REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

"Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink." One of the things that challenges us most and gets in the way of the many is pride. It inflates our ego and destroys others. It gets in the way of having a real, intimate, loving, truthful and honest relationship with God and with others. Our pride would have us believe that we are the best, no one is better at whatever we do, no matter whether it be charity or sinning we have to be the best at winning, giving or wrong doing. Pride makes us think less of others, look down on all people; believe a person is less than they seem, worthless, hopeless or worse than they really are. Pride blinds reality and silences truth. It increases pride, encourages falsehood, feeds temptation, and fills our attitude. Pride causes us to think no one, including God, can do it better than us, is more perfect than we are or more deserving of the job, position, assignment, title or rank. That is what Satan believed. Pride over emphasizes everything, exaggerates everything, is an attention getter and a noisemaker. Jesus, on the other hand, shows us and lives out for us the truest meaning of humanity in meekness, kindness, reverence and humility toward God and neighbor. God certainly can boast that no one is greater, more powerful or can create from nothing. Yet God humbles himself before humanity, washes their feet, serves as a servant slave and asks for permission, waits for a response, is gentle in correction and makes us feel that nothing else matters. We are the most important person and relation in God's eyes. Imagine a God who needs no one, including and especially you, a God who does not need a thing, especially and including all humanity, seeks our permission to love and our authority to heal. Seriously, that is how much God loves us. He truly loves us. He can do all things but prefers to ask respectfully for a cup of water to drink. To ask respectfully if he can assist you in any way, walk with you, listen to you, pray with you; provide you with directions along the everlasting way. Pride causes us to not want or seek assistance. Pride would have you believe that you are the only one who works, no one is better, you are the only one who can resolve the problem or fix the issue. Pride does not ask but demands. It does not receive but takes. That is what Satan does.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

CATECHISM
of the
CHURCH

Catechism
Corner

Are we convinced that "we do not know how to pray as we ought"?

Are we asking God for "what is good for us"?

2631 The first movement of the prayer of petition is asking forgiveness, like the tax collector in the parable: "God, be merciful to me a sinner!" It is a prerequisite for righteous and pure prayer. A trusting humility brings us back into the light of communion between the Father and his Son Jesus Christ and with one another, so that "we receive from him whatever we ask." Asking forgiveness is the prerequisite for both the Eucharistic liturgy and personal prayer.

Annunciation Council of Catholic Women

Our affiliation is comprised of a network of five Circles. Members are spiritual, supportive, and very dedicated in giving their time, talent, and treasure to serve God through helping the less fortunate in our community and supporting the needs of our Parish.

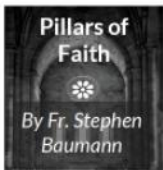

Circles allow women the opportunity to join ACCW based on their schedules and commitments. Each month, two Circles meet in the morning, two in the evening, and one alternates months between day & evening. Each Circle sponsors a fundraiser to individually support non-profit organizations in our area.

Let us give you the opportunity to serve God in friendship with spiritual, dedicated, and supportive women to affect the needs of many in our Parish, community, and beyond.

St. Charles Borromeo, Bishop – November 4th

407-774-2801
www.annunciationacademy.org

"Father, let your Church be continually renewed and show the image of Christ in the world by being conformed to His likeness."

St. Charles Borromeo (1538-1584) lived and worked during a time of reformation and renewal following the Council of Trent. This was a time in which the needs in the Church and in society as a whole were great. The successful conclusion of the third and final sessions of the Council were largely due to his efforts as papal secretary. His concern as priest and bishop was for the good of all and his foresight convinced him of the need for holy, dedicated and learned priests and bishops, as leaders of the Church. He directed his efforts at reforms that would accomplish this, though not without opposition. His ideals are precisely what we still need today – he organized his priests into a society for personal and spiritual development and growth.

Well educated in both civil and Church law, Charles Borromeo was a very pastoral priest and bishop, so much so that one biographer wrote of him: "His life is a textbook of pastoral theology for bishops." The prayer over the gifts at his memorial Mass notes that St. Charles was an example of virtue and concern for the pastoral ministry, and in the prayer after communion, we ask for the courage and strength which made St. Charles faithful in his ministry and constant in his love.

Much of his preaching was to his priests, but he also gave sound advice to others. His advice to teachers, for example, was "study diligently and apply yourself to whatever is necessary for doing the job well. Be sure you first preach by the way you live." To pastors he said: "Do not neglect the parish of your own soul; do not give yourself to others so completely that you have nothing left for yourself. You have to be mindful of your people without becoming forgetful of yourself." To his priests he constantly gave encouragement to pray and meditate "before, during, and after everything we do." He told them: "this is the way we can easily overcome the countless difficulties we have to face day after day, which after all, are part of our work. In meditation we find the strength to bring Christ to birth in ourselves and in others." (Cf. 2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

St. Charles Borromeo died in 1584 at the age of 46, at Milan, and was canonized in 1610. "He was one of the towering figures of the Catholic Reformation, a patron for learning and arts, and though he achieved a position of great power, he used it with humility, personal sanctity and unselfishness to reform the Church of the evils and abuses of his time."

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of November 10, 2024

Why Does the Church Canonize People |

Dr. Elizabeth Klein and Taylor Kemp discuss canonization: its definition, history, and how it works. Why do we honor the communion of saints? What leads to saints' official incorporation into public worship? What about miracles? Learn all about these topics in this episode.

St. Ephrem the Syrian | Catholic Saints

An Eastern Father of the early Church, St. Ephrem the Syrian was arguably the most important saint and theological writer for the Syriac-speaking churches. He did not write many treaties or letters but devoted himself to writing hymns to God. These hymns, however, contain a wealth of knowledge and teaching that elegantly weave together images from the Old and New Testaments.

What is the Divine Liturgy? | Catholic Rites

Byzantine Catholic Church, as they discuss the nature of Byzantine piety, Divine Liturgy, and the similarities and differences between the Eastern and Latin rites. This episode highlights the importance of icons, chanting, veils, and the reception of leaven bread and other key features of the Byzantine Divine Liturgy.
