ORDINATION to the Permanent Diaconate

Bryan and Maryanne Zornik

18 men to be ordained as deacons, June 8 including our own Bryan Zornik!

Bishop John Noonan invites all the faithful to attend the ordination of 18 men to the Order of Deacon on June 8 at the Basilica of the National Shrine of Mary, Queen of the Universe, 8300 Vineland Ave., Orlando. The celebration of Mass will begin at 10 a.m. Livestreamed on YouTube and Facebook. Join in prayer and thanksgiving as we celebrate this joyous occasion.

Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us." Relating to God in prayer is who we are. We are a relationship formed by God expected and hoped for - to remain in an ongoing loving dialog with God, sharing with him our daily encounters and experiences, the good and bad alike. Lovingly receiving from God the many graces, blessings, and assistance God offers and we need, especially those the Lord graciously wishes to bestow upon us. Offering to the Lord from the many gifts he lavishes upon us, the joys and joyous celebrations we celebrate, the gratitude and blessed thanksgivings he inspires, as well as offering to him the hurts and disappointments, the sorrow, loss and humiliations, all the heartaches and brokenness and even the failures and all of life's impatient and frustrating moments. This is a true friendship and relationship with God. Our gracious God is relationship, and happily is in a loving relationship with us, always relating and communicating himself constantly to us. God generously shares himself with us selflessly, honestly and most charitably, all that we need and all that is good for us. He gives us peace always, eternal joy and happiness forever. What God says, shares and relates to us, is always helpful and useful to us in obtaining the peace, joy and happiness we so long for and desperately need. Listening as the Lord has asked is an important aspect of relating, forming and maintaining a relationship with God and with others. Listening to how God speaks to us, how we communicate and respond to him, and how well we respond or react to others is at the heart of relating. Prayer is relating and relating begins with listening attentively, with abandoned surrender to the message being shared, then receiving what is said in a spirit of discernment, asking the Lord to help us to respond in gratitude to all that is good for us and humbly renounce and reject all that is contrary to God, his word and ordinances. Have you listened lately, attentively to the words that have poured forth from your thoughts and your mouth? Do you believe what you say in the reactions of your thoughts and in the responses from your lips? Sometimes we say what is not true, what is not helpful or what we really don't mean. God is true and truly means he loves being in a relationship with you.

Congratulations to Father Michael Batista and Father Phillip Mills ! Bishop Noonan ordained them into the priesthood at Mary Queen of the Universe last Saturday. May their vocation be fruitful and inspiring to all.

Prayer to Defeat Florida's Abortion Amendment

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Florida from laws that disregard their health and safety.

Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. God Almighty, we ask their intercession to protect the preborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life and accompanying pregnant women in need. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Mother of the Family, pray for us!

St. Mary Magdalene de Pazzi, Virgin – May 25

A short introductory paragraph in the Liturgy of the Hours for this feast of St. Mary Magdalene de Pazzi (1568-1607) tells us that "She led a solitary life of prayer and self-denial, prayed fervently for Church reform and directed her fellow sisters on the road to perfection."

She was a member of the cloistered Carmelite community in Florence, Italy. The Church of her time struggled with the problems of the Reformation and the reforms mandated by the Council of Trent. She became ill as a novice, and was very close to death when she was granted mystical experiences. Afterwards she was able to communicate insights into divine truths through her writings. Through letters to the pope and others in the Church she encouraged efforts for the reform of the Church.

She was very devout in her cloistered life of prayer, and throughout her life she suffered much, physically and spiritually. Her spiritual sufferings were due to temptation and spiritual dryness, but she persevered, with strong faith and charity.

An excerpt from her writings which we read in the Office of Readings today shows her marvelous understanding of how God reveals Himself to us:

"You do not, O Holy Spirit, stand still in the unmoved Father or in the Word, and yet you are always in the Father and in the Word and in yourself and in all blessed spirits and creatures. You are the friend of the created because of the blood shed by the only begotten Word, who in the greatness of his love made himself the friend of the created. You find rest in creatures who are prepared to meet you, so that in the transmission of your gifts they take on, through purity, their own particular likeness to you. You also find rest in those creatures who absorb the effects of the blood of the Word and make themselves a worthy dwelling place for you."

We pray that we may follow the example of purity and charity of St. Mary Magdalene de Pazzi who was filled with heavenly gifts and the fire of God's love. (Collect of Mass).

We await the final promise of Our Lady at Fatima as we continue to respond to her requests to atone for sinners and make reparation, urgently needed today.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus

Using passages from Sacred Scripture, Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Ben Akers discuss the Church's teaching on the Sacred Heart and the background of the devotion.

St. Boniface | Catholic Saints

Known as the "Apostle to Germany," the bishop and martyr St. Boniface worked tirelessly to renew the Church in Germany. Although his efforts ultimately bore great fruit and helped to recenter the faith of the Germans, St. Boniface often felt like a failure in his missionary work.
