know, love and serve God by loving and serving others.

*O God, you are my God whom I seek; for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth,

Please welcome our new Music Ministry Team: Raphael Fernandez & Joan Braun!

Raphael and his family have been members of Annunciation for 8 years. He studied voice with Mark McCabe during his time at Lake Brantley High School. He joins our music ministry team from the University of Notre Dame, where he graduated with his masters in sacred music. He attended Rollins College and was their Marshall Scholar nominee and Nelson Scholar, majoring in music and earning departmental honors in choral music, conducting and string performance. He has a background as a vocalist, conductor, and composer. He is an aspiring musical liturgist, interdisciplinary artist, and practical ecumenist and he is very excited to join our Annunciation team as the Director of Music.

Joan has been assisting the Annunciation Music Ministry for years in one capacity or another. Joan initiated the Theater program at our Parish School, directing many of the early shows, and founded a Community Theater in Seminole County. Professionally, Joan worked in production, making television commercials. She has been a Cantor and member of our various choirs for over 30 years. Locally, she has sung with the Bach Festival Choir, Sing Live, Central Florida Community Arts and Orlando Sings. Joan is grateful to be serving as Music and Liturgy Assistant, giving all of the Glory to God.

Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me.” What is God’s desire for you? Take a moment to consider it, ponder the question. Really think about it. Do not let the question simply pass-through like a passing thought but let it stay awhile and linger so that you may actually chew on the word, taste the question and savor the sweetness that you will extract from taking the time to consider with intention and presence God’s desire for you. Let the thought inform you and as you consider it, let the thought instruct you and as you think about it, let the thought inspire you and as you ponder it, let the thought move you to awe and wonder. What is God’s desire for you? As you meditate and contemplate these words, consider how God, who is without need, perfect, creates out of a loving desire. God’s desire for you is love in the truest sense of a love that is indestructible, permanent and forever. The kind of love that knowing how its creation will rebel and reject the hand that created it, still chooses to create for true love only desires love so it creates in tender love and recreates and restores in divine mercy. Love creates for true love forgives from the heart. True love is relentless in compassion, forgiveness, charity and mercy. It truly wills only the greatest good for the other. Sin is an obstacle to love. Love is the remedy for sin. Sin destroys and takes apart. Love unites and makes new again. Sin causes everyone to suffer sadness and suffering sadness to despair. Love brings about joyful healing and joyful healing brings gratitude, hope and trust. If God desires only what is wholesome, good and joyful for you and seeks only to offer you eternal happiness and perpetual peace with him, then what does Satan desire for you? What does he will for you? Take the time to think about it. No sweetness here. The thoughts are dark; its flavor bitter. Satan only wills what is opposite and contrary to God’s desire for you. If God wills only the greatest good for you then Satan can only will the great harm for you. Satan is a direct obstacle and intrusion to your happiness and the peace that only God can offer you. If God makes you his beloved child, then Satan wills you to be an orphan. If God desires you joy and happiness, then Satan robs you of joy and brings you misery. Think about it.

St. John Eudes, Priest – August 19

"Father, you chose the priest, John Eudes to preach the infinite riches of Christ." (Collect of Mass).

St. John Eudes (1601 – 1680) was ordained a priest of the Congregation of the Oratory in 1625 and spent his first years as a priest caring for the victims of plague, then for a decade he was a parish missionary, an enthusiastic preacher. The seventeenth century priest knew the needs of the Church as indicated by the Council of Trent. It mandated the reforms which St. John Eudes set himself to bring about through preaching spiritual renewal. He also worked to provide for better education and spiritual formation of priests who would in turn be better preachers and spiritual guides for the people.

The renewal-minded priest hoped to realize his ideals through the religious community he founded, the Congregation of Jesus and Mary. Part of John's ministry led him to a concern for street people, especially women held in bondage to a life of prostitution. A woman named Madeleine Lamy, who had provided care for several of them, challenged one John one day: "Where are you off to now? To some church, where you will gaze at the images and think yourself pious? And all the time what is really wanted of you is a decent house for these poor creatures." John listened, and eventually was able to establish a community of women to provide shelter and care. This community today, the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, continues this work.

At the core of John's preaching, and the great spiritual support of his life, was his love of Jesus Christ. This was expressed in devotion to the pierced open Heart of Jesus. John wrote: "Our wish, our object, our chief preoccupation must be to form Jesus in ourselves, to make his spirit, his devotion, his affections, his desires and his disposition live and reign there." For John, Jesus was the source of holiness, and Mary was the model of the Christian life. Through his writings and preaching, he promoted the devotion of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

His personal devotion was fervent, and it sustained him through many criticisms, difficulties, and rejections throughout his life. He persevered by being "one with Jesus."

FLORIDIANS SHOULD DECLINE TO SIGN PETITION FOR DANGEROUS PRO-ABORTION AMENDMENT

An extremely grave initiative is underway in Florida that seeks to erase pro-life protections by inserting language into the Florida Constitution banning regulation of abortion. Abortion activists are working to gather petition signatures to place a pro-abortion constitutional amendment on the November 2024 ballot. This amendment would allow abortion up until birth, including when the baby is capable of feeling pain, and would eliminate laws requiring parental consent and safety protocols for women.

Floridians should not sign the petition.

Please spread the word to your spheres of influence and continue to pray for the protection of the unborn.

Have you met Coogie the Dumpster Cat?

As a kitten in 2017, he was abandoned in a Miami dumpster and brought to me by a friend who knew I rescued strays. Now, he is the STAR of his own children's book series that I am writing and donating my profits to charity.

As fate would have it, Coogie was most likely born on July 7th, the day my late husband went to Heaven. I truly believe he was sent to help me through that incredible loss.

Now, together, we are "paying it forward" to help others.
