REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” The concept of weakness seems foreign to us. In fact, we would rather not think about our weaknesses at all but would rather believe we are not weak but strong, much stronger than we would like others to believe. There lies our weakness. We fail to admit, acknowledge or recognize that we are weak, vulnerable, and dependent on God for all things and everything that is good for us. Those things that are good, holy, wholesome and true that lead us to everlasting happiness in life. Left to ourselves, our weaknesses would destroy us and consume those around us. Our weakness is to believe that we need to be strong always, always dominating and overexerting our strength over others by using harsh language, demeaning talk and a boisterous tone to indicate to everyone how wonderfully okay we are, when in fact we are hurting inside, depressed, insecure and interiorly suffering loneliness. To admit, acknowledge and share those things with God makes you stronger than you know and not weak at all. For even Saint Paul said, in his weakness, God’s grace strengthened him. The desire to be self-ensured, self-reliant and to want to give the outward appearance of strength or to go at it alone is in fact our powerlessness that reveals and exposes our innermost weaknesses. The standard of the enemy Satan is to make us go through life everyday self-assured, independent, self-reliant and to view weakness, all weakness, any weakness, as people who are simply too weak to cope, weaklings, the weakest link, too poor, ever so vulnerable - those who could not make it on their own, those who are unable to defend themselves. Do you see God as strong and powerful or weak and vulnerable, unable to help? Yes, of course, no one, no entity, no person, no false god is stronger or more powerful than God, yet God is powerless in his love for you. God is helplessly devoted to you. To love always, sacrificially, unconditionally, always, in every circumstance, in every place, throughout time and even into all eternity, one might say and view God’s merciful love as weak, his weakness, but it is what makes God so strong. Jesus clearly made himself powerless in the Incarnation, helpless and poor in his Nativity, weak and vulnerable in his ministry, and very dependent and reliant on the Father in his Passion and Death on the Cross. A love so vulnerably weak it conquered and destroyed death for evermore.

We must always have courage, and if some spiritual languor comes upon us, let us run to the feet of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and let us place ourselves in the midst of the heavenly perfumes, and we will undoubtedly regain our strength.

Prayer to Defeat Florida's Abortion Amendment

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Florida from laws that disregard their health and safety.

Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. God Almighty, we ask their intercession to protect the preborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life and accompanying pregnant women in need.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

Our Lady, Mother of the Family,

St. Irenaeus, Bishop and Martyr – June 28

Unity and peace in the Church were the goals of St. Irenaeus, (130-202). He was a second century apologist (defender of the Faith) and theologian – a tireless fighter against false ideas. He was a priest and bishop of Lyons, France and a martyr for the Faith.

Irenaeus is an important witness to apostolic succession in that he knew the greatest churches founded by the apostles and compiled a list of the bishops of those sees (dioceses), located in Asia minor and in Rome. Born and educated in Smyrna (present day Turkey), he is an important link with the age of the apostles through St. Polycarp, who was a disciple of St. John.

In addition to his anti-heretical writings and his simple, clear explanations of the doctrines of the Church, he is an invaluable witness to the primacy of the Bishop of Rome, the See of Peter.

He insists that one must defer to it as the center of doctrinal unity, and sees it as a great symbol of this unity.

We value Irenaeus for his testimony to the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist, and he is an important link in the history of Eucharistic theology. He clearly teaches that the Mass is the sacrifice of Jesus Christ represented by the sacramental signs or elements of bread and wine. His writings touch all major areas of theology: Christology (study of person and work of Christ), Mariology (teachings on Mary), Ecclesiology (the theology of the Church and its structure), and the doctrine of eternal life after death.

In prayer we ask that St. Irenaeus's intercession will help "renew us in faith that we may always be intent on fostering unity and peace." (Collect of Mass).

The Eucharistic Pilgrimage continues. We add our prayers for this historic journey through July 16. To see the progress, visit the website.
