Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.” The object of sin is sinfulness. The author and prince of sin is cunning, calculating, vicious and vindictive. His actions are daunting, desperate, discouraging and deceitful. Sin seeks to divide individuals, dissuade people, separate our faithful from the flock, isolate and confuse our young people. Sin should offend everyone because it preys on our children, including the unborn, oppresses and abuses the weak and vulnerable in our society and our families, and simply uses anyone and everyone for selfish purposes and reason for disordered gain and lustful desires. Sin destroys relationships, disrupts friendships, hurts our families, and depresses our youth. The result of sin has darkened our world to the point that many despair without faith and trust in the Resurrection. The weight of the darkness is too much to bear. Darkness hides the hurt. Further sin numbs the effects. Personal sin covers and disguises our minds in a veil and web of darkness and covers our eyes and our bodies in guilt and shame. We are overly desolate from the sins of others and seriously wounded by the effects of our own sin. We are so wounded we come to believe sin is natural. We cover sin up by saying; “we are weak, we had no other choice, I am only human.” We deceive ourselves to think and believe sin is okay, sometimes we have to sin, lying at times is necessary and considered okay because sinning is acceptable. It is permissible to lie because everyone lies. What a lie. We have come to believe falsely that at times sin is necessary, advantageous and in fact prosperous and beneficial. We believe that lying and sinning is necessary in order to keep from hurting our love ones. Can you believe that? We even believe sin is helpful and necessary in order to keep another person from hurting us first, including spouses, children, and siblings. At times, we even believe it is easier for us to be and remain revengeful rather than be reconciling and merciful as our Lord is reconciling and merciful. If we are deceitful even when we call it an untruth, a necessary sin, a little lie that will not hurt anyone, we simply deceive ourselves, hurt others and wound ourselves. Love forgives and forgets. Love heals and it sets us free. Hurt and pain, grudges and resentment, fear and sin retain the person and forget to forgive. Remember, Christ has forgiven you. By his wounds, you were healed.

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the RCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program. Classes will begin Tuesday, April 9th at 7pm in the Nazareth Center

TO FIND OUT MORE: Contact Deacon Pete Pronko at ppronko@annunciationorlando.org or 407-869-9472.

How can we pray for you? Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. Our Priests will be praying for each specific intention that you submit. Submit your intentions at:

Pillars of Faith

By Fr. Stephen Baumann

St Vincent Ferrer, Priest – April 9 -

Vincent Ferrer (1350-1419) entered the Dominican Order, was ordained a priest, and became an ardent and energetic preacher. It was the time of the Western Schism - with many claimants to the papacy, and even saints took sides.

Cardinal Peter de Luria (who had ordained Vincent) was a false claimant in Avignon, and he called Vincent to serve in his curia. After a short time the strain caused Vincent to become ill, and he left to continue his missionary preaching.

Eventually, the scandal of the schism worsened when there were three claimants to the papacy. The Council of Constance intervened, and one (John XXII) was deposed, another (Gregory XII in Rome) agreed to resign and the third, Peter De Luna (Benedict XII in Avignon), refused to resign. Vincent went to persuade his friend to acquiesce for the sake of unity in the Church. When he refused, Vincent denounced him at a public assembly, and then he fled for his life. Unity was restored with the election of the rightful Gregory XII, in 1314, and Vincent was given much credit for the restoration.

For the last three years of his life, he continued to preach. He died in 1419, greatly venerated by all and was canonized in 1455.

Much of his spiritual writing is addressed to priests, but we can all find something to take to heart: "When you treat virtuous and sinful acts in your sermons and exhortations, use simple language and sensible examples. Give apt and precise examples whenever you can. Your tone of voice should be that of a father. Abstract discourses on the virtues and vices hardly inspires those who listen. When hearing confessions, you should always radiate the warmest charity. Finally, if you want truly to help the soul of your neighbor, you should approach God first with all your heart. Ask him to fill you with charity, the greatest of all virtues. With it, you can accomplish what you desire." (2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

St. Vincent did what we proclaim in the Responsory to the reading. He preached in season and out of season; he refuted falsehood, corrected error, and called to obedience. He preached repentance to the people that they might turn to God.

Coogie
Dumpster Cat

"Every day another animal is abused, abandoned or neglected, every day another animal is without food, shelter or love"

You can help by purchasing a copy of "Coogie, the Dumpster Cat" at Amazon.com, your local bookstore or on the websites below.
