Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“You say I am a king. For this I was born...” Jesus is the King of kings and the Lord of lords. He is the actual Word uttered by God made visible. The mere sound of his Sacred Name causes all creatures in Heaven and Earth and below the Earth to bow and worship him unceasingly. One would think since he is Divine Majesty, his crown would be made out of the purest gold and covered with the most precious stones and adorned with the rarest gems. However, this king is a shepherd king, a servant king, a poor, meek and humble king. His crown is a crown of thorns. The crown of the Messiah, the King of the Jews. When we contemplate the Crown of Thorns, in addition to seeing the pain suffered by Christ, one should also see our gracious Savior praying, loving, repairing for the sins of humanity. What an amazing grace to understand this. Not to look at the Cross in shame or as something shameful but to see love, God’s love. We needed Jesus to die. To die such a cruel death so as to melt the stubbornness of our hearts and dispel the darkness from our minds in order to feel, see and experience the profundity of God’s love, his amazing patience, the intimate love he has for each of us. Jesus had to die a horrible death for each one of us, to free each one of us. Our minds and hearts could not possibly comprehend God’s love on their own. We need to understand that Jesus allowed himself to be mocked and humiliated and crowned with thorns to show us what unconditional love looks like. O Lord, our souls belong to you, long for you. Thank you for granting us pardon and peace. Our bodies give you thanks for preserving us as instruments of your peace, cups of salvation, temples of your holy glory. O Lord, our hearts love you for you cleansed them, washed them, kissed them and made them your own. Our spirits rejoice in you. We love being with you, ministering with you, helping others through you, remaining in silence and in prayer with you. But our minds can be far from you. At times heavy, at times tired, at times sluggish. Our minds are always analyzing, always questioning, always suspicious, doubtful. May your Crown of Thorns pierce our minds with your marvelous light and saving grace. May you crown us in your glory for truly you are our Lord, our God, our King.

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the RCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU

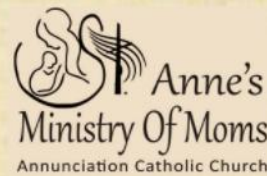

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program starting on Thursday, December 9th so that you will be confirmed on January 30th, 2022 at St. James Cathedral by Bishop John Noonan.

TO FIND OUT MORE, Contact Deacon Pete Pronko at ppronko@annunciationorlando.org or 407-869-9472.

St. Leo the Great, Pope and Doctor – November 11

Pope St. Leo the Great (d. 461) was elected in the year 440 and guided the Church through a most difficult period of its history. The Western Roman Empire was subjected to invasions by barbarians. It was a time during which "traditional orthodoxy was imposed, fixed formulae and precise canons were giving a definite cast to liturgical and disciplinary life, and theology was defining its position on the fundamental questions of the Incarnation and the relation of divine grace and human freedom." (J. Quasten, Patrology, v. 3, p. 590).

We know little of his personal life, but we know he was held in great esteem prior to his election as Bishop of Rome. As the bishop, he preached often and his homilies are classic instructions on the mysteries of Christ. In them, he encourages the faithful "to live their Baptism in imitation of Jesus and to preserve their faith from the danger of heresies." (Quasten, Op. cit. p. 591).

Through his writing and preaching he made lasting contributions to the definition of doctrine, to an understanding of the Church's law, and to the development of the Roman liturgy. His homilies and letters are the chief sources for an appreciation of this talented, competent bishop of Rome.

J. Quasten expresses an appreciation of this saint: "Leo's pastoral activity was marked always by a vivid awareness of his dignity and authority. Yet while requiring the recognition of his lofty mission at the service of all the churches, Leo never forgot humility, i.e. his total dependence on Christ, the true Lord of the Church." (Op. cit., p. 593).

The Collect of the Mass also gives us an indication of the appreciation of the Church for this great pontiff: "O God, who never allow the gates of hell to prevail against your Church, firmly founded on the apostolic rock, grant her, we pray, that through the intercession of Pope Saint Leo, she may stand firm in your truth and know the protection of lasting peace."

The introductory note in the Liturgy of the Hours states: "He was a true pastor and father of souls. He labored strenuously to safeguard the integrity of the faith and vigorously defended the unity of the Church. He pushed back or at least softened the onrush of the barbarians. He has deservedly been given the title "the Great." He died in 461 A.D.
