Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper?

For more information, please contact Deacon Pete at 407-869-9472 or ppronko@annunciationorlando.org

RCIA has just begun. This is a great time to start the journey!

Eucharistic Adoration

Is the Lord calling you to a closer relationship with Him? Please consider signing up to pray with Him for one hour each week. It is easy to sign up and we have a new online system that makes it easier to ask for a sub for your hour if something comes up and you are not able to make it to your hour. All are welcome to pray for any amount of time and you are welcome to sign up to be on the list as a substitute adorer as well. To sign up or learn more visit www.annunciationorlando.org/adoration

All are welcome.

REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice.” God seeks out those tragic moments in our lives. He looks for those difficult situations where we encountered pain and suffering throughout our lives; those uncomfortable, unwanted, uncared for places we experience misery that seem dark, dim, bleak, dreary to bring about change, order, light, love, life, peace. God seeks and searches for any unpleasant void, any desert like dryness, any suffering person, people, or individual. God looks for what seems empty, vacant and fills it with his presence, his life, his grace, his peace. God is attracted to that which lacks life, is lifeless, hurting, broken in any way. He desires wholeness, promotes healing, brings about hope, and desires new starts, new opportunities and blessed beginnings. God ushers in a new day, a new beginning. He restores what is torn and faded to its former glory. God makes all things new again. God creates newness; he creates from nothing making all things something that is worthwhile, priceless, beautiful, good, holy, and true. God changes the nothingness of desolate places and moments into something that is good again. God hears the crying out and desperation of every moment. He offers help and assistance to those in need. God remembers the good he has done. He remembers the people that seem forgotten, uncared for, rejected, or tossed to the side. God redeems, restores, and renews what is lost or forsaken, forgotten or neglected in any way. God remembers creation and honors his covenant. He infuses himself into all creation, into all he creates so that it will last, remain and be for all eternity; the beauty of his image and likeness, the goodness of his heart and life, the truth of his love eternal, the essence of his very self. Imagine all God creates is appealing to someone who is jealous and selfishly only wants to destroy it all. That is the enemy and the object of evil and sin. Evil seeks to destroy, separate and dismantle creation, take it all apart. Evil only creates lies, takes life, encourages sin and chaos and brings about disorder, infusing discord into every life. Evil is dark, dreary, desolate, alone. Evil has no friends but hopes and wishes to befriend you because misery loves company. When God saw all he created, he saw that it was good, very good and he blessed it and multiplied it. When evil looked upon all that God created, evil was jealous, envious, self-seeking, lustful and prideful. Don't be like that.

CATECHISM
CATHOLIC CHURCH

Catechism Corner

“God himself created the visible world in all its richness, diversity and order.”

349 The eighth day. But for us a new day has dawned: the day of Christ's Resurrection. The seventh day completes the first creation. The eighth day begins the new creation. Thus, the work of creation culminates in the greater work of redemption. The first creation finds its meaning and its summit in the new creation in Christ, the splendor of which surpasses that of the first creation.

Second grade had a lesson in fire safety from one of Orange County's Firefighters. Students learned what it's like to be a firefighter, the tools they use, and the safety equipment they wear. Students discussed elements of a good Home Fire Plan and the importance of knowing what steps to take and practicing that plan.

St. Matthew, Apostle – September 21st

In the Gospel of Matthew, the name appears in the list of apostles, and is identified at his call as "a man named Matthew, sitting at his custom post." (Mt. 9:9). Later, in the list he is called "Matthew the tax collector" (10:3). In the other synoptic gospels tradition identifies him as Levi.

Tradition credits him as the author of the gospel that bears his name, (though some believe that the text we now have is the work of a Jewish Christian from Antioch from around the year 90). Of his later life, we know nothing. Tradition says he preached in Judea and later in Ethiopia where he was martyred.

