Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us; make our hearts burn while you speak to us.” From time to time, I cannot help but think about and meditate on the helplessness of God. Don’t you wonder sometimes how our covenant Lord who is God - Creator, Master, and

Teacher, can and does create from nothing and does not need anything or anyone but is helplessly in love with you? God cannot help but love us. It is who he is and he cannot deny himself for love helplessly seeks the good of the other. Because the Father eternally loves us so much, he remains patiently helpless as we continue to make terribly bad decisions that are at times extremely detrimental to our health, very hurtful and destructive to ourselves and are unmercifully unkind to others. God patiently watches and listens for his children. He remains constant in prayer and with an eternal patience, waits for one of his needy children to seek his help or ask for his guidance so that we can openly and prayerfully discern our situation and, in a spirit of prayer with God, make the best possible decision. With the help of God’s grace, his spiritual direction and trustworthy counsel, we can experience the achievement of the best possible outcome to our situation by relying and depending solely and only on God, who is always reliable and dependable, and not rely on another or even relying on ourselves who are, at best unreliable and cannot really help us. I contemplate how we render God, our most faithful heavenly Father powerless. How in his great love for his beloved children and all of his beloved creation, God cannot help but want to help us and come immediately to our aid when we cry out and scream aloud for help. Nevertheless, unfortunately, we do not cry out, call out or come to God in a spirit of prayer for his unwavering support and assistance but rather we talk to ourselves, or cry out to an innocent bystander or even yell at the enemy who does not really care or want to help you. Rather than crying out aloud from the depths of our limited wavering faith, and perhaps even from the core of our own helplessness, and saying to our Merciful Father, “God, come to my assistance. Lord, make haste to help me,” we attempt to resolve our difficult problems without God’s help. Rather than trusting and depending on the power of God’s word, we render God powerless, helplessly waiting for someone to pray.

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program. Classes have just begun. Join us on Tuesdays at 7pm in the Nazareth Center

How can we pray for you? Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. Our Priests will be praying for each specific intention that you submit. Submit your intentions at:

February Impact Report

With your support, in February SVDP, helped 17 households that included 30 adults and 24 children. The majority of assistance was for rent and utilities such as for this family: Parents of three young children found their two jobs were not enough to pay their rent and household bills. Mom had just received a dollar an hour raise, however that triggered their food stamps to be taken away. They fell behind in the electric bill, and had been without electricity for a week when they reached out for help. They have been prioritizing food for their family as food pantries were difficult to get to with their job hours. At the time we met, dad had secured a second job, so going forward they should be a stable after SVDP restored their electricity. See below for February details

Neighbor Supplies	$430.20
Rent	$7,492.20
Utility	$1,000.00
Medical	$347.00
Childcare	$360.89
Other	$494.10

Pillars of Faith

By Fr. Stephen Baumann

The Annunciation of the Lord – March 25th

The Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord goes back to the fourth or fifth century. Its central focus is the Incarnation: God has become one of us. From all eternity, God had decided that the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity should become human. Now as Luke 1:26-28 tells us, that decision is being realized. The God-Man embraces all humanity, indeed all creation, to bring it to God in one great act of love. Because human beings have rejected God, Jesus will accept a life of suffering and an agonizing death: “No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” (John 15:13).

Mary has an important role to play in God’s plan. God destined her to be the mother of Jesus and closely related to him in the creation and redemption of the world. We could say that God’s decrees of creation and redemption are joined in the decree of Incarnation. As Mary is God’s instrument in the Incarnation, she has a role to play with Jesus in creation and redemption. It is a God-given role. It is God’s grace from beginning to end. Mary becomes the eminent figure she is only by God’s grace. She is the empty space where God could act. She owes everything she is to the Blessed Trinity.

She is the virgin-mother who fulfills Isaiah 7:14 in a way that Isaiah could not have imagined. She is united with her son in carrying out the will of God (Psalm 40:89; Hebrews 10:7-9; Luke 1:38).

Together with Jesus, the privileged and graced Mary is the link between heaven and earth. She is the human being who best, after Jesus, exemplifies the possibilities of human existence. She received into her lowliness the infinite love of God. She shows how an ordinary human being can reflect God in the ordinary circumstances of life. She exemplifies what the church and every member of the church is meant to become. She is the ultimate product of the creative and redemptive power of God. She manifests what the Incarnation is meant to accomplish for all of us.

Sometimes spiritual writers are accused of putting Mary on a pedestal and thereby discouraging ordinary humans from imitating her. Perhaps such an observation is misguided. God did put Mary on a pedestal and has put all human beings on a pedestal. We have scarcely begun to realize the magnificence of divine grace, the wonder of God’s freely given love. The marvel of Mary – even in the midst of her very ordinary life – is God’s shout to us to wake up to the marvelous creatures that we all are by divine design.
