This is the last major step on their journey to Diaconate Ordination. Bishop Noonan presided and institutes each candidate with the Rite of Acolyte pronouncing: "Take this vessel with wine for the celebration of the Eucharist. Make your life worthy of your service at the table of the Lord and of His Church."

Thank you for your continued prayers for these men and their families.

Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

"I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me." I think for me personally, the most important trait and attribute of any person or any relationship is trust. Can others rely on you to be faithful, committed, and trustworthy with the truth, the whole entire truth and nothing but the truth so help you God? You see, what you say and how you respond and the comments you share form a person's thoughts and conscience and informs their decisions. If you cannot be relied upon to share, state, and say only the truth in all its entirety without diminishment, deceit, or embellishment then what you say, or mention will lead others astray and cause them to believe things that are false, inaccurate, and untrue and lead them to make misinformed decisions. Even keeping certain details from what is shared or even withholding certain facts or telling a little lie is simply not the truth, therefore, you simply cannot be trusted or be held as trustworthy with the truth that sets you and others free. Trust is important and the key to establishing life-long friendships and relationships including one with our Lord. I admit trust is difficult because so many people have shattered and destroyed our trust. We have been hurt and deceived many times. The enemy cannot be trusted and unfortunately some of our family and friends as well. But the truth is, there is and has been an enemy within all of us that has broken trust. At times, we have been the ones to shatter a person's trust and confidence, leading them astray causing them to sin and make false claims and accusations and even causing them to make poor and bad decisions because we failed to be trustworthy with the truth. But thanks be to God, trust can be restored and reconciled through a good confession and a true, good, and everlasting intention to never be deceptive again, to be faithful to your covenant and commitments, and in telling the truth always and avoiding lies always. God is truth and trust and trustworthy. God has never deceived you and can be trusted always and forever to tell you the truth. That is the truth. Although you may not be ready or open to hear the truth or there is a good chance it could cause you hurt or sadness because of the shame, embarrassment or disappointment but thank God the truth sets us free from the lies. Trust in God. There is no one like him.

Knights of Columbus

We are Catholic men building a bridge back to faith. There is much work to be done in this world. Good work. Necessary work. And that's what the Knights do. Every day. Assisting the sick and disabled.

Protecting those who can't protect themselves. Whether they are next door or halfway around the world. This is the journey we are on. Our path. We do it to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors and Catholics. We invest our time, our effort, and our resources into our values: Charity. Unity. Fraternity. Patriotism. We come from many places. And backgrounds. And stages in our lives. But we are all of one faith. A fraternity of men striving to better ourselves and our world. It's one thing to say who you are. It's another to live it. To put your values into action. That's what we do at the Knights of Columbus. That's who we are. What is Your Catholic Legacy? To leave a legacy is to reveal our hearts, for our legacy is a final testament of who we are, what we value, and whom we love. Regardless of your age, circumstances, or economic status, we encourage you to begin thinking about the legacy you are creating with your life, your aspirations for what you wish to leave behind and the message you hope to share with your loved ones, your community, and your Church. Once you have provided for your family, we hope you will remember the many needs of your parish and our larger diocesan family, including our seminarians, retired priests and Catholic school students. St. Margaret Mary Alacoque – October 16

Pillars of Faith

By Fr. Stephen
Baumann

St. Margaret Mary (1647-1690) entered the convent of the Sisters of the Visitation at Paray-le-Monial at the age of 24. She was noted for her humility and simplicity, as well as her kindness and patience in the face of hostility and criticism.

Even prior to her entrance into religious life, she had experienced visions of Christ. On December 27, 1674, three years after entering the Visitation convent, she received her first revelations from the Sacred Heart. These revelations continued for thirteen months. At first, Margaret Mary had to cope with much opposition and skepticism from her community and from theologians. Blessed Claude de la Columbiere, a Jesuit, became her confessor for a period of one year, and convinced her of the genuineness of the revelations. He encouraged her to persevere in her efforts to bring to fruition what the Sacred Heart asked of her.

St. Margaret Mary described well the nature of the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus in a letter:

"It seems to me that our Lord's earnest desire to have his Sacred Heart honored in a special way is directed toward renewing the effects of redemption in our souls. For the Sacred Heart is an inexhaustible fountain and its sole desire is to pour itself out into the hearts of the humble so as to free them and prepare them to lead lives according to his good pleasure.

From this divine heart three streams flow endlessly. The first is the stream of mercy for sinners; it pours into their hearts sentiments of contrition and repentance. The second is the stream of charity which helps all in need and especially aids those who are seeking perfection to find the means of surmounting their difficulties. From the third stream flows love and light for the benefit of his friends who have attained perfection; these he wishes to unite to himself so that they may share his knowledge and commandments and, in their individual ways, devote themselves wholly to advancing his glory.

This divine heart is an abyss of all blessings, and into it the poor should always submerge all their needs. It is an abyss of joy in which all of us can immerse our sorrows. It is an abyss of lowliness to counteract our foolishness, an abyss of mercy for the wretched, and an abyss of love to meet our every need."

Through the intercession of St. Margaret Mary "may we come to know the love of Christ, which surpasses all human understanding, and be filled with the fullness of God." (Opening Prayer of Mass).

UF Landscape Architect on staff

Have you met Coogie the Dumpster Cat?

As a kitten in 2017, he was abandoned in a Miami dumpster and brought to me by a friend who knew I rescued strays. Now, he is the STAR of his own children's book series that I am writing and donating my profits to charity.

As fate would have it, Coogie was most likely born on July 7th, the day my late husband went to Heaven. I truly believe he was sent to help me through that incredible loss.

Now, together, we are "paying it forward" to help others.