The Gospel of Matthew has a unique point of view, namely to show Jesus as the Messiah foretold in the Old Testament. In his introduction to this gospel in The Jerome Biblical Commentary, John L. McKenzie wrote: "There are points of contact between Matthew and rabbinical writings that are not found in the other Gospels. These points of contact are more than an interest in the Law and allusions to Jewish institutions. Matthew sometimes moves in the world of rabbinical thought. He not only is familiar with rabbinical teaching; he uses it."

Matthew wants to make the point for a Jewish audience that "Jesus Messiah is the new Moses and the new Israel, and the fulfillment of the Law and the Prophets". There are 41 references to the Old Testament in Matthew's gospel, and Fr. McKenzie points out that 37 of them are introduced with a formula, most commonly "that it might be fulfilled."

For a reflection at the Mass for the Feast of St. Matthew, there is a passage in a homily of St. Bede the Venerable, commenting on Matthew's call and the banquet that he then gave for Jesus. We read in the Liturgy of the Hours: "To see a deeper understanding of the great celebration Matthew held at his house, we must realize that he not only gave a banquet for the Lord at his earthly residence, but far more pleasing was the banquet set in his own heart which he provided through faith and love. Our Savior attests to this: Behold I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me."

"On hearing Christ's voice, we open the door to receive him, as it were, when we freely assent to his promptings and when we give ourselves over to doing what must be done. He ever refreshes us, and he Himself is delighted by such a pleasing banquet." Today, we ask St. Matthew to help us remain faithful in God's service.

The St. Vincent DePaul truck will be here on Thursday, September 19th from 10am until 1pm in the North parking lot by the St. Gabriel Life Center. We will be collecting new or used clothing, furniture and small appliances, to help the poor in our area. WE WILL NOT BE COLLECTING ANY FOOD ITEMS AT THIS TIME. Thank you for your generosity!

St. Vincent DePaul Society

There is no doubt that the material support we offer to the neighbor is important. It is important to eat, but it leaves you hungry again. It is important to pay the rent, but the bill comes due again next month. God's love is eternal, and our first responsibility in serving the poor is to do so for love alone, in the hope that through our caring "the poor may catch a glimpse of God's great love for them."
"Vincentians visit not merely to drop off groceries or pay a bill, but to form relationships based on trust and friendship. Our visiting, our encouragement, and our prayers serve most importantly to bring true hope. Please consider joining with us on the first and third Wednesday of the month at 7pm in the St. Gabriel Life Center. Or, email us at: svdp@annunciationorlando.org.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT AMENDMENT 4 FLORIDA'S PRO-ABORTION AMENDMENT

What is Amendment 4?

Amendment 4 is a proposed amendment to the Florida Constitution that would essentially establish an unlimited right to abortion throughout pregnancy even when the heartbeat of the preborn child is detected, when the preborn child can experience pain, and when the child is capable of living outside the womb. Amendment 4 will appear on the November 5, 2024 ballot and require approval from 60% of the electorate to pass.

What would Amendment 4 do?

PUT WOMEN AT RISK

Amendment 4 would jeopardize existing laws and prohibit new ones that voters on both sides of the abortion issue support, including health and safety laws that protect women.

ALLOW SECOND AND THIRD TRIMESTER ABORTIONS

Though not defined in the amendment, "viability" is defined in Florida law as the stage of development when the life of a fetus is sustainable outside the womb (Ch. 390.01(15)), generally accepted to be 22-24 weeks of pregnancy, or about 6 months.

CREATE A BROAD "HEALTH" LOOPHOLE

"Patient's health" is not defined in the amendment, allowing post-viability, extremely late-term abortions for treatable, temporary health concerns. Emotional health would justify an abortion when a child could survive outside the womb.

WEAKEN MEDICAL DOCTOR REQUIREMENT

"Healthcare providers" – not just physicians – could determine if an abortion is "necessary" to protect the mother's "health." Even some employees of abortion clinics, such as nurses and counselors, could approve late-term abortions.

ELIMINATE PARENTAL CONSENT

While preserving parental notification in our state constitution (Article X, Section 22), the amendment would invalidate the current law that requires parental consent for a minor to have an abortion (Ch. 390.0114(5)), making abortion the only medical decision for which parents have no say.

