Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“He relied on the LORD; let him deliver him, let him rescue him, if he loves him.” One of the challenges we face most is freedom, choice, free will. We suffer, at times, the freedom so freely given to us by God in the bad and poor decisions we make when we freely choose things and people who do not help but rather hurt us. We suffer rather than enjoy the gift of free will when we freely choose things that drive us to a deeper, darker depression and lead us to further emptiness rather than enjoy the freedom to choose the joy and happiness that comes with living in the glorious freedom of the Children of God. We renounce the freedom that God’s gracious gift brings us: liberation, redemption, salvation. We freely want like those who rebelled against God in the desert, to submit and enslave ourselves once again to sin and sinfulness. Rather than choosing freedom, rather than choosing the glorious freedom God has won for us, we choose to be imprisoned, restricted, and limited by the options that our bad choices bring. God has ransomed you from your personal Egypt. Why would you choose to entertain bad situations and further entrust yourself to bad, unfortunate circumstances that leave you flat, angry, frustrated, impatient, dissatisfied? Why freely give yourself to unhealthy, unruly relationships? Why entertain friendships that are detrimental to your poor spirit and low self-esteem? Why continue to develop destructive virtual relationships with images on your cell or maintain disgusting digital indiscretions with improper videos that cannot hear what you say or see what you do? Freedom is a choice that the Holy Spirit brings and the gift Christ has won for you. God’s love has given you the grace to choose to be free. Not the freedom to choose unfortunate circumstances or to return to your bad habits or your old ways. God’s love freely chooses you. He freely chooses to love you in great times and during bad, unfortunate circumstances. God’s love is so strong, so faithful, so steadfast that even when you freely choose to sin, God in his great love for you still chooses to freely remain in relationship with you and, praise God, remain with me. You are the choice God has made and he will not go back on his promise or change his mind. God relies on love to discern and with that same love chooses to remain freely in love with you. Love is freely given. Rely on love and you will always be free.

Guidance for Fasting and Abstinence

Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all 18 years of age and older who have not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal.

Abstinence is observed on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and on all other Fridays of Lent by all 14 years of age and older. On days of abstinence no meat is allowed.

Remember: If your health or your ability to work would be seriously affected, fasting or abstinence does not apply. If in doubt please speak with one of our Priests or Deacons.

Participate in the celebration of the Chrism Mass, Monday, March 25th. Bishop Noonan invites all the faithful to the celebration of the Chrism Mass from 11 am – 1 pm at the Basilica of the National Shrine of Mary, Queen of the Universe, 8300 Vineland Ave., Orlando. During the Chrism Mass, Bishop John Noonan will consecrate the holy oils used in Sacraments and other celebrations during the year. The Chrism Mass is also an opportunity for all priests to renew their priestly commitment and for jubilarian priests celebrating 25, 50, and other significant anniversaries to be honored.

Holy Thursday

Good Friday Stations of the Cross - 12pm
The Passion of the Lord - 3pm (ASL interpreted)

The Veneration and Adoration of the Cross on Good Friday

One of the Church's most treasured liturgical traditions is the adoration of the Cross at the Liturgy of the Passion of the Lord on Good Friday. Most of us will have memories of individual veneration, kissing or touching the wood of the Cross, but where there is a large congregation the Church has foreseen that there is a real practical problem - a lengthy time of veneration destroys the integrity of a beautiful and balanced liturgy which is about the Lord, not about us. The Roman Missal instructs: "If, because of the large number of people, it is not possible for all to approach individually", the Priest is to take the Cross, stand in the middle, and invite the people all together to adore the Holy Cross in silence. Once again, we will adore the cross together at Annunciation, precisely as happens at Saint Peter's in Rome; all simply kneel at their places for a brief time of adoration. However, as the Missal says, at the end of the ceremony "the Cross remains" and when the clergy have departed in silence, you will be able to come and venerate the sacred wood. The church building will stay open until 5:30pm.

You may have heard that in some Florida churches with large attendances the Pastors have chosen to have many crosses available for veneration but the Missal and our Diocesan instructions are quite clear: "Only one Cross should be offered for veneration". Saint Paul tells us (1 Cor. 1:13) that Christ is not divided and the Church wants to emphasize the uniqueness of the death of the Son of God for us.

