

Annunciation hearts are burning to know, love and serve God
by loving and serving others

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." John 6:35

Father Lawrence will be leaving us.....
September 15th will be his last day here

“Dearest friends,
It is with a conflicted heart that I say to you ‘I will be leaving Annunciation’. As veterans, when the military calls, we don’t hesitate. It is the only reason I am leaving a beloved, welcoming parish family that Annunciation is.

Davis-Monthan AFB, an active Air Force Base, in Tucson Arizona, is where I am heading.

They just lost their Active Duty priest to deployments, and he will not be replaced. The military just doesn’t have enough priest-chaplains to attend to the spiritual needs of these active military service families and their children. I choose to go so that this Catholic community doesn’t have to be shut down.

It so happens that this was my very first assignment when I became an Active Duty Military Chaplain in our US Air Force. I know this community and I have deep sympathy for them: “sheep without a shepherd”. It would break my heart to see them shut down [due to lack of a priest].

I will deeply miss Annunciation, the community that has welcomed me, embraced me with open arms, and made me feel deeply loved and appreciated every single day. In particular, I will miss our school children (ACA) who have made me feel so young whenever I have had the opportunity to encounter them and share with them (in church, classroom, and cafeteria).

I have every intention to keep you all in my prayers, keep in touch, and if God so desires it, see you again, many more times.

From the bottom of my heart, Love and blessings, always!

REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“You should put away the old self of your former way of life, corrupted through deceitful desires, and be renewed in the spirit...” At times, we can be so overly worried and concerned with our own desires, our own desired outcomes, and our own way of doing things that we are unable to see other possibilities or consider other ways of getting the work done. We think and come to believe there is no other way, no better way than trusting in ourselves. We can become so intently centered and solely dependent on ourselves to the point of being needy and relying only on ourselves, needing only ourselves to either resolve, fix or control the necessary outcome to obtain the necessary result we desire and know and think is best. Who better to fix it than you, your reliable self? Ever so interiorly consumed and narrowly focused on ourselves that at times we can fail to see the hand of God at work and fail to experience the grace of his divine assistance, healing and mercy. We become so interested in ourselves and ever so disinterested in our surroundings that we lose touch with God’s presence in our midst, present to those who rely and call upon his name. We become interiorly fixated on our past or infatuated with our distant future leaving the current grace filled moment ignored, tossed to the side and left all alone. We render God and the current moment helpless because we are so hopelessly devoted to our old selves and our own way of doing things. We would rather be or become independently self-reliant and remain confident in our former way of life adhering strictly to our own way of doing things. That is to say, we live and die by the motto, “if you want it done right, do it yourself.” God on the other hand would want us to consider the redemptive way, the unwavering truth, and the eternal life his beloved Son Jesus has won for us giving us a helping hand, a faithful friend, a sturdy shelter, a trusted companion. Jesus brings a new perspective, a new way of accomplishing things. New doorways, new opportunities, new possibilities for nothing is impossible for God. Jesus is a new day, a new life, a new way of resolving our difficulties and obtaining the answer to our prayer. He is here to help, to assist with our desires and needs. A friend you can rely and depend upon. So put on your new self and trust in God.

Nazareth Centered Retreat - Day Three - August 10th

Fr. Ivan will continue to share the graces and gifts from the School of Spiritual Direction with us. This retreat like experience is open to all, and will explore our relationship with the Father through the eyes and lives of the Holy Family. Who better to learn from? This will be an opportunity to be spiritually directed by the Holy Family of Nazareth which is a house of prayer and a school of spiritual formation. We will gather four times a year.

Day Three - "Who do you make yourself out to be?" - will be on Saturday, August 10th from 9am to 1pm. There is no cost to attend. If you attended the 1st or 2nd day, you do not need to register. If this will be your first time attending, please register at www.annunciationorlando.org/nazareth The last day to sign up is Wednesday, August 7th so that we can have enough materials. No walk-ins please. Thank you!

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper?

St. Dominic, Priest – August 8th

"Dominic possessed such great integrity and was so strongly motivated by divine love, that without a doubt he proved to be a bearer of honor and grace." This was written of our saint for today.

In the same collection of writings we read, "Wherever he went, he showed himself in word and deed to be a man of the Gospel...He seldom spoke unless it was of God, that is, in prayer, or about God; and in this manner he instructed his brothers." (Cf. 2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

Dominic (1170-1221), is popularly known as a great preacher and the founder of the Dominicans. His own efforts as preacher and those of his immediate followers were directed to combating the heresies of the Albigensians who denied the Incarnation of Jesus, repudiated the sacraments, and held other extremist ascetical (harsh penitential) views.

