REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“All good giving and every perfect gift is from above.” Our Lord is the source of all goodness; therefore, all that flows from the mind, the heart, and the mouth of God is good. In fact, it is all very good as scripture states for God is great and good all the time. All God initiates, all he creates, all he does is very good all of the time. There is no evil, no darkness in God; therefore, all God gives and does, all that he renders, all he permits will bring about good and in his goodness all things will become good again, created in his image and likeness, which again, is simply very good. God is always good and good always. In fact, the word G-o-o-d is just an extension of the name of God and in fact, an extension of God himself for good is from him. God extends his goodness onto us always. Not sometimes or most of the time, as we would like to think or believe, but always. God is always willing and doing good for the sake of the other. The challenge for us is to see how God sees by looking at the goodness in one’s own heart. We are encouraged to think only good thoughts, as God only wishes and wills the good for everyone. In God’s goodness, we are to love, as God loves goodness and all that is good, for this is very good for you and good for you to do unto others. The good in us however is constantly under attack by the plague of sin and the ugly one. His darkness seeks to twist and distort all that God loves and sees as good. For sin hates what is good, therefore sin hates you. Sin attempts to disfigure and distort all that is good in you. Blessed be God in his goodness for restoring what is hurting, disfigured and distorted in us. Willing the good makes all things new, transfiguring the distortion into something that can be good once again. Unfortunately, at times we see something that is evil as good or worse as a gift. We look at a person’s appearance, the outside facade, the outward show, the dazzling appearance as something that would be good for us to have or emulate. We believe being bad can be good sometimes or rendering bad to someone we make an enemy a good thing. Being bad is never good but being good always is God’s gracious gift to us.

Saint Joseph Prayer For Workers

O Saint Joseph, Patron of the Church!
You, who side by side with the Word made flesh, worked each day to earn your bread, drawing from Him the strength to live and to toil; you who experienced the anxiety for the morrow, the bitterness of poverty, the uncertainty of work:
you who today give the shining example,
humble in the eyes of men
but most exalted in the sight of God:
protect workers in their hard daily lives,
defending them from discouragement,
from negative revolt,
and from pleasure loving temptations;
and keep peace in the world,
that peace which alone can ensure the development of peoples
Amen.

Saint Paul VI - May 1, 1969

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

CATECHISM of the
CHURCH

Catechism Corner

"The heart is the dwelling-place where I am, where I live; the heart is the place to which I withdraw."

2562 Where does prayer come from? Whether prayer is expressed in words or gestures, it is the whole man who prays. But in naming the source of prayer, Scripture speaks sometimes of the soul or the spirit, but most often of the heart (more than a thousand times). According to Scripture, it is the heart that prays. If our heart is far from God, the words of prayer are in vain.

St. Louis – August 25th

Born in the year 1214, Louis became King of France twenty years later. The greatest influence in his life was his mother, Blanche, who was his regent for eight years after the death of his father. When he reached the age of 20 he was able to assume the throne, and Blanche continued to be his advisor.

Louis' wars and political astuteness are well treated in history books, and are not our concern here. We do associate him with crusades, and he was once captured and ransomed. Louis is better remembered however, for his personal piety, his justice and charity, and especially for his lifelong generosity to the poor of his realm. We may note, too, that his nation prospered throughout his forty-four year reign.

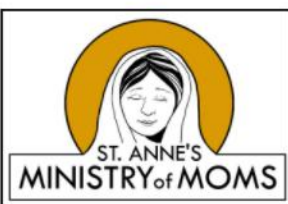

Louis and his wife, Margaret, were the parents of eleven children, all raised and well instructed in the Faith. They were imbued with the principles of the Christian life, mainly by the example of Louis and Margaret, and Louis' mother, Blanche.

In a spiritual testament to his son, we find instruction for all of us: "My first instruction is that you should love the Lord your God with all your heart and all your strength. Without this there is no salvation...Keep yourself from everything that displeases God...If the Lord has permitted you to have some trial, bear it willingly and with gratitude, considering that it has happened for your good. Be kindhearted to the poor, the unfortunate and the afflicted. Give them as much help and consolation as you can. Be just to your subjects. Be devout and obedient to our mother, the Church. Work to remove all sin from your land."

While reading the instruction, we know that St. Louis is teaching from his own life experience. He was pious, prayerful, charitable, and intensely loyal to the Church. This is what we recall about St. Louis, King of France.

He died in 1270, and was canonized in 1297. Spiritual tribute is given to him in the Responsory following the Second Reading in the Liturgy of the Hours:

"He did what was pleasing in the sight of the Lord; among all kings none could compare with him. He was loyal to the Lord and never turned away from Him. The Lord was with him, because he kept the commandments."

St. Anne's Ministry for Moms is a ministry that serves to bring Catholic mothers together for fellowship,

St. Vincent DePaul Society

There is no doubt that the material support we offer to the neighbor is important. It is important to eat, but it leaves you hungry again. It is important to pay the rent, but the bill comes due again next month. God's love is eternal, and our first responsibility in serving the poor is to do so for love alone, in the hope that through our caring "the poor may catch a glimpse of God's great love for them." "Vincentians visit not merely to drop off groceries or pay a bill, but to form relationships based on trust and friendship. Our visiting, our encouragement, and our prayers serve most importantly to bring true hope.

Please consider joining with us on the second or fourth Wednesday of the month at 7pm in the St. Gabriel Life Center. Or, email us at: svdp@annunciationorlando.org.

Abortion Amendment to Florida's Constitution
Vote 'No' on Amendment 4

The Church plays a role in the promotion and attainment of justice and protection of the common good. As faithful citizens, we are called to participate in public life and to apply Gospel values to our political activities. Our actions in the public square must reflect the values of our faith and demonstrate a fundamental belief in the dignity of every person and the sacredness of all human life.

A proposed amendment to our state constitution that seeks to legalize abortion through the third trimester will appear on the November 2024 ballot. While Catholic opposition to abortion is well known, even our friends and neighbors who would tolerate abortion to some degree are finding the proposed amendment too extreme and even deceptive. Let me explain a few key components of the Amendment:

- This amendment was cleverly worded to hide the fact that it would eliminate current laws and common-sense safety regulations for abortions that most people on both sides of this issue support. For example, while the amendment allows for parental notification before a daughter undergoes an abortion, it would eliminate the current law that requires parental consent, making this the only medical decision for which parents have no say.
- The amendment explicitly allows abortion until the preborn child is viable, which is at about 22-24 weeks, or 6 months, of pregnancy. It then provides a loophole to allow "health care providers," which under Florida law do not have to be doctors, to justify practically any abortion after that point. Even employees of abortion clinics who are not doctors would be able to approve late-term abortions.
- Unlike other proposed constitutional amendments, the text of the amendment does not define key terms like "government interference," "viability," "patient's health" and "health care provider." Without these definitions, the amendment, if passed, will cause countless lawsuits and years of legal uncertainty.

The bishops of Florida have urged all Floridians to pray for protections for the preborn and mothers in need, and to stand against the legalization of late-term abortion by voting 'no' on Amendment 4.

Soup Bowl Supper
Saturday, September 28

Funds raised support homeless men and women, many of whom are veterans, as they recuperate from an injury or illness at Pathways to Care. Wine, appetizers and desserts will also be provided.
