REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“From wanton sin especially, restrain your servant; let it not rule over me.” Sin is God’s enemy and your enemy as well, for sin seeks to destroy you, disassemble your life, and takes apart all God creates which is good, holy, worthy of love and eternal. Sin hates God, opposes him, mocks God, therefore sin hates you because God loves you and remains faithful to his love for you. Sin rejects love for God is love. Sin hates life for God is life. Sin makes fun of those who believe in God; the believers who make themselves insignificant, poor in spirit, who are blessed by God for God is the source and object of your faith, has made himself tiny, helpless and poor as a baby in a manger for your sake. Sin is so jealous of God for sin can never create, love or be-loved. Sin is so jealous and envious of you because God loves you so much he gave his only Son in exchange for you to ransom you from sin and death. Yet most of the time, we love our sins more than we love our God. It is true. If it wasn’t true, why do you still sin? Do you think or say, I am only human? So is Jesus and Mary and they never sinned. Our nature is to be good, holy, obedient, loving, and faithful like Jesus, like Mary, like Joseph. You might say “but they are holy and full of grace,” but so are you created in God’s image and likeness and filled with his Holy Spirit and infused with Holy Communion. Do you think or say, I cannot help it? You can’t stop sinning or you choose not to stop sinning. You can’t or you won’t? Our sins betray God. They dishonor our friendship and relationship with him. We lack covenant fidelity when we sin. We lack faithfulness to commitment when we commit sins. We lack honoring our baptismal vows when we refuse to renounce sin and Satan and all his empty words and works. We commit spiritual adultery every time we sin. Infidelity to God, to life and to eternal love. Sin confuses truth but we allow it. Sin even distorts lies but we continue to lie, tell untruths, withhold information, and deceive others with our deceptions, false allegations, and fabricated details that we further embellish, inflate or conveniently leave out. Pray for the grace and the desire to stop sinning, to be truly free from sin and not let sin rule over you anymore.

CATECHISM of the CATHOLIC CHURCH

Catechism Corner

"Grave sin deprives us of communion with God and therefore makes us incapable of eternal life."

1850 Sin is an offense against God: "Against you, you alone, have I sinned, and done that which is evil in your sight." Sin sets itself against God's love for us and turns our hearts away from it. Like the first sin, it is disobedience, a revolt against God through the will to become "like gods," knowing and determining good and evil. Sin is thus "love of oneself even to contempt of God." In this proud self-exaltation, sin is diametrically opposed to the obedience of Jesus, which achieves our salvation.

Sts. Cosmas & Damian, Martyrs – Sept. 26th

"In the glorious deeds of the holy martyrs who everywhere adorn the Church, we verify the truth of what we have been singing: Precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his saints. They are precious in our sight and in the sight of him in whose name it was done." (Sermon 329, St. Augustine).

According to legend, Sts. Cosmas and Damian were born in Arabia; they were twin brothers, both physicians who practiced their skills on behalf of all out of Christian charity, accepting no fees. They are greatly honored in the Byzantine Churches and the veneration of these saints in Rome is attested to by the fact of their mention in the Roman Canon (Eucharistic Prayer I).

They were martyred in Cilicia, which is in Southeast Asia Minor which had one of the earliest Christian communities. Tarsus, its principal city, was the birthplace of St. Paul. Joined with them in martyrdom were their three brothers, Anthimus, Eprepius and Leontius. The time of their death was the year 303.

"These holy men poured out their blood for the Lord; they loved Christ in life; they followed him in his death. They have won the glorious crown. They shared the one Spirit; they held fast to one faith." (Responsory to Second Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

In the prayer over the gifts at mass today we pray: "Lord, we who celebrate the death of your holy martyrs offer you the sacrifice which gives all martyrdom its meaning. Be pleased with our praise."

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT AMENDMENT 4 FLORIDA'S PRO-ABORTION AMENDMENT

What is Amendment 4?

Amendment 4 is a proposed amendment to the Florida Constitution that would essentially establish an unlimited right to abortion throughout pregnancy even when the heartbeat of the preborn child is detected, when the preborn child can experience pain, and when the child is capable of living outside the womb. Amendment 4 will appear on the November 5, 2024 ballot and require approval from 60% of the electorate to pass.