From childhood, Dominic showed signs of a vocation to the priesthood that was encouraged. He also gave evidence of a great concern for the poor. During a time of hunger, he sold his books and precious items to feed the poor. Like St. Francis of Assisi, he saw poverty in practice as a remedy for many of the ills that afflicted the Church in the late 12th and early 13th centuries.

Not only was Dominic a capable and inspiring preacher, but his life was exemplary. Holiness of life was a weapon against error as well as his preaching. Dominic's ideal was to combine prayer and asceticism (penitential practices) with study and the ministry of preaching. What one preached is learned in prayer and contemplation. "Bring to others what you contemplate," is the motto he gave to the Order he founded. His last years were spent organizing his followers into a community, the Order of Preachers.

The spirit and ideals of St. Dominic are alive today in the community he founded, both of men and women. Pope Gregory IX said of him: "I knew him as a steadfast follower of the apostolic way of life. There is no doubt that he is in heaven, sharing the glory of the apostles themselves."

In the Collect for the Mass on August 8th, we pray that his "holiness and teaching" will "come to the aid of" the Church, and that "he help us now with his prayers as he once inspired people by his preaching."

Is the Lord calling you to a closer relationship with Him?

Please consider signing up to pray with Him for one hour each week. It is easy to sign up and we have a new online system to make it easy to ask for a sub for your hour if something comes up and you are not able to make it that day. All are welcome to pray for any amount of time and you are welcome to sign up to be on the list as a substitute adorer as well. ## FLORIDA'S PRO-ABORTION AMENDMENT EXPLAINED

Why Floridians Should Vote NO on Amendment 4

Titled "Amendment to Limit Government Interference with Abortion," Amendment 4 would enshrine UNREGULATED ABORTION in our state constitution, making Florida one of the MOST PRO-ABORTION states in the nation. The amendment language is MISLEADING, and its proposed outcomes are DANGEROUS.

WHAT IT SAYS

BALLOT SUMMARY

No law shall prohibit, penalize, delay, or restrict abortion

before viability

or when necessary to protect the patient's health, as determined by the patient's healthcare provider.

This amendment does not change the Legislature's constitutional authority to require notification to a parent or guardian before a minor has an abortion.

WHAT IT DOES

PUTS WOMEN AT RISK

Amendment 4 would jeopardize existing laws and prohibit new ones that voters on both sides of the abortion issue support, including health and safety laws that protect women.

ALLOWS SECOND AND THIRD TRIMESTER ABORTIONS

Though not defined in the amendment, "viability" is defined in Florida law as the stage of development when the life of a fetus is sustainable outside the womb (Ch. 390.011(15)), generally accepted to be 22-24 weeks of pregnancy, or about 6 months.

CREATES A BROAD "HEALTH" LOOPHOLE

"Patient's health" is not defined in the amendment, allowing post-viability, extremely late-term abortions for treatable, temporary health concerns. Emotional health would justify an abortion when a child could survive outside the womb.

WEAKENS MEDICAL DOCTOR REQUIREMENT

"Healthcare providers" – not just physicians – could determine if an abortion is "necessary" to protect the mother's "health." Even some employees of abortion clinics, such as nurses and counselors, could approve late-term abortions.

ELIMINATES PARENTAL CONSENT

While preserving parental notification in our state constitution (Article X, Section 22), the amendment would invalidate the current law that requires parental consent for a minor to have an abortion (Ch. 390.01114(5)), making abortion the only medical decision for which parents have no say.

Annual Percentage Yield (APY) effective 06/14/2023. CDs offered by Edward Jones are bank-issued and FDIC-insured up to $250,000 (principal and interest accrued but not yet paid) per depositor, per insured depository institution, for each account ownership category. Please visit www.fdic.gov or contact your financial advisor for additional information. Subject to availability and price change. CD values are subject to interest rate risk such that when interest rates rise, the prices of CDs can decrease. If CDs are sold prior to maturity, the investor can lose principal value. FDIC insurance does not cover losses in market value. Early withdrawal may not be permitted. Yields quoted are net of all commissions. CDs require the distribution of interest and do not allow interest to compound. CDs offered through Edward Jones are issued by banks and thrifts nationwide. All CDs sold by Edward Jones are registered with the Depository Trust Corp. (DTC). FDI-1916M-A