Would abortion be illegal in Florida if Amendment 4 does not pass?

If Amendment 4 does not pass, abortion would still be legal in Florida until a baby's heartbeat can be detected. Current laws that protect the safety of women would remain in effect.

Doesn't Amendment 4 simply restore Florida back to when Roe v. Wade was in effect?

Amendment 4 goes dangerously beyond what was permitted in the Roe v. Wade ruling. It would eliminate important health and safety measures that protect women, remove parental consent for any minor seeking an abortion, and allow for abortion through the third trimester of pregnancy.

Aren't late term abortions very rare?

Because they are currently not permitted by Florida law, they are extremely rare. There are exceptions in the law that allow late-term abortions to preserve the life of the mother or to avert serious risk of substantial, irreversible impairment of a major bodily function. If Amendment 4 passes, its broad loopholes would allow non-physicians to cite minor, treatable conditions to justify abortions, and there would be many more late-term abortions in Florida.

Will miscarriage care or ectopic pregnancy treatment be denied if Amendment 4 fails?

There is a fundamental difference between an elective abortion and the care provided after a miscarriage or for ectopic pregnancies. Amendment 4 will have no effect on the care a pregnant woman receives in an emergency. Women can always receive necessary and timely lifesaving medical treatment, including in Catholic hospitals. No law restricts this care in Florida.

How is the Church helping pregnant women in need?

The Catholic Church is committed to helping women in need during and after pregnancies. For decades, numerous Catholic social service agencies, in collaboration with faith-based and secular organizations, have assisted pregnant women in need with material resources and personal accompaniment during pregnancy and after their child is born.

What is the Church doing to defeat Amendment 4?

Each diocese in Florida is working together, through the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops, to help Catholics understand the dangers of Amendment 4 to women, their children and their families. The Church supports the Florida Voters Against Extremism coalition to educate voters on how Amendment 4 is harmful for Floridians.

What can I do to help defeat Amendment 4?

1. VOTE NO on Amendment 4
2. EDUCATE YOURSELF and TELL OTHERS about the dangers of Amendment 4
3. PRAY & Fast

Where can I learn more?

For more information and to read the text of the proposed amendment, visit flaccb.org/abortion-amendment-4 or scan:

OCTOBER 18 & 19, 2024

BASILICA OF THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF MARY, QUEEN OF THE UNIVERSE

Culture of Life Conference

The annual Florida Culture of Life Conference will take place at the Basilica of the National Shrine of Mary, Queen of the Universe on October 18-19.

Speakers will delve into an array of topics - including abortion, the death penalty, advance care directives, natural family planning, and walking with moms in need - aiming to enhance our comprehension of the Church's teaching on the inherent dignity and worthiness of protection for all human life.

Theme for this year's conference is inspired by Luke 1:38: "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." The Angel Gabriel's message troubled Mary, leading her into uncharted waters and a life of unimaginable risk. Yet, she was willing to embrace the risk and trust in God's invitation.

Friday evening will begin with Adoration and a Holy Hour. Saturday will include a full day of speakers, displays and will conclude with Mass celebrated by Bishop Noonan.

Annual Percentage Yield (APY) effective 06/14/2023. CDs offered by Edward Jones are bank-issued and FDIC-insured up to $250,000 (principal and interest accrued but not yet paid) per depositor, per insured depository institution, for each account ownership category. Please visit www.fdic.gov or contact your financial advisor for additional information. Subject to availability and price change. CD values are subject to interest rate risk such that when interest rates rise, the prices of CDs can decrease. If CDs are sold prior to maturity, the investor can lose principal value. FDIC insurance does not cover losses in market value. Early withdrawal may not be permitted. Yields quoted are net of all commissions. CDs require the distribution of interest and do not allow interest to compound. CDs offered through Edward Jones are issued by banks and thrifts nationwide. All CDs sold by Edward Jones are registered with the Depository Trust Corp. (DTC). FDI-1916M-A
