Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

“God is greater than our hearts and knows everything.” I am most grateful and genuinely thankful for the upbringing I received and for the opportunity to be able to say without hesitation or regret that I appreciate the lessons life taught me. I am grateful that with the blessed help of God’s grace, I can honestly see and even be grateful and thankful for the disciplinary actions that were necessary to correct and calm me and prevent me from going astray. I am most appreciative for the grace and gift of the apostolic faith I so longed for and needed that my parents and godparents showed me, provided to me and handed on to me. These were all helpful, useful and necessary gifts, tools and lessons in my formative years that still prove to be helpful, useful and necessary in my current journey and in the adventures that are still to come. In the spirit of Saint Ignatius, I can honestly say that I am thankful for all and everyone who helped me and caused me to turn and return to God. I thank the Lord for teaching me and helping me how to learn to pray to Jesus with faith, confidence and sincerity of heart. How to believe and trust in Jesus and how to ask and permit Jesus to heal me, sanctify me and make me holy. I am also ever so grateful and thankful for the gift of being able to seek humbly Our Lady’s powerful intercession and asking Our Mother Mary for constant help and ongoing assistance daily, often and always. What a grace and blessing it is to know and be thankful to know all the ways we have been loved and mercifully treated, helped and supported, guided and protected, forgiven and redeemed. Our gracious Lord and Savior truly has been so good to you and to me. I think about all the ways and people God so graciously provided to help me. What a gift and blessing. I can also acknowledge and honestly recall without reliving the pain, the ways, experiences and people who were not so helpful, useful or necessary but rather hurtful and wounding. The ways people projected their hurt and anger, their perceptions and prejudices, their choices and preferences, their bad decisions and ideas. All unhappy circumstances and rather limiting and useless but with the help of God’s grace, his tender love and mercy, can be great lessons in life that can transform a bad situation into something that can be helpful and useful to others.

St. Catherine of Siena, Virgin and Doctor – April 29 - Catherine was born in Siena in 1347, and was the twenty-third child of Jacopo and Lapa Benincasa. She was an intelligent, cheerful and religious young lady. At the age of eighteen, she entered the Dominican Third Order, spending the following three years in solitude, long hours in prayer, and in penance. Gradually, she attracted followers among priests, religious and laity, whom she encouraged and guided in the spiritual life.

Catherine also took an active interest in public affairs of the Church. She was instrumental in having Pope Gregory XI return to Rome from Avignon. She supported his successor in Rome, Urban VI, against the Avignon faction.

Not very robust in health at any time, she suffered a stroke eight days before her death which occurred on April 29, 1380 at the age of 33.

In Chapter 167 of her Dialogues we read: "Eternal God, eternal Trinity, you have made the blood of Christ so precious through his sharing in your divine nature. You are a mystery as deep as the sea; the more I search, the more I find, and the more I find the more I search for you. But I can never be satisfied; what I receive will ever leave me desiring more." (Dialogues; 2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

Throughout her life, Catherine had mystical experiences, the first at the tender age of six. These guided her life choices. She was also blessed with the stigmata. Her mystical teaching is found in the Dialogues, in her letters and in some two dozen prayers. Central to her theology is the redeeming love of Christ on the Cross and his blood which is poured out mercifully for all people. All of her writings reveal the mystic's hunger for God.

"When you fill my soul I have an even greater hunger, and I grow more famished for your light. I desire above all to see you, the true light, as you really are." Continued next week.

Prayer to Defeat Florida's Abortion Amendment

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Florida from laws that disregard their health and safety.

Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. God Almighty, we ask their intercession to protect the preborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life and accompanying pregnant women in need. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Mother of the Family, pray for us!
