Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.” One of the most striking gospel images that speaks directly to the core of one’s heart and penetrates the depths of one’s soul is Jesus crucified on the cross for you, Jesus crucified on the cross for me, Jesus crucified on the cross for all your family and all humanity. The cross speaks ever so loudly to those who choose to remain ever so ignorant and deaf to the words spoken by Jesus so clearly, humbly and freely from the wood of the cross. However, the cross speaks ever so softly and tenderly to the longing and thirsting of heart and soul of the immensity of God’s profound intimate love and the unfathomable depths of his unquenchable divine mercy. With the tender compassion that can only come from above, God tenderly speaks caring, hope filling words from his holy cross directly to us here below. After all the humiliation, all the suffering, all the rejection, all the lies and all the mockery, Jesus so graciously says from a heart filled with all the Father’s love and a soul drenched and flooded with an eternal love for all humanity, “Father, forgive them, they know not what they do.” We might want to personalize what Jesus said so to not miss the intent of his words or to think that perhaps Jesus was only speaking to the crowd and not directly to us. We need to make the Word of God personal and relate it directly to our lives by hearing Jesus say, Father, forgive (say your name, fill in the blank). Make it personal and intimate for Jesus is speaking about you. Forgiveness is the work of the Father and the grace that drenches and floods the Sacred Heart of Jesus with so much joy of living out the Father’s divine and holy will. We hear Jesus weak and parched on the cross, exhausted and thirsty say, “I thirst.” He thirsts for you, for your salvation, for the opportunity to bring healing to your heart and mind, body and soul. Jesus thirsts for the opportunity to baptize your children, to confirm your teens, to reconcile you to the Father. Through his Word and in his Eucharist, Jesus enters your heart, his holy dwelling place. From the heart, Jesus thirsts to pray with you, to be and remain with you, work and minister with you never leaving your side. He will flood your soul with his loving presence. Jesus thirsts for you. Do you thirst for him?

Send us your stories! In this year of Eucharistic Revival for our Parish, we are looking for stories to share of how you, or a parishioner who you know, has expressed our mission by Loving and Serving Others in our community - by being Eucharist to those in need. Send your story ideas to Scott Stafstrom at sstafstrom@annunciationorlando.org

New Beginnings

November 20

Join us as we continue our New Beginnings meetings with Fr. Ivan. Must RSVP to Jody North at jnorth@annunciationorlando.org for updated location.

The St. Vincent DePaul truck will be here on Nov. 16th from 10am until 1pm in the North parking lot by the St. Gabriel Life Center. We will be collecting new or used clothing, furniture and small appliances, to help the poor in our area. WE WILL NOT BE COLLECTING ANY FOOD ITEMS AT THIS TIME. Thank you!

St Joseph Men's Group

Join us every Friday morning for Mass at 7am in the Church, followed by great coffee in the St. Gabriel Life Center with a reflection on the readings and prayer. We finish by 8am. All men of the parish are welcome. If you have any questions, please contact Scott Stafstrom at 407-869-9472

What is Your Catholic Legacy? To leave a legacy is to reveal our hearts, for our legacy is a final testament of who we are, what we value, and whom we love. Regardless of your age, circumstances, or economic status, we encourage you to begin thinking about the legacy you are creating with your life, your aspirations for what you wish to leave behind and the message you hope to share with your loved ones, your community, and your Church. Once you have provided for your family, we hope you will remember the many needs of your parish and our larger diocesan family, including our seminarians, retired priests and Catholic school students. The Commemoration of All Souls

The practice of keeping a memorial day for the dead did not begin with Christianity; such a commemoration was prevalent in pagan antiquity. However, the Church has encouraged prayers for the dead from the earliest centuries as an act of Christian charity. As early as the second century, Christians commemorated the anniversary of the dead, especially of the martyrs. Our current observance of a single day for the dead dates to the seventh century and it is known that St. Isidore of Seville encouraged it.

The tone of All Souls Day is subdued and recalls Christ's suffering and death, which gives meaning to the deaths of all faithful Christians. At the All Souls Mass we are reminded that as we have died with Him, so also shall we share in His resurrection.

Belief in the resurrection of Jesus, and belief in our own resurrection should convince us to take life seriously. Death is not something that we as Christians should face with fear; it is not a threat to existence. If we understand it as the necessary prelude to resurrection, then it will help us to determine how to live. We will then look upon our time in this life as a series of opportunities for believing, hoping, loving, and growing.

Our destiny has been designed by the same Father who raised up Jesus from death. He wants us to join his Son in glory where we will live with more intensity than ever before, and forever.

Perhaps we will be more conscious of the Communion of Saints, which the Church teaches takes place at every Mass, where our deceased loved ones join the Lord and the visible priest in the sanctuary. We are much closer to them at Mass than at any cemetery. They are always with the Lord, and He is with us as the true Celebrant of every Mass.

When we pray for them, we experience a wonderful communion of help and of companionship. They pray for us, and look forward to our reunion one day. We can be aware too that we are also making our way to fullness of life and happiness in Jesus. That life is the gift that He has won for us.

Each year, as we celebrate the Commemoration of the Holy Souls, may the God of all consolation "bless us with faith in the resurrection of his Son, and with the hope of rising to new life."

Have you met Coogie the Dumpster Cat?

As a kitten in 2017, he was abandoned in a Miami dumpster and brought to me by a friend who knew I rescued strays. Now, he is the STAR of his own children's book series that I am writing and donating my profits to charity.

As fate would have it, Coogie was most likely born on July 7th, the day my late husband went to Heaven. I truly believe he was sent to help me through that incredible loss.

Now, together, we are "paying it forward" to help others.

Annual Percentage Yield (APY) effective 06/14/2023. CDs offered by Edward Jones are bank-issued and FDIC-insured up to $250,000 (principal and interest accrued but not yet paid) per depositor, per insured depository institution, for each account ownership category. Please visit www.fdic.gov or contact your financial advisor for additional information. Subject to availability and price change. CD values are subject to interest rate risk such that when interest rates rise, the prices of CDs can decrease. If CDs are sold prior to maturity, the investor can lose principal value. FDIC insurance does not cover losses in market value. Early withdrawal may not be permitted. Yields quoted are net of all commissions. CDs require the distribution of interest and do not allow interest to compound. CDs offered through Edward Jones are issued by banks and thrifts nationwide. All CDs sold by Edward Jones are registered with the Depository Trust Corp. (DTC). FDI-1916M-A
