Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

"Lord, help me." Prayer is such a simple thing, really and we choose to complicate it and make it more difficult than it is or should become. Rather than simply turning to God or turning to our Mother Mary and saying or offering a prayer of help, petition or thanksgiving, we make prayer a burden and a chore. At times, we make prayer so time bound and associate prayer with time we do not have or precious time we cannot take for time is busy and busy is what we are all of the time. We even say time is money and we simply cannot afford the time to pray. We say I have no time for prayer or prayer is a waste of time or even believe that prayer occupies too much of our time. At times, we want to mouth out words ever so quickly, so many words, so many different prayers, when simply saying "Lord, help me" or "I love you Lord" or "Thanks be to God" would do if we had nothing else to add or to say or could not find the words or the time. Prayer is helpful. Praying to God is useful. Not praying is useless for who can help us when we are helpless unless we become helpless and say a prayer like "Lord, please help me" or "O God come to my assistance" or "Lord, make haste to help me." Prayer is so efficacious when we choose to pray from the heart and we can abandon ourselves to the prayer. Prayer is so much more than empty words we choose to recite or say. Prayer is individual, a relationship, a necessity. Prayer is presence. Praying places us in the presence of the One who chooses to listen to us, who is happy to respond to us and graciously provides the answer and grace we need, hope for, or desire. Praying with the Lord must become intentional in your life. We should want to pray simply because we want to and need to be with the Lord or simply because you are aware of God's profound love for you and praying is how you lovingly respond. Being fully active and present in prayer is helpful but our Lord understands how busy and tired you are so Jesus at times rests and prays in you and for you. What a great gift prayer is. It is a great blessing, an amazing grace, a profound privilege to enter into God's presence and to be able to say anything.

St. Maximilian Kolbe, Priest & Martyr – Aug. 14th

Pope St. John Paul II began his homily of canonization for Maximilian Kolbe, Franciscan priest, with words from the Gospel of John (15:13): "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." St Maximilian Kolbe "was granted the grace of carrying out these words of the Redeemer in an absolutely literal manner."

Briefly, here are some of the details of the life of Maximilian Kolbe (1894-1941). Born on January 7, 1894 near Lodz, Poland, he thought of priesthood early, and realized his goal, being ordained a Conventual Franciscan priest in 1918. In his first years as a priest, he lectured in Church History, and founded a pious society of clerics and laity, the Knights of the Immaculata, and edited a publication by the same name: "Knight of the Immaculata." He later established both the society and the publication in Japan and India. Throughout his early years as a priest, he struggled with illness, but was patient and obedient. His love for and devotion to Mary Immaculate were a compelling force in his personal spiritual life and ministry.

Shortly after the outbreak of World War II, he was arrested by the Gestapo and imprisoned in Auschwitz (1941). There he voluntarily took the place of a married man with a family who had been arbitrarily condemned to death in retaliation for the escape of a prisoner. After some weeks of harsh treatment, Maximilian was murdered by lethal injection. The man whose place he took survived the imprisonment and the war.

"With zeal for souls and love for his neighbor," Maximilian Kolbe, "this devoted servant of Mary Immaculate," served others for the glory of God. (Cf.
Collect of Mass). Maximilian Kolbe was canonized by Pope St. John Paul II on October 10, 1982.

In his homily at the Mass of canonization, the Pope said:
"Maximilian prepared for his definitive sacrifice by following Christ from the first years of his life in Poland.
From these years, come the mysterious vision of two crowns – one white and one red. From these, our saint did not choose. He accepted them both. From the years of his youth, in fact, Maximilian was filled with the greatest love of Christ and the desire for martyrdom."

His desire was fulfilled, August 14, 1941. The following day his body was cremated: "Precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful ones." (Ps. 116:15).

Have you met Coogie the Dumpster Cat?

As a kitten in 2017, he was abandoned in a Miami dumpster and brought to me by a friend who knew I rescued strays. Now, he is the STAR of his own children's book series that I am writing and donating my profits to charity.

As fate would have it, Coogie was most likely born on July 7th, the day my late husband went to Heaven. I truly believe he was sent to help me through that incredible loss.

Now, together, we are "paying it forward" to help others.
