REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.” God is the master artist. All his works are originals. Original thoughts, original concepts, original drawings. No one inspires God for no one or anything existed before him. However, God’s own creation moves and inspires him to continue painting, creating, sculpting, for in his masterpieces he sees the image reflection of himself. The beauty of the colors and hues he produced. The intrinsic truth his creation portrays. The goodness and wholesomeness depicted in the drawings he creates. The purity and innocence in his works and in his pieces. God sees the beauty, goodness, purity, innocence and truth of himself. Creation is simply a self-portrait of the face of God carved into every mountainside, depicted in every cloud rendering and captured in every sunrise and sunset. Creation reveals the portrait of God. Unfortunately, sin opposes beauty, goodness, purity, innocence and truth. Sin opposes God. Sin opposes you. Sin disfigures beauty, it confuses goodness, and it distorts the truth. Sin seeks to destroy purity and attempts to rob us of our inner innocence. Sin is ugly, evil, dirty, corrupt and deceitful. It tries to cover up true beauty with appearances, fake personas and false identities. Sin tries to tarnish wholesomeness and goodness with evil and bad intentions, malicious speech, gossip and slander. Sin attempts to wash away the truth by hiding it, covering it up in darkness, avoiding truth through distractions, confusion, and questioning God’s authority. Thankful that God is also the best in restoring an image to its original form and essence. Recreation is God’s master restoration project making all things new again. God touches up the original images with his grace and mercy and tender care. It is a slow process done over time but God has perfected restoring creation to its original beauty with amazing precision and an eternal patience that knows how to wait a lifetime and not rush or be impatient. God washes away any dirty, filthy, grimy sin stains through the cleansing waters of baptism. For those deep, hard to get sin stains, God dry-cleans them away in a warm gentle rinse cycle of penance and the loving sacrament of reconciliation that burns all sins away. God makes all things new. When was the last time you felt clean, beautiful, good and innocent? Do not try to hide or fake your sin stains away. If you are dirty, go to the confessional and reveal the stain and God will make you new again.

LOVING AND SERVING OTHERS

Office Space Needed

We are looking for approximately 1200 square feet of office space to operate the pharmacy in the Longwood/Altamonte Springs area. We will need running water and access to a bathroom. While most of our prescriptions will be delivered to our clients, some will come to pick up their prescriptions. Please contact svdp@annunciationorlando.org if you have office space that you might be willing to provide at no charge or at a reduced rate in exchange for a tax deduction, or know of someone who might assist us with office space. SVDP Pharmacy of Hope, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt organization.

May Impact Report

Last month in emergency outreach, we helped 19 families which included 25 adults and 14 children. Thirty-seven additional phone calls were taken and callers were provided with resources in their areas.

The tutoring center is closed for the summer as Seminole County is providing our students with services. We need more volunteers at the tutoring center for next year. If you would like to help, starting in September, please leave your name and number on the SVDP phone line, (407)215-7669, or send us an email at svdp@annunciationorlando.org

Sts. Marcellinus and Peter, Martyrs – June 2

An indication of the esteem in which the fourth century martyrs, Marcellinus and Peter, are held in the Roman Church is the fact that they are mentioned in Eucharistic Prayer I, the Roman Canon.

Marcellinus was a priest, and Peter an exorcist. They were beheaded in the first years of the fourth century, probably in 303, for inspiring converts to Christianity.

A thought as we commemorate these martyrs is found in the Office of Readings. It is from an Exhortation to Martyrdom by Origen: "We should be extremely eager to share in Christ's sufferings and to let them be multiplied in us if we desire the superabundant consolation that will be given to those who mourn. This consolation will not perhaps be the same for all, for if it were, Scripture would not say: "The more we share in the sufferings of Christ, the more we will share in his consolation." (Cf. 2 Cor. 1:7). Sharing in his consolation will be proportionate to our sharing in his sufferings, according to St. Paul, and Origen continues:

"In Christ and with Christ the martyrs disarm the principalities and powers and share in his triumph over them, for their share in Christ's sufferings makes them sharers also in the mighty deeds those sufferings accomplished." (Origen, Op. Cit.).