What would Amendment 4 do?

PUT WOMEN AT RISK

Amendment 4 would jeopardize existing laws and prohibit new ones that voters on both sides of the abortion issue support, including health and safety laws that protect women.

ALLOW SECOND AND THIRD TRIMESTER ABORTIONS

Though not defined in the amendment, "viability" is defined in Florida law as the stage of development when the life of a fetus is sustainable outside the womb (Ch. 390.01(15)), generally accepted to be 22-24 weeks of pregnancy, or about 6 months.

CREATE A BROAD "HEALTH" LOOPHOLE

"Patient's health" is not defined in the amendment, allowing post-viability, extremely late-term abortions for treatable, temporary health concerns. Emotional health would justify an abortion when a child could survive outside the womb.

WEAKEN MEDICAL DOCTOR REQUIREMENT

"Healthcare providers" - not just physicians - could determine if an abortion is "necessary" to protect the mother's "health." Even some employees of abortion clinics, such as nurses and counselors, could approve late-term abortions.

ELIMINATE PARENTAL CONSENT

While preserving parental notification in our state constitution (Article X, Section 22), the amendment would invalidate the current law that requires parental consent for a minor to have an abortion (Ch. 390.0114(5)), making abortion the only medical decision for which parents have no say.

Would abortion be illegal in Florida if Amendment 4 does not pass?

If Amendment 4 does not pass, abortion would still be legal in Florida until a baby's heartbeat can be detected. Current laws that protect the safety of women would remain in effect.

Doesn't Amendment 4 simply restore Florida back to when Roe v. Wade was in effect?

Amendment 4 goes dangerously beyond what was permitted in the Roe v. Wade ruling. It would eliminate important health and safety measures that protect women, remove parental consent for any minor seeking an abortion, and allow for abortion through the third trimester of pregnancy.

Aren't late term abortions very rare?

Because they are currently not permitted by Florida law, they are extremely rare. There are exceptions in the law that allow late-term abortions to preserve the life of the mother or to avert serious risk of substantial, irreversible impairment of a major bodily function. If Amendment 4 passes, its broad loopholes would allow non-physicians to cite minor, treatable conditions to justify abortions, and there would be many more late-term abortions in Florida.

Will miscarriage care or ectopic pregnancy treatment be denied if Amendment 4 fails?

There is a fundamental difference between an elective abortion and the care provided after a miscarriage or for ectopic pregnancies. Amendment 4 will have no effect on the care a pregnant woman receives in an emergency. Women can always receive necessary and timely lifesaving medical treatment, including in Catholic hospitals. No law restricts this care in Florida.

How is the Church helping pregnant women in need?

The Catholic Church is committed to helping women in need during and after pregnancies. For decades, numerous Catholic social service agencies, in collaboration with faith-based and secular organizations, have assisted pregnant women in need with material resources and personal accompaniment during pregnancy and after their child is born.

What is the Church doing to defeat Amendment 4?

Each diocese in Florida is working together, through the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops, to help Catholics understand the dangers of Amendment 4 to women, their children and their families. The Church supports the Florida Voters Against Extremism coalition to educate voters on how Amendment 4 is harmful for Floridians.

What can I do to help defeat Amendment 4?

1. VOTE NO on Amendment 4
2. EDUCATE YOURSELF and TELL OTHERS about the dangers of Amendment 4
3. PRAY & Fast

Where can I learn more?

BASILICA OF THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF MARY, QUEEN OF THE UNIVERSE

Culture of Life Conference

The annual Florida Culture of Life Conference will take place at the Basilica of the National Shrine of Mary, Queen of the Universe on October 18-19.

Speakers will delve into an array of topics - including abortion, the death penalty, advance care directives, natural family planning, and walking with moms in need - aiming to enhance our comprehension of the Church's teaching on the inherent dignity and worthiness of protection for all human life.

Theme for this year's conference is inspired by Luke 1:38: "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." The Angel Gabriel's message troubled Mary, leading her into uncharted waters and a life of unimaginable risk. Yet, she was willing to embrace the risk and trust in God's invitation.

Friday evening will begin with Adoration and a Holy Hour. Saturday will include a full day of speakers, displays and will conclude with Mass celebrated by Bishop Noonan.
