God of power and mercy, you destroy war and put down earthly pride. Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters. Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

"You must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other." At the heart of discipleship, its call, vocation and gracious invitation is the sharing of a unique and special mission, the mission that Christ is personally given directly from the Father and personally shared in the Spirit with those who Jesus loves, chooses, calls and sends. Baptized into the marvelous Kingdom of God and made beloved sons and daughters of the Father, through the Son and in the Holy Spirit, you are now heirs to that mission and the glorious fulfillment of what that mission promises to deliver to you and what the mission promises to deliver you from, which is deliverance from every evil. You have become recipients to all that the mission entails and provides, which is healing of heart and soul, forgiveness of the effects of personal sin, peaceful reconciliation to God and to one another, eternal life, freedom, happiness and endless joy forever. In Christ and through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, you have become beneficiaries of the unique gratuitous gift of the Father and the glorious freedom the mission brings. God so loved the world that he sent his only begotten beloved Son Jesus on a mission of a most profound unique love to heal hearts that are grieving and broken, bring freedom to those who feel imprisoned or feel captive, to reconcile our past and current hurts and to develop and promote peace and joy throughout our eternal lives. Christ invites you in a particular and unique way to personally participate and share in his heavenly mission now entrusted to you. Is your heart seriously burning and inflamed with the passion, spirit and sacrificial love of Christ your brother who saved you? Is your heart on fire with the faithful covenant love of God your Father who created you? Is your heart truly aching, hungry and truly set ablaze with the tongues of fire that landed on the disciples from the Holy Spirit who cleansed you, washed you in the waters of baptism and pours out his divine love directly into your heart? Do you desire to know God ever more intimately, to fix your heart on him and love him more profoundly with a pure heart and to serve him ever more faithfully as Jesus did by sharing the mission to love and serve one another? Nothing can separate us from the loving mission of God. Not even you.

Pillars of Faith

By Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. John I, Pope and Martyr – May 18

When the elderly and ill John became Bishop of Rome in 523, Theodoric, a Goth, was king of Italy. He was an Arian, but was tolerant of the faithful Christians. On the other hand, the emperor Justin in Constantinople was harsh toward the Arians. John was sent by Theodoric along with several ministers of the court to convince the emperor to be more tolerant of the Arians. In the early part of the sixth century, the Church was still plagued by the Arian heresy, which denied the divinity of Jesus. However, by that time the heresy was kept alive more by the support of civil government than by any attraction to the error itself.

While some compromise may have been reached, the outcome of the mission remains unclear. Theodoric was envious and angry at the grand reception given to John as Bishop of Rome by both the emperor and patriarch of Constantinople. He also was suspicious of his ministers, some of whom he had executed. John was imprisoned at Ravenna on his return, already ill, and he died of mistreatment in 526. He is honored as a martyr.

For a reflection, we turn to the Constitution on the Church: "Since Jesus, the Son of God, showed his love by laying down his life for us, no one has greater love than he who lays down his life for him and for his brothers. Some Christians have been called from the beginning, and will always be called, to give this greatest testimony of love to all, especially to persecutors. Martyrdom makes the disciple like his master, who willingly accepted death for the salvation of the world, and through it he is conformed to him by the shedding of his blood. Therefore the Church considers it the highest gift and supreme test of love. And while it is given to few, all however must be prepared to confess Christ before men and to follow him along the way of the cross amidst the persecutions which the Church never lacks." (Lumen Gentium, n. 42).
