Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God.” The word “gift” is actually a gift in itself. We are familiar with gifts. We can easily relate to the concept of gift giving and even enjoy spending an unlimited amount of time searching for the perfect gift for that special person to recall a happy occasion. We spend a lot of precious time looking for the right gift, something that is unique, still on-sale but would invoke that perfect response: Wow! This is amazing! Best gift ever! We enjoy giving that perfect special gift to that special certain someone but we also enjoy receiving a great gift to celebrate a birthday, an anniversary or that major accomplishment. A gift is a great joy both when it is given and when received. We can look at the word “gift” from so many vantage points and so many different perspectives. A gift can be something physical, like a new car, a new watch, or the latest Bluetooth electronic gadget or gizmo. It can be something even more amazing like that well thought out, well-planned, well-rehearsed, well-executed wedding proposal. It can be an engagement ring or the announcement of welcoming a newborn child. Still, even more amazing, is the gift of God who brings the child into this world. The gift of God is the gift of grace, the gift of life, the gift of his loving tender covenantal friendship. The greatest gift of God is his beloved Son, the gift of his beloved Mother and the gift of his Holy Spirit. God is gift and all God shares and relates to us is a precious gift and a great cause for our joy and joyous celebration. The one special and unique gift that helps us all share in God’s amazing gift of his infinite love and divine mercy is the gift and the grace of faith: the power, the choice, the ability to believe in God and see him with the eyes of insight and wisdom. It is the gift of grace. We encounter it when we walk by faith not by sight, along the everlasting way that God has graciously paved out for us in his great kindness and immense generosity. Growing In Faith Together (GIFT) is the true gift from God given to us in holy Baptism by the gift and out pouring of the Holy Spirit. In faith through God’s grace, we can know, love, and serve God who saved us.

Our Elect participate in the 2nd Scrutiny at the 10am Mass this weekend and then at the 12noon Mass next weekend for the final Scrutiny before the Easter Vigil.

Question: What are Scrutinies?

Answer: The Scrutinies are important and special rites of the Church celebrated on the Third, Fourth and Fifth Sundays of Lent, by those people who are preparing to be baptized at Easter, known as "The Elect". The Scrutinies are celebrated in order to deliver the elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the way, the truth and the life. The Gospels, from the "A" cycle, on the three Sundays on which the Scrutinies are celebrated teach the elect about the mystery of sin, and fill them with the Spirit of Christ. Thank you for keeping our Elect in your prayers.

St Frances of Rome - March 9 - Frances (1384-1440) lived in Rome and was "a woman of the home and of the world." Married at the age of 13, she was a devoted wife for 40 years and raised three children. Throughout her life, she found time for works of piety and charity. She was joined in this by her sister-in-law, Vannoza. Together, they visited the poor and the sick of Rome, often in trying circumstances, during the plague and famine, as well as several invasions of the city by anti-papal factions.

After the death of her husband, Frances entered the religious foundation of the Oblates of Mary, that she had earlier organized as a group of lay women who lived at home, without taking vows. They were dedicated to helping the poor and the sick, particularly the most difficult cases. Frances' last years were marked by penance, which was sometimes very austere. Many came to her for advice and guidance, as well as for cures. Needless to say, she was loved by all.

We have a testimony regarding the holiness of her life written by Mary Magdalene Anguillaria, a member of Frances' community:

"God not only tested the patience of Frances with respect to her material wealth...He also tested her own body in a variety of ways, especially through long and serious illnesses which she had to undergo. And yet no one ever observed in her a tendency toward impatience...The gifts he conferred upon her were to be for the spiritual and physical advantage of her neighbor. For this reason he made her so lovable that anyone with whom she spoke would immediately feel captivated by love for her and ready to help her in anything she wanted." (2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

The Collect of our Mass for this Lenten feast of St. Frances of Rome notes that in her, God has "given us a unique example of love in marriage as well as in religious life." Other saints have done this as well – Elizabeth Ann Seton readily comes to mind. Today we ask through the intercession of St. Frances of Rome for the grace to be faithful in God's service, and to see and follow Jesus in all aspects of life.

Dumpster Cat

"Every day another animal is abused, abandoned or neglected, every day another animal is without food, shelter or love"

You can help by purchasing a copy of "Coogie, the Dumpster Cat" at Amazon.com, your local bookstore or on the websites below.
(Available in English and Spanish)

As a kitten, Coogie was found in a dirty dumpster. Rescued, he's now on a mission to pay it forward helping his fur-friends find their fur-ever homes.
