REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

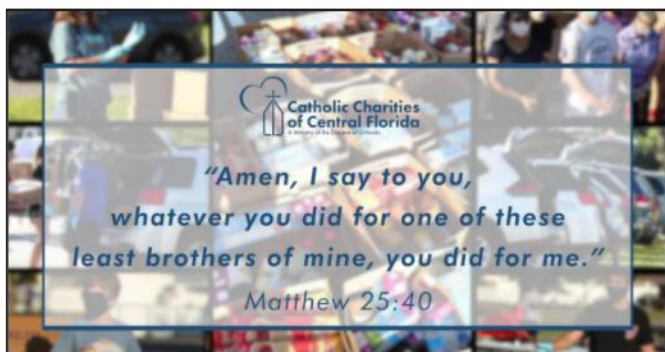

by Fr. Ivan

"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." At times, we say knowledge is power and certainly at times, it is. When we have information the other party does not possess, have or own, it gives us the clear advantage, the upper hand. If we know where the treasure is or how to obtain it, we are off to a good start, a head start. We do not have to spend or waste time looking for the treasure; just determine how to obtain it. Our competitors, on the other hand, lack the information necessary to begin or the way to start looking. So clearly, the advantage is ours. For when information is at hand and readily available, we can better make long-term plans, better determine the best possible financial outcome, better forecast the best possible earnings, profits, and shares and determine the best possible, most profitable and securest career path, the best person to marry to begin a family with or even discern and answer our vocational call. Knowledge is certainly helpful, useful and powerful when used properly in accordance with God's plan. Knowledge also at times can be a temptation, a near occasion for sin. We misuse knowledge for selfish gain. We misuse knowledge in ambitious ways to destroy another's good name, obtain their fortune, or hurt their family and steal their fame. Knowledge of this sort becomes a weapon in the wrong hands. It becomes hurtful rather than information that can be helpful to those who do not know and can benefit from it in a good way. Meaning the knowledge gives Glory to God and helps others obtain his grace. The information helps heal the broken hearted, assists the poor or brings reconciliation to those hurting or separated by greed or sin. Knowledge is a gift from God, a gift of the Holy Spirit, Jesus himself. God invites us to know him ever more intimately. To know all he has done to create us, redeem us, save us and bless us. This kind of knowledge is helpful, useful, a blessing. What can we possibly know unless God reveals it, shares it and teaches us? We at times focus on self-knowledge. We claim to teach ourselves and know what no one else knows. We say, I knew it, I told you so, I am the only who knows, but God says no one knows except the Father, who invites us to simply know how much he loves and forgives us.

This is a great time to start the journey!

CATECHISM
CHURCH

Catechism
Corner

"The knowledge of the Father is the Son, and the knowledge of God's Son is obtained through the Holy Spirit."

683 "God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, 'Abba! Father!'" This knowledge of faith is possible only in the Holy Spirit: to be in touch with Christ, we must first have been touched by the Holy Spirit. He comes to meet us and kindles faith in us. By virtue of our Baptism, the first sacrament of the faith, the Holy Spirit in the Church communicates to us, intimately and personally, the life that originates in the Father and is offered to us in the Son.

We are dedicated to providing high quality day care and early childhood education for children from the age of six weeks to pre-K of registered Annunciation Catholic Church parishioners. We have a loving, dedicated staff of administrators and trained teachers working with the children. We maintain a low student teacher ratio. We believe children will learn best through active participation. We encourage parent's participation through our parent's organization, T.E.A.M. (Together Everyone Achieves More).

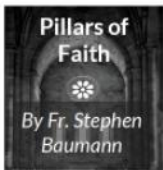

How can we pray for you? Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. We will pray for each specific intention that you submit. Submit your intentions at:

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

This past week, we honored the first American citizen to be canonized, St. Frances Xavier Cabrini (1850-1917). Much like St. Teresa of Calcutta, whom we honored in September, Frances Cabrini was a determined woman religious with a total trust in the loving care of God. Nothing would dissuade her from her missionary activity in education and to the poor.

In his canonization, homily on July 7, 1946, Pope Pius XII said: "Inspired by the grace of God, we join the saints in honoring the holy virgin Frances Xavier Cabrini. She was a humble woman who became outstanding not because she was famous, or rich or powerful, but because she lived a virtuous life. From the tender years of her youth, she kept her innocence as white as a lily and preserved it carefully with the thorns of penitence. As the years progressed, she was moved by a certain instinct and a supernatural zeal to dedicate her whole life to the service and greater glory of God."

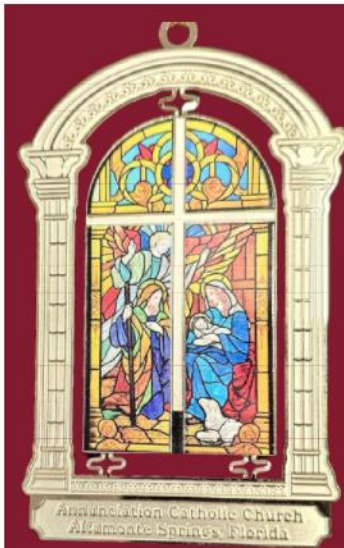

Frances was the foundress of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart (1880). Their work is with orphans, in schools, with the poor, and with the sick. She wanted to be a missionary to China, but Pope Leo XIII urged her instead to go to the United States and help preserve the faith of the Italian immigrants. She came to New York City in 1889, and together with her sisters worked for the next 28 years in New York, and later in Chicago. She also established schools in Brazil, Argentina, and Nicaragua.

Mother Cabrini was tested right from the beginning of her work in New York, when the building that had been reserved for her orphanage was not available. The archbishop suggested that she return to Italy, but she would have none of that. Soon after, she secured another suitable building for her orphanage and a convent for her sisters. Nothing would deter Mother from her mission, despite disappointments and difficulties.

She took particular care of the Italian immigrants who by then were beginning to lose their faith, establishing over the next thirty years, sixty-seven orphanages, schools, and hospitals to care for the homeless and the sick.

Interestingly, as a child she was always afraid of water, and never learned to swim. Still, she made thirty trans-Atlantic crossings by ship.

Mother Cabrini died in her own Columbus Hospital in Chicago in 1917.
