outer wall that says (translated into English) "this Basilica is the mother church of Christendom" – of the world. Celebration of this Feast is a sign of our unity with the Chair of Peter, since the Holy Father's cathedra (official chair) is located in that church. Interestingly, it is believed that the simple wooden table upon which St. Peter celebrated mass, is located beneath the high altar.

Jesus told us that the kingdom of God is within us. Each of us are sacred, as we are temples of the Holy Spirit. All we need do is open ourselves to Him so that He can shine on the world through us. The elderly lady in the church carried God's presence in a very real way; she was a living temple of God.

Our parish church, in which we gather, is also God's temple. This means that God's presence here is special, and it means that our presence is special, too. Symbolically we purify ourselves with holy water as we enter. We recognize the sacramental presence of Jesus Christ, reserved for us in the tabernacle. This is a place for getting in touch with ourselves and with God by praying, praising, interceding, and offering sacrifice together with our brothers and sisters. But it is just one place; there are many other places – our homes, often called the "domestic church," our places of work and of play.

What we celebrate on this feast, in a word, is God's presence among us, and in us. All these words are just reminders of the many ways that God is with us, and to make us aware of the treasure that we carry within us: God Himself.
