Join us for The Nazareth Centered Retreat - Day Two Saturday, May 11th

Fr. Ivan will continue to share the graces and gifts from the School of Spiritual Direction with us. This retreat like experience is open to all, and will explore our relationship with the Father through the eyes and lives of the Holy Family. Who better to learn from? This will be an opportunity to be spiritually directed by the Holy Family of Nazareth which is a house of prayer and a school of spiritual formation. We will gather four times a year. Day two, "Who told you that you were naked?", will be on Saturday, May 11th from 9am to 1pm. There is no cost to attend. If you attended the 1st day, you do not need to register.

If this will be your first time attending, please register at www.annunciationorlando.org/nazareth

The last day to sign up is Wednesday, May 8th so that we can have enough materials. No walk ins. Thank you!

Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

"Get up. I myself am also a human being." I think of how often we use the term or phrase "I am only human" or we say of another, "They are only human." At times, we use these terms and phrases in our conversations with others or use them in our conversations when we talk ill about another in the hope to make some kind of atonement for our own sins or amendment for the sins of others. At times, we refer to being only human in attempts to bring a quick resolution to an unpleasant family situation or even to draw a quick happy conclusion to a raging stormy argument or the end of a healthy friendly debate. During these circumstances, saying or referring to the fact we are only human sounds much like an excuse or a diminishment of the reality and the dignity of being human with a touch of the divine. We make it sound so terrible to be formed, created and blessed, to have "being", in the image and likeness of God. Our Lord is light, true light, pure light; God is love, is light, is life. God is the source of all that is beautiful, the Creator of all that is good, wholesome, lovely, and true. God is life and all that draws life from God lives and has being because God graciously creates and wills it so. God is alive and all that lives is alive and lives life in and through, and with God. Our very breath is not to be temporary, time bound in any way, borrowed for some time, or even limited by death. Our breath is not to be constrained in any way but freely alive for it is a precious gift from God. Our breath is like a heavenly spiritual dewfall from God himself for the air we breathe, the breath we share, the oxygen in our lungs is the sacred breath of God living and breathing in you and me, and that is not an excuse or an accident but a gracious gift not diminishing in any way. Jesus is true God and true man. In Jesus, we experience a wonderful holy exchange of humanity and divinity, blessed by God, united in eternal breath and truly consecrated in a spiritual communion for all eternity. Being human is to be like Mary, like Joseph, like all the holy women and men we call saints. We beg our heavenly human family to help us realize that being "only human" is truly blessed and only divine.

Sign up to receive each of the 9 days of prayer as an audio file led by Fr. Ivan along with the text of the prayer. The Novena concludes on Pentecost. St. Catherine of Siena, Virgin and Doctor – April 29 - (continued from last week)

Catherine longed to surrender herself completely to God:

"I have tasted and seen the depth of your mystery and the beauty of your creation. With the light of my understanding, I have clothed myself with your likeness and have seen what I shall be. Eternal Father, you have given me a share in your power and the wisdom that Christ claims as his own, and your Holy Spirit has given me the desire to love you." (ibid).

St. Catherine had difficulty with critics and slanderers, even to the point where she had to defend herself before a Dominican General Chapter. It is difficult to appreciate St. Catherine of Siena in so few minutes, but what Alois Maria Haas has written is a beginning:

"Mystical rapture in God always gave Catherine great certitude for quick action. The image of knightly battle inspired her, and she fought against ecclesiastical decadence through criticism, instruction, and preaching about poverty and obedience, the necessity of an uncompromising knowledge of self and of God, prudence, and the renunciation of self-love and egoism. In sum, it was a unique attempt to unite action and contemplation in a life dedicated to the good of the Church. Catherine's life was consumed by and offered up for the Church. The Church was her guarantor of the redeeming blood of Christ, the nursing mother of salvation. Her mysticism received from this a strong emphasis on the history and community of salvation." (Christian Spirituality: high Middle ages and Reformation, pp 167-168).

The Collect or Opening Prayer of the Mass sums up her life succinctly: "Father, in meditating on the suffering of your Son, and in serving your Church, Saint Catherine was filled with the fervor of your love." The Antiphon for the Magnificat at Evening Prayer adds: "Always and everywhere Catherine sought and found God. Through the strength of her love she entered into union with Him."

St. Catherine of Siena was canonized in 1461. She was declared a Doctor of the Church in 1970 by Pope Paul VI.

Prayer to Defeat Florida's Abortion Amendment

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Florida from laws that disregard their health and safety.

Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. God Almighty, we ask their intercession to protect the unborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life and accompanying pregnant women in need. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Coogie
Dumpster Cat

"Every day another animal is abused, abandoned or neglected, every day another animal is without food, shelter or love"

You can help by purchasing a copy of "Coogie, the Dumpster Cat" at Amazon.com, your local bookstore or on the websites below.
(Available in English and Spanish)
