Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

"He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered." Has Easter ended for you? Has it already gone by? Is Easter already old news or is it just beginning as you spiritually wake up, are enlightened, and come alive? Easter is so much more than a Vigil or a special Sunday. It is so much more than a dedicated liturgical time or a special specific liturgical season. Easter is a true reality of God's magnificent transcendent love, that transcends all space and time, and thoroughly accomplished in the here, there, and now and fully accomplished in the forever eternity we call home. Easter is the joyful truth of the profound, immense love God has for his creation and the unfathomable divine mercy that has acted on creation's behalf. A love that transforms history and ages past. A merciful love that forgives, forgets, remains present and active all the time. Easter is about a sacred bond that makes all things and people new. An eternal, faithful covenantal loving relationship and friendship that freely and happily gives life, courageously and perpetually forgives life, heroically yet humbly overcomes death and lovingly and mercifully gives life anew, a life that is unending, undying, eternal and true. Easter begs for the opportunity to stop us in the busyness of our continuous coming and going. Easter would have us to stop, take a pause, look around and ask yourself: Why are you here? How did you get here to this current day and situation? Where are you heading? Is heaven a possibility for you? Easter calls us, begs us, implores us for the opportunity for some restful time to thoroughly and genuinely consider, reflect and contemplate the most profound question Easter could ask: What has God accomplished in you? Have you received the new life Jesus won for you? Seriously, do you know what God has done for you lately? God's well thought out, perfectly discerned and awesomely executed divine plan gave you a new day, a new beginning, a new life in Christ. The Paschal Mystery, which is the sacred Passion, Death and Resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and his glorious Ascension into our heavenly home has conquered death, reopened the gateway and path to heaven for us and now readies for our coming home again. This mystery gives unending life, breathes life into our painful wounds and heals the effects of sinful humanity and the death that awaited us. May the Lord's Passion, Death, Resurrection and Ascension be accomplished in you.

How can we pray for you? Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. Our Priests will be praying for each specific intention that you submit. Submit your intentions at:

March/April Impact Report

Through emergency outreach, we helped 26 households to include 44 adults and 24 children. We took an additional 61 calls that were out of our area, so we connected them with resources in their areas. Most of the assistance for our neighbors in need involved rent and utilities. One single mom's job security was jeopardized by unstable childcare for her 3 young children which resulted in her losing her job. With reliable childcare established and a new job, she can now be a stable employee. We helped with rent until she received her new employment paycheck thus avoiding eviction and homelessness. See below for March/April details

Sts. Nereus and Achileus, Martyrs – May 12
 Two first century martyrs are honored today, Nereus and Achileus, both soldiers, who gave up their military careers upon becoming Christians. They were then condemned to death, one tradition says by beheading, another by being burned to death. We honor them "for their courage in dying to profess their faith in Christ." (Collect of Mass)

They were buried in a ceremony on the Ardeantine Way where a basilica was eventually built in their honor. In the fourth century Pope St. Damasus wrote an epitaph for their tombstones at their place of burial. It reads:

"The Martyrs Nereus and Achileus had enrolled themselves in the army and exercised the cruel office of carrying out the orders of the tyrant Emperor Trajan, being ever ready, through the constraint of fear, to obey his will. O miracle of faith! Suddenly they ceased from their fury, they became converted, they flew from the camp of their wicked leader; they threw away their shields, their armor and their blood-stained javelins. Confessing the faith of Christ, they rejoiced to bear testimony to its triumph. Learn now from the words of Damasus what great things the glory of Christ can accomplish."

Cardinal John Henry Newman wrote: "No one is a martyr for a conclusion; no one is a martyr for an opinion; it is faith that makes martyrs."

Prayer to Defeat Florida's Abortion Amendment

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Florida from laws that disregard their health and safety.

Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. God Almighty, we ask their intercession to protect the unborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life and accompanying pregnant women in need. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Mother of the Family,
pray for us!

St. Joseph, Protector of the Unborn,
pray for us!
