Reflections from the Heart by Fr. Ivan

"To his own disciples he explained everything in private." Are you tired of praying, tired of hearing others pray, tired of having others invite you into prayer or tired of someone telling you that you should pray more often? Ever wonder why the disciples asked Jesus to teach them how to pray, why Jesus would often go away alone to a private, deserted place to pray or why Jesus would sometimes invite the disciples to join him and pray with him? How many times in the shortness of your own life have you mentioned you do not know how to pray or you cannot pray because you are too tired or you simply do not have time to pray because you are always so busy? When was the last time you heard Jesus in private prayer or heard Jesus in the proclamation of the Gospel pray so tenderly directly to the Father for you? Prayer is the gift that God has chosen and the grace he has provided us as the means to enter into a life-saving, life-giving relationship with God and the means to remain deeply rooted in that relationship with God for all eternity. Prayer is how Jesus entered into the Father's presence to discern the Father's will, or when Jesus needed some words of comfort and encouragement, or when Jesus wanted and needed to express his love, affection, sorrow, and gratitude. Prayer is always being in the Father's presence, always sharing what we can give or have to offer. Always receiving openly and graciously, what the Father wants to provide or permit. Prayer is remaining uniquely united to the Father always and in every way because you are always aware that God is ever so present to you and you are always in his presence, so why not pray to him and ask for support, direction, guidance and assistance. If you are not praying to and with God then you are not truly happy or living a life of peace. If you do not take a moment or make some time for prayer then you are not benefiting from the life-saving, life-giving remedies that God alone provides to bring you - freedom from worry, stress and anxiousness and brings you true freedom, happiness and confidence in him alone. If you are not praying with fervent faith, unwavering hope, and the strictest of confidence you are missing-out on the answer you desperately need to eliminate worry from your life, remove darkness and despair and heal the sadness and sorrow that come from grief.

SVDP Tutoring Center - Thank you to the 29 volunteers who provided 3152 hours of tutoring this past school year to students residing in a transitional housing environment. Also, thank you to these Council of Catholic Women Circles: All Saints, Joan of Arc, and Saint Teresa, for feeding our students wonderful sandwiches and nutritious side snacks. Last month in emergency outreach, we helped 19 families which included 25 adults and 14 children. Thirty-seven additional phone calls were taken and callers were provided with resources in their areas.

The tutoring center is closed for the summer as Seminole County is providing our students with services. We need more volunteers at the tutoring center for next year. If you would like to help, starting in September, please leave your name and number on the SVDP phone line, (407)215-7669, or send us an email at svdp@annunciationorlando.org

Pillars of Faith

By Fr. Stephen Baumann

St. Ephraem, Deacon and Doctor – June 9th

St. Ephraem (306-373), a deacon, is the greatest Christian poet of the early Church. He lived through the last of the persecutions and the first years of peace for the Church, and during the time of the first great theological controversies.

His poetic ability was devoted to expressing Christian truth and doctrine in hymns and songs in the Syriac language. His hymns combine scriptural teaching, doctrinal truth, and theological argumentation as well as spiritual theology. His poetry is intensely personal and very spiritual. The Collect of the mass for this feast acknowledges Ephraem's ability to sing the praise of God's mysteries.

At times, his writings were directed to combatting the heresies of Arianism and Gnosticism. He is also revered for his devotion to Mary. Ephraem is so respected that he has been given the title of "doctor of the Church." In his ministry as a deacon he was a friend of the poor among whom he worked humbly and with gentleness, seeking only the honor of God. The following text from his Testament is a tribute to his holiness:

"Lay me not with sweet spices, for this honor avails me not, Nor yet use incense and perfumes, for the honor befits me not. Burn ye the incense in the holy place; As for me, escort me only with your prayers, Give your incense to God, and over me send up hymns. Instead of perfumes and spices, be mindful of me in your intercessions."

From Ephraem's preaching we can learn much as we read from a sermon that he preached: "Lord, shed upon our darkened souls the brilliant light of your wisdom so that we may be enlightened and serve you with renewed purity...Grant that we may come to know the risen life and that nothing may distract us from the delights you offer...In your sacrament we daily embrace you and receive you into our bodies; make us worthy to experience the resurrection for which we hope...Teach us to find our joy in your favor...May your resurrection, Jesus, bring true greatness to our spiritual self and may your sacrament be the mirror wherein we may know that self...Savior, your divine plan for the world is a mirror for the spiritual world; teach us to walk in that world as spiritual men and women."

To Be a Pilgrim

An ancient trail of pilgrimage runs through south-east England, a pathway along which so much of English identity converges. It is the way of St. Thomas Becket, the martyr who stood up to a King and inspired Christendom. It is a route that drew countless pilgrims in ages past, captured the imagination of Chaucer, and interest in this pilgrim path is strongly reviving again today.

Saint Thomas More: The Age of the Author

This engaging series delves into the lives of the saints who led the Catholic Counter-Reformation. In this episode, learn about St. Thomas More, a patient witness to the faith who endured a heroic martyrdom at the hands of Henry VIII.

Episode 124: Dryness in Prayer

Probably the most important relationship in our life is our relationship with God, and we are building that through prayer. Prayer is real – it's for everyone, but we know that prayer is not always easy. Sometimes it can even be really hard.