Holy Saturday - Blessing of Food - 12noon

EASTER

Saturday, March 30th

Easter Vigil - 8pm

Please pray for our Elect who will be received into the Church this night.

and teacher assistants for the 2024-2025 School year. All candidates should have a passion for working with children and a desire to help them grow in their faith. If interested, please contact Ms. Nazly Cabral: ncabral@annunciationpre-school.org

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the RCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program. Classes will begin Tuesday, April 9th at 7pm in the Nazareth Center TO FIND OUT MORE: Contact Deacon Pete Pronko at ppronko@annunciationorlando.org or 407-869-9472.

Join us for The Nazareth Centered Retreat - Day Two

Fr. Ivan will continue to share the graces and gifts from the School of Spiritual Direction with us. This retreat like experience is open to all, and will explore our relationship with the Father through the eyes and lives of the Holy Family. Who better to learn from? This will be an opportunity to be spiritually directed by the Holy Family of Nazareth which is a house of prayer and a school of spiritual formation. We will gather four times a year. Day two, "Who told you that you were naked?", will be on Saturday, May 11th from 9am to 1pm. There is no cost to attend. If you attended the 1st day, you do not need to register. If this will be your first time attending, please register on our website at www.annunciationorlando.org/nazareth

SAVE THE DATE June 10 -14 for Annunciation's Totally Catholic Vacation Bible School - Scuba: Diving Into Friendship with God. We are now accepting volunteer applications for youth and adult volunteers. Youth volunteers must be at least a rising 6th grader. We are looking for applicants with a heart to serve, who are willing to commit for the entire week from 8:30am -12:30pm. To submit your application, visit www.annunciationorlando.org/vbsvolunteer

Pillars of Faith

By Fr. Stephen Baumann

St Joseph, Husband of Mary – March 19 - The gospel passage for this solemnity is St Matthew's account of the announcement to Joseph of the coming birth of Jesus. It makes St. Joseph the central and active figure – Joseph is the recipient of a revelation and God communicates his will to him. The evangelist suggests that Joseph understood what was asked of him and without further questioning or doubt accepted the call of God. "When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had directed him." (Matthew 1:24). Joseph was truly a man of faith.

Our scripture lessons on the Solemnity, teach us about faith, and trust in God. Three figures are presented to us, each one an example of faith – David, Abraham and Joseph. Each one of them committed himself to an unknown without hesitation. The silence of the Scriptures regarding St. Joseph speaks eloquently of his faith. The few passages in which he is mentioned show him as a man going about the business of what God asked of him.

The short reading at Vespers or Evening Prayer on this solemnity speaks to us of St. Joseph: "Whatever you do, work at it with your whole being. Do it for the Lord rather than for men, since you know full well that you will receive an inheritance from him as your reward." (Colossians 3:23-24).

Generally, we have some notion of what God wants of us after seeking guidance and advice. It may be clear to us how we are to go about doing his will, yet we still need faith and trust in God's Providence as we face the future. In any adventure with God, difficulties may be encountered, challenges will have to be met.

The events of sacred history are a source of encouragement, as we give ourselves unreservedly to God, and his purpose and will for us.

Our prayer honors St. Joseph, "that just man, that wise and loyal servant whom God placed at the head of his family," (Preface of the Mass), to cherish Mary and to watch over Jesus. We ask for Joseph's watchfulness over the Church with the same care and unselfish love he gave to Mary and Jesus.

Coogie
Dumpster Cat

"Every day another animal is abused, abandoned or neglected, every day another animal is without food, shelter or love"

You can help by purchasing a copy of "Coogie, the Dumpster Cat" at Amazon.com, your local bookstore or on the websites below.
(Available in English and Spanish)

As a kitten, Coogie was found in a dirty dumpster. Rescued, he's now on a mission to pay it forward helping his fur-friends find their fur-ever homes.

Annual Percentage Yield (APY) effective 06/14/2023. CDs offered by Edward Jones are bank-issued and FDIC-insured up to $250,000 (principal and interest accrued but not yet paid) per depositor, per insured depository institution, for each account ownership category. Please visit www.fdic.gov or contact your financial advisor for additional information. Subject to availability and price change. CD values are subject to interest rate risk such that when interest rates rise, the prices of CDs can decrease. If CDs are sold prior to maturity, the investor can lose principal value. FDIC insurance does not cover losses in market value. Early withdrawal may not be permitted. Yields quoted are net of all commissions. CDs require the distribution of interest and do not allow interest to compound. CDs offered through Edward Jones are issued by banks and thrifts nationwide. All CDs sold by Edward Jones are registered with the Depository Trust Corp. (DTC). FDI-1916M-A
