Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight.” Scripture reminds us that we are created and made in the image and likeness of God. Meaning, not to simply look like God or simply resemble him but to be like him in attribute, character, and identity. Have you embraced this reality? Have you considered the thought of being formed and conformed to the image and likeness of Christ as beloved Son, servant of God, and slave for the salvation of souls? Have you considered what it means to be created and made in the image and likeness of God as parent, sibling and true friend, confidant, treasure, and gift? Do you resemble God? How do you resemble God? Can God’s image be seen clearly without blurriness in you? Can others experience in and through your words and actions as well as in and through your works and deeds the similarity and likeness your share with God? We hear and say when people spend quality, considerable and substantial time with each other, they begin to resemble each other and can even represent each other in person, complete the other’s thoughts and even finish each other’s sentences. Are you spending quality time with God or are you spending substantial time with his enemy? Our words, your words give us a clue. Our actions, your actions give us away. We say, “The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.” To be in the image and likeness of God requires us to be generously kind and overly charitable in kindness - to be kind to each other. To be the face of God’s mercy and to be mercy itself requires us to be merciful as the Father is merciful, for God who has so mercifully treated us, will continue to be so but only if we are kind and merciful with each other. We hold on very tightly to anger. God forgives and forgets very easily. We choose to remember and hold on tightly to the past. God says, do this in remembrance of me. We choose to embrace the mistakes, shortcomings, failures and sins of others. God simply lets go. We forget to be loving, patient and kind. God cannot forget who he is. We are quick to anger and to becoming angry, short-fused and impatient. God is slow to anger, moved to compassion and quick to heal so “Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven” and you will more readily resemble God.

Padre Pio's Place

Over the past few months, we have been experiencing some structural issues with Padre Pio’s Place - separation of floor, ceiling & walls, difficulty opening and closing interior doors, etc. These issues are largely the result of the building settling. In an effort to rectify these issues, we had the leasing company (Mobile Modular) relevel the building. Unfortunately, several additional defects surfaced during this process. These defects, which cannot be easily repaired, have rendered the building unsafe for occupancy.

The building will be removed by the leasing company during the next two weeks. The Statue of St. Padre Pio will be moved to a temporary location.

We are thankful for all of the ministry and service that has taken place in this building. We will continue to assess the space needs of our campus in the coming months. Thank you.

We have several build dates coming up in Sanford. It is easy to sign-up and get involved and it is very rewarding to work with the families we are serving. Visit www.annunciationorlando.org/habitat

St. Cornelius, Pope, Martyr, and St. Cyprian, Bishop, Martyr – September 16

St. Cornelius was elected bishop of Rome after the death of Pope Fabian and governed for two years. They were turbulent times because of the controversy over the sacrament of Penance. The Novatian heretics on the one side absolutely denied forgiveness to apostate Christians (those who denied their Faith when threatened with death). On the other side were Cornelius himself and the Roman clergy. Cornelius' friend, St. Cyprian of Carthage, took a middle stand, insisting on rigorous penance on the part of the apostates. Through this controversy, the Church came to a better understanding of the sacrament. St. Cornelius died in exile as a result of harsh treatment in the year 253.

When St. Cyprian of Carthage became a Christian, he gave all he had to the poor. Shortly after, he was ordained a priest in 248, and named bishop the following year. He proved to be a capable leader in times of persecution in North Africa. Cyprian's great literary work is entitled "The Unity of the Church." It is the key to understanding his personality and everything else that he wrote. The immediate reason for writing it was to counteract the schism of Novatian in Rome and errors in North Africa, for in his opinion, schisms and heresies were more dangerous than persecutions.

For St. Cyprian, the Church was the only way to salvation. One of the most quoted sentences from the treatise is: "He cannot have God for his Father, who has not the Church for his mother." He questioned the validity of Baptism by heretics and schismatics because he felt that no one can give what he does not possess. This particular issue involved him in a controversy with Cornelius' successor in Rome, St. Stephen.

The Church, however, accepted the baptisms conferred by heretics as valid and that is the tradition that has been constant. The point here is not the history of the controversies of the times of Sts. Cornelius and Cyprian, but their holiness.

We honor Sts. Cornelius and Cyprian because they have given us "an inspiring example of dedication to the pastoral ministry and constant witness to Christ in their suffering." Through their prayers we ask for "courage to work for the unity of the Church."

Annunciation Scouts Honor Gavin Christman

During a Court of Honor September 7th, members of Annunciation Catholic Church BSA Troop 849 honored Gavin Christman with the Spirit of the Eagle Award, in Gavin's memory. The 13 year old passed away September 15, 2022, but his enthusiastic impact on the Troop, is everlasting. Pictured, are Gavin's father, Dan, his mother, Rachel and brother Conor. Dan and Rachel and family extend their gratitude for your continued prayers.

Certified Arborist & UF Landscape Architect on staff

Have you met Coogie the Dumpster Cat?

As a kitten in 2017, he was abandoned in a Miami dumpster and brought to me by a friend who knew I rescued strays. Now, he is the STAR of his own children's book series that I am writing and donating my profits to charity.

As fate would have it, Coogie was most likely born on July 7th, the day my late husband went to Heaven. I truly believe he was sent to help me through that incredible loss.

Now, together, we are "paying it forward" to help others.
