REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

The Lord GOD opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back.” At the heart and foundation of establishing, entering into, beginning or continuing lifelong friendships and relationships that are truly genuine, and a blessing, is listening. Listening is the key to an intimate, lifelong relationship with God as well as establishing those types of relationships in our lives that are fruitful, grace-filled and eternal. Communicating, meaning being in communion with God and with others, is at the heart of being. Created in God’s image and likeness, formed in and for relationships, we seek to establish lifelong, lifesaving relationships that rely and depend on open ears that truly intend on listening and receptive hearts that are truly open to receiving. True communication happens when a person transmits a message that is helpful, not hurtful, and delivers it with a good and solid intention of willing the good of the other and when the recipient is free to respond in a loving gracious manner like God does. At the heart of this form of communication is receptive listening, listening with openness, attentiveness, and a willing spirit. Listening with the intention of avoiding those thought provoking distractions or attempting to resolve the problem in your head before listening to the message in its entirety. We tend to override and drown out the message before completed with the presumption of a greater thought or superior suggestion or perhaps a better way or a better idea. Good communication, on the other hand, relies on a person sharing a message with a good, not a malicious intention or a desire to interrupt the communication. Good communication takes place when the recipient is extremely thankful and grateful for having received the message. We, on the other hand, tend to communicate our own thoughts, rationales, and desires by force. We force our opinions, ideas and judgements on to others without first establishing relationship. We want others to know exactly what we think even if it is hurtful, underhanded or deceitful. We want, rather, we demand others to listen to us and hear how we feel about certain people and topics. We want others to know when we experienced a perceived injustice. We tend to believe we are prone and cannot help but share our lustful thoughts and desires onto any social platform or media that will “listen”. God opens our ears to hear his sweet, tender voice, our hearts to understand the response to our prayer, and our mouths to offer him thanksgiving and praise.

CATECHISM
CATHOLIC CHURCH

Catechism Corner

Jesus teaches us that one enters the kingdom of heaven not by speaking words, but by doing "the will of my Father in heaven."

2827 "If any one is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him." Such is the power of the Church's prayer in the name of her Lord, above all in the Eucharist. Her prayer is also a communion of intercession with the all-holy Mother of God and all the saints who have been pleasing to the Lord because they willed his will alone.

St. Cornelius, Pope, Martyr, and St. Cyprian, Bishop, Martyr – September 16

St. Cornelius was elected bishop of Rome after the death of Pope Fabian and governed for two years. They were turbulent times because of the controversy over the sacrament of Penance.

The Novatian heretics on the one side absolutely denied forgiveness to apostate Christians (those who denied their Faith when threatened with death). On the other side were Cornelius and the Roman clergy. Cornelius' friend, St. Cyprian of Carthage, took a middle stand, insisting on rigorous penance on the part of the apostates. Through this controversy, the Church came to a better understanding of the sacrament. St. Cornelius died in exile as a result of harsh treatment in the year 253.

When St. Cyprian of Carthage became a Christian, he gave all he had to the poor. Shortly after in 248 he was ordained a priest, and named bishop the following year. He proved to be a capable leader in times of persecution in North Africa. Cyprian's great literary work is entitled "The Unity of the Church." It is the key to understanding his personality and everything else that he wrote. The immediate reason for writing it was to counteract the schism of Novatian in Rome and errors in North Africa, for in his opinion, schisms and heresies were more dangerous than persecutions.

For St. Cyprian, the Church was the only way to salvation. One of the most quoted sentences from the treatise is: "He cannot have God for his Father, who has not the Church for his mother." He questioned the validity of Baptism by heretics and schismatics because he felt that no one can give what he does not possess. This particular issue involved him in a controversy with Cornelius' successor in Rome, St. Stephen.

The Church, however, accepted the baptisms conferred by heretics as valid and that is the tradition that has been constant.

The point here is not the history of the controversies of the times of Sts. Cornelius and Cyprian, but their holiness. Cornelius was a respected bishop in Rome, and in Christendom at the time. Cyprian was the acknowledged bishop leader in North Africa, who wanted peace and unity in the Church. Though he fled persecution once, for reasons he thought valid, and history justifies him, he did die a martyr. He was beheaded in 258, the first African bishop to be martyred. At one time he wrote of martyrdom as "a baptism, richer in grace, more sublime in power, and more precious in its effects than that of water."

We honor Sts. Cornelius and Cyprian for the reasons mentioned in the Collect of their mass. They have given us "an inspiring example of dedication to the pastoral ministry and constant witness to Christ in their suffering." Through their prayers we ask for "courage to work for the unity of the Church."

