Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“Conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.” Intimate moments with God are truly life changing and even necessary. We need those quiet, intimate, sacred moments to encounter the divine in order to recall and be reminded who God is, who we are and the difference. God is divine, eternal, timeless and out of his great suffering and merciful love has placed the timelessness in our hearts so that we may touch eternity and be healed by divine grace. These are those spiritual sacred moments and encounters that find us, seek us out and long to wonderfully overwhelm us with God’s holy grace showering us with mercy, covering us in light, filling us with his love, and touching the depth of our very soul and being. We all need these moments in our lives. In the encounter with the mysterious and awe consuming presence of God, we find ourselves caught up in sacred mysteries so bigger than us, so larger than life, so far beyond our imagination that we cannot fathom the touch of the divine holding and gently caressing our hearts and taking us up into the heavenly realm with angels and saint even if it's only for a brief sacred moment or a holy second it is still holy, divine and life changing. We encounter these divine and truly blessed occurrences in Mass, in prayer, in darkness or in light. God touches our hearts and moves our soul closer to him. We cannot help but be moved by the greatness all around us and the gentle touch of the divine breathing new life with in us. Miracle moments like these transform hearts, even those that a broken, hardened, lifeless, crushed. God makes all things feel like new in these moments. We are never the same. I encountered one of these sacred moments during diaconate ordination. There’s a seriously intimate moment with the gospel and person of Christ is communicating himself, revealing himself, making himself known, sharing his truth. Humbly kneeling before the bishop, the gospel of Christ is offered to those have been called, formed, and prepared for this moment. While holding on to the Word that is Christ, we hear, “receive the gospel of Christ whose herald you have become, believe what you read, teach what you believe and practice what you teach.” Touched by the gospel that touches us so intimately we are invited to receive the Word of God with deep gratitude, believe in it with deep profound faith, and generously practice it in our daily lives.

Padre Pio's Place

Over the past few months, we have been experiencing some structural issues with Padre Pio's Place - separation of floor, ceiling & walls, difficulty opening and closing interior doors, etc. These issues are largely the result of the building settling. In an effort to rectify these issues, we had the leasing company (Mobile Modular) relevel the building. Unfortunately, several additional defects surfaced during this process. These defects, which cannot be easily repaired, have rendered the building unsafe for occupancy.

The building will be removed by the leasing company during the next two weeks. The Statue of St. Padre Pio will be moved to a temporary location.

We are thankful for all of the ministry and service that has taken place in this building. We will continue to assess the space needs of our campus in the coming months. Thank you.

The Long Retreat - New Start Date

Starting September 25th
Registration is open!

THE LONG RETREAT is foundational to Ignatian Spirituality. It follows the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola. The process promotes the development of a life-long habit of prayer, an intimate relationship with God, and the formation of Christian community. Central to the Exercises is discerning our call as participants in the mission of Jesus. The retreat helps us grow in freedom to follow the values of Christ in the midst of our everyday life, and to recognize our own unique call as sons and daughters of God.

We meet on Monday evenings at 7pm in the St. Gabriel Life Center.

St. Januarius, Bishop and Martyr – September 19

Pillars of Faith

By Fr. Stephen Baumann

Legend tells us that St. Januarius was a bishop. When persecution broke out in the area of Naples, in the first years of the fourth century, Januarius went to visit some imprisoned Christians. He was arrested and very quickly condemned to be thrown to the wild beasts. When beasts refused to touch him and his companions, they were beheaded.

Of interest today, although to most of us it may be a curiosity, is the phenomenon of the liquefaction of his blood several times a year, at the cathedral in Naples.

There seems to be no logical or satisfying natural explanation. The phenomenon is not important for faith but does have significance. To the people of Naples it is an aid to devotion.

Martyrdom was a prized grace in the early centuries of the Church. It still is today, although it is not a frequent occurrence. For us, the annual commemoration of the heroic deaths of the martyrs is a way of praising God for the grace of their witness. Their feast days gave us occasion to draw courage from their example, and a reminder to pray to God for perseverance and fidelity in times of trial and difficulty. The Second Vatican Council said that the Church considers martyrdom the highest gift and supreme test of love.

Our Community Fall Festival will be on Friday, November 3rd and Saturday, November 4th.

Have you met Coogie the Dumpster Cat?

As a kitten in 2017, he was abandoned in a Miami dumpster and brought to me by a friend who knew I rescued strays. Now, he is the STAR of his own children's book series that I am writing and donating my profits to charity.

As fate would have it, Coogie was most likely born on July 7th, the day my late husband went to Heaven. I truly believe he was sent to help me through that incredible loss.

Now, together, we are "paying it forward" to help others.
