REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“It was fitting that we should have such a high priest: holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, higher than the heavens.” I recall a life-changing conversation with a Passionist Nun that took place early in my formational, instructional years as a seminarian that struck me, convicted me, confronted me and still till this day remains a great source of amazing grace for me in these formational years of priesthood. In our faith-filled dialog, Sister Immaculata pierced me with a holy gaze, looked me in the face then into my eyes and said, “We need you to be a good and holy priest.” I tried to make light of it and jokingly responded, “Sister, it is enough and difficult to be good, you want me to be holy as well?” This beautiful angel in a very much commanding tone and voice responded, “I am serious, the people of God need you to be a good and holy priest.” Good gracious. She was dead serious. However, in that nervous way we tend to react when we face uncomfortable situations or are simply not ready or ill equipped to respond, I was hoping she was joking or kidding, but she was very serious. This was a need, not a want. I had to ponder and consider not a request but a necessity, as one that needed a cup of water in a parched desert land or needed to take a life-saving breath of fresh air after being enclosed or in a prison for what must seem to be an eternity or a very long time. I could hear scripture cry out: he who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in every aspect of your conduct, for it is written, “Be holy because I am holy.” The words resonated as an echo chased away and a void filled with truth again. Like a seed planted in creation, watered in baptism, nurtured in faith, taking hold and taking root now springs forth blossoming, sprouting into a great reality and desire, “Be holy, for I, the LORD your God, am holy.” I would hear the voice of many people, various beloved children of God from all ages and time and spaces and places repeat Sister’s words “We need you to be a good and holy priest.” I can jokingly wonder how and when they would have met Sister Immaculata along the way and how many other people her spirit would bring to me to remind me of God’s desire, his call and need of you and of me.

CATECHISM of the CATHOLIC CHURCH

Catechism Corner

The Church, then, is "the holy People of God," and her members are called "saints."

867 The Church is holy: the Most Holy God is her author; Christ, her bridegroom, gave himself up to make her holy; the Spirit of holiness gives her life. Since she still includes sinners, she is "the sinless one made up of sinners." Her holiness shines in the saints; in Mary she is already all-holy.

How can we pray for you? Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. We will pray for each specific intention that you submit. Submit your intentions at:

Circles allow women the opportunity to join ACCW based on their schedules and commitments. Each month, two Circles meet in the morning, two in the evening, and one alternates months between day & evening. Solemnity of All Saints
November 1

407-774-2801
www.annunciationacademy.org

MegaBlast 2024 was an absolute blast! A HUGE thank you to everyone who made our fundraiser a success - your donations and volunteer support made it all possible. We're so grateful for this amazing community!

"Let us rejoice in the Lord and keep a festival in honor of all the saints." (Entrance Antiphon for Mass). This solemnity in honor of all the saints, demonstrates the great honor and respect that we render to holy men and women of the past. Honoring the saints reminds us of our goal of attaining heaven as a reward for our efforts in living the Gospel taught to us by Jesus.

The Preface of the Mass tells us what this feast is all about: "Around your throne the saints, our brothers and sisters, sing your praise forever. Their glory fills us with joy, and their communion with us in your church gives us inspiration and strength as we hasten on our pilgrimage of faith...."

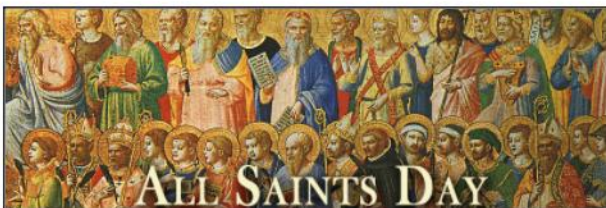

In our prayers, we ask that their example of holy living turn our "thoughts to the service of God and neighbor" (Collect), and we express our appreciation of "their concern to help and save us" (Prayer over the Gifts).

The saints are examples of the life that is lived in the spirit of the Gospels. This spirit is that of the Beatitudes as proclaimed in the Gospel reading (Cf. Matthew 5:1-12). These spiritual principles summarize how to live a meaningful Christian life.

Each of us can look to our patron saints and to those saints for whom we have some special admiration for their inspiration and example. These saints are our brothers and sisters, who are in a very real communion with us, and who can strengthen us by their intercession, since we are on the same journey, which they have completed.

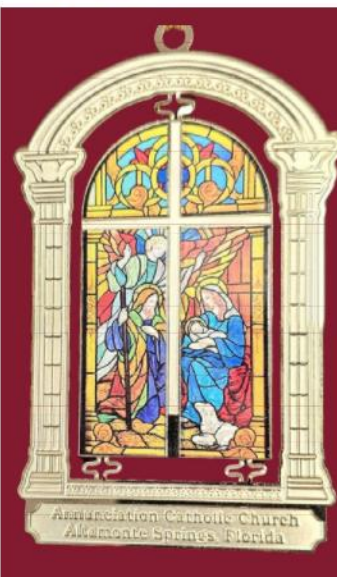

Their triumph is a source of our joy; their glory is our eager expectation. This solemnity celebrates God's great triumph in the multitude which no one can count. It celebrates God's glory, wisdom, honor and power. This feast is also the community's day to praise God who began a great work in us on the day of our baptism, when we were washed clean in the blood of the Lamb.

We pray today that with God's help and the intercession of the saints, we will bring to completion the great work He has begun in us, and that we will arrive at God's throne to sing His praises forever.

In Persona Christi: The Catholic Priesthood

The Catholic priesthood comes to us from Jesus Christ. Building on this pattern of priesthood from Old Testament times, Jesus chose twelve men to act in His place as priests of the new and everlasting covenant. This film explores the essential nature and theology of the sacred priesthood, the importance of a deep prayer life, the centrality of the Mass and Eucharistic Adoration, devotion to the Blessed Virgin, priestly fatherhood and celibacy, and the necessity of a missionary zeal.