The St. Vincent DePaul truck will be here on Thursday, September 19th from 10am until 1pm in the North parking lot by the St. Gabriel Life Center. We will be collecting new or used clothing, furniture and small appliances, to help the poor in our area. WE WILL NOT BE COLLECTING ANY FOOD ITEMS AT THIS TIME. Thank you for your generosity!

St. Vincent DePaul Society

There is no doubt that the material support we offer to the neighbor is important. It is important to eat, but it leaves you hungry again. It is important to pay the rent, but the bill comes due again next month. God's love is eternal, and our first responsibility in serving the poor is to do so for love alone, in the hope that through our caring "the poor may catch a glimpse of God's great love for them."

"Vincentians visit not merely to drop off groceries or pay a bill, but to form relationships based on trust and friendship. Our visiting, our encouragement, and our prayers serve most importantly to bring true hope. Please consider joining with us on the first and third Wednesday of the month at 7pm in the St. Gabriel Life Center. Or, email us at: svdp@annunciationorlando.org.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT AMENDMENT 4 FLORIDA'S PRO-ABORTION AMENDMENT

What is Amendment 4?

Amendment 4 is a proposed amendment to the Florida Constitution that would essentially establish an unlimited right to abortion throughout pregnancy even when the heartbeat of the preborn child is detected, when the preborn child can experience pain, and when the child is capable of living outside the womb. Amendment 4 will appear on the November 5, 2024 ballot and require approval from 60% of the electorate to pass.

What would Amendment 4 do?

PUT WOMEN AT RISK

Amendment 4 would jeopardize existing laws and prohibit new ones that voters on both sides of the abortion issue support, including health and safety laws that protect women.

ALLOW SECOND AND THIRD TRIMESTER ABORTIONS

Though not defined in the amendment, "viability" is defined in Florida law as the stage of development when the life of a fetus is sustainable outside the womb (Ch. 390.011(15)), generally accepted to be 22-24 weeks of pregnancy, or about 6 months.

CREATE A BROAD "HEALTH" LOOPHOLE

"Patient's health" is not defined in the amendment, allowing post-viability, extremely late-term abortions for treatable, temporary health concerns. Emotional health would justify an abortion when a child could survive outside the womb.

WEAKEN MEDICAL DOCTOR REQUIREMENT

"Healthcare providers" – not just physicians – could determine if an abortion is "necessary" to protect the mother's "health." Even some employees of abortion clinics, such as nurses and counselors, could approve late-term abortions.

ELIMINATE PARENTAL CONSENT

While preserving parental notification in our state constitution (Article X, Section 22), the amendment would invalidate the current law that requires parental consent for a minor to have an abortion (Ch. 390.0114(5)), making abortion the only medical decision for which parents have no say.

Would abortion be illegal in Florida if Amendment 4 does not pass?

If Amendment 4 does not pass, abortion would still be legal in Florida until a baby's heartbeat can be detected. Current laws that protect the safety of women would remain in effect.

Doesn't Amendment 4 simply restore Florida back to when Roe v. Wade was in effect?

Amendment 4 goes dangerously beyond what was permitted in the Roe v. Wade ruling. It would eliminate important health and safety measures that protect women, remove parental consent for any minor seeking an abortion, and allow for abortion through the third trimester of pregnancy.

Aren't late term abortions very rare?

Because they are currently not permitted by Florida law, they are extremely rare. There are exceptions in the law that allow late-term abortions to preserve the life of the mother or to avert serious risk of substantial, irreversible impairment of a major bodily function. If Amendment 4 passes, its broad loopholes would allow non-physicians to cite minor, treatable conditions to justify abortions, and there would be many more late-term abortions in Florida.

Will miscarriage care or ectopic pregnancy treatment be denied if Amendment 4 fails?

There is a fundamental difference between an elective abortion and the care provided after a miscarriage or for ectopic pregnancies. Amendment 4 will have no effect on the care a pregnant woman receives in an emergency. Women can always receive necessary and timely lifesaving medical treatment, including in Catholic hospitals. No law restricts this care in Florida.

How is the Church helping pregnant women in need?

The Catholic Church is committed to helping women in need during and after pregnancies. For decades, numerous Catholic social service agencies, in collaboration with faith-based and secular organizations, have assisted pregnant women in need with material resources and personal accompaniment during pregnancy and after their child is born.

What is the Church doing to defeat Amendment 4?

Each diocese in Florida is working together, through the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops, to help Catholics understand the dangers of Amendment 4 to women, their children and their families. The Church supports the Florida Voters Against Extremism coalition to educate voters on how Amendment 4 is harmful for Floridians.

What can I do to help defeat Amendment 4?

1. VOTE NO on Amendment 4
2. EDUCATE YOURSELF and TELL OTHERS about the dangers of Amendment 4
3. PRAY & Fast

Where can I learn more?

For more information and to read the text of the proposed amendment, visit flaccb.org/abortion-amendment or scan:
