REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“Shout for joy, O daughter Zion! Sing joyfully, O Israel!” Many have asked where my joy comes from. What is the source and the cause of all that joy? The response itself is a cause and a moment of joy that echoes a joyous memory in my heart and a hymn of praise. Recognizing and recalling those things that fill us most. The greatest joys that make one’s eyes smile from ear to ear and one’s heart to leap for great joy. That would be Mary. One of my greatest joys. Thankful to God for our Lady of Grace, our Mother of Hope, our Queen of Peace. Thankful for her Immaculate Heart, her Amazing Grace, for bringing us a Savior, for bringing me to Jesus when life feels empty and dry; for bringing me to Jesus when life seems gray and lifeless and I have run out of cheer and there seems to be no more wine. I am thankful to our Lady for beholding me at the Foot of the Cross as her beloved child and for praying for me like the disciples in the Upper Room of her Immaculate Heart when I feel afraid or fearful, worried or anxious in any way. Thankful Mary is our Mother of Perpetual Help, the Help of all Christians, Comforter of the Afflicted, and the Refuge of Sinners. Go to Mary. She will lead and point you in the right direction. She is the Mother of Mercy, the Holy Mother of God, the Holy Mother of the Church and our Beloved Mother Mary. There is so much joy. It bursts forth in knowing that God created and chose Mary for himself to be the Mother of his Son, the Temple of his Holy Glory and the dwelling place of his Holy Spirit. Thankful to God that he created and chose Mary for us, as well to be our Lady of Wisdom, our Lady of Good Counsel, Mother of the New Evangelization, Queen of Heaven and Earth; Queen of the Universe. Our Lady loves us, prays for us, watches over us and never judges us but graciously corrects us and always leads us to her Son that he may heal and reconcile us, cleanse and feed us nourishing us with his precious Body and Blood. What joy to sometimes know and experience our Lady’s closeness and presence when one encounters the sweet aroma of a Mystical Rose or the wonderful aroma of purity that fills our minds and senses and every room Mary quietly and gently enters into.

Advent Outreach - Morning Star Catholic School

Morning Star Catholic School has a long history that began over 60 years ago with the Sisters of St. Joseph. Their commitment was to provide students with special needs an opportunity to receive an education, allowing them to be the best they can be spiritually, socially, academically, physically, and emotionally. This commitment lives on today. Please prayerfully consider donating to Morning Star Catholic School.

Your donation will allow the school to continue to provide a foundation of Catholic faith while providing our students with the resources to learn and receive necessary services to help them achieve their individual goals.

To make a donation, use the blue special collection envelopes and write Morning Star in the memo or visit www.annunciationorlando.org/advent to make a donation online. Thank you!

Morning Star Catholic School is truly a remarkable place that has a rich history of serving God's children with special needs.

Believing that every child should have the opportunity to learn, former Archbishop Joseph P. Hurley tasked the Sisters of St. Joseph of St. Augustine to pioneer five Morning Star schools - these became Florida's first schools for children with intellectual disabilities. Under the direction of Sister Elizabeth Marie Stoup, Morning Star Catholic School was officially established in the College Park neighborhood of Orlando in 1960.

Students at Morning Star Catholic School are considered to be intellectually disabled with varying exceptionalities. Intellectual disability is characterized by a significant cognitive impairment combined with limitations in the adaptive skills needed to live, work, and play in the community. Intellectual disabilities can be caused by any condition that impairs development of the brain before birth, during birth, or in childhood years.

OUR MISSION
Morning Star Catholic School, founded in Catholic tradition, is committed to providing each student with special needs the opportunity to discover their gifts and achieve their personal best as children of God.

The Breaking of the Oplatek

In many Polish homes throughout the world, a beloved family tradition is the breaking of the oplatek on Christmas Eve. Oplatek is a thin wafer made from flour and water similar in taste and consistency to the hosts that are used for communion during Mass. Oplatki are often stamped with an elaborate Christmas scene.

The oplatek is meant to remind families of the Eucharistic bread at Mass and makes a further connection between Christmas and the gift of the Eucharist, the presence of God among us.

During our Advent Retreat, we journeyed together in faith, service, and fellowship. Beginning the day in Adoration and concluding with a beautiful liturgy in our courtyard, our hearts were focused on the call to be instruments of God’s peace. Throughout the day, our students lived out our mission:

- Packing weekend meals and writing cards of encouragement for students at Altamonte Elementary.
- Building STREAM bridges and exploring creative problem-solving.
- Collaborating on “Mission Peace,” fostering teamwork and understanding.
- Working in small groups in the gym to accomplish shared goals.

Advent reminds us to prepare our hearts for Christ, and today was a powerful reflection of His love in action. Let us continue to bring His peace to the world!

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

DO YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH? Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper? CATECHISM of the CATHOLIC CHURCH

Catechism Corner

"The prayer of the Church is sustained by the prayer of Mary and united with it in hope."

2657 The Holy Spirit, who instructs us to celebrate the liturgy in expectation of Christ's return, teaches us to pray in hope. Conversely, the prayer of the Church and personal prayer nourish hope in us. The psalms especially, with their concrete and varied language, teach us to fix our hope in God: "I waited patiently for the LORD; he inclined to me and heard my cry." As St. Paul prayed: "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope."

The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The doctrine of the Immaculate Conception was defined on December 8, 1854 by Pope Pius IX. It declares that "the Blessed Virgin Mary, at the first instant of her conception, by a singular privilege and grace of the Omnipotent God, in virtue of the advance merits of Jesus Christ, the Savior of mankind, was preserved immaculate from all stain of original sin." This doctrine is not found explicitly in Sacred Scripture, however it has been part of Catholic tradition from the earliest centuries of the Church and therefore, the liturgy applies Scripture to highlight key aspects of that teaching.

The most important focus for the liturgy (mass) is the Angel Gabriel's announcement to Mary, depicted in our Annunciation window, concerning the birth of Jesus. While this story has many interesting details, today's feast concentrates on Mary. St. Luke goes to great lengths to depict Mary as an ordinary young girl from a humble environment. She is betrothed to be married to Joseph, as were many girls of her young age. Her life was headed along a familiar path towards marriage and family life. But when the Angel Gabriel entered the story, Mary's life changes beyond anything that anyone could ever have imagined. From this moment on, her life will be anything but ordinary.

The first two things proclaimed about Mary from Gabriel is that she is full of grace and that she has found favor with God. Grace and favor are the divine qualifications through which Mary will become mother of the Son of the Most High. It is precisely from this perspective that the Church throughout the centuries has concluded that such an immaculate vessel must be thoroughly without flaw. Thus, the Church's conclusion that Mary was untouched by original sin and immaculately conceived in the womb of her mother, St. Anne.

There is no indication in the Gospel passage from St. Luke that Mary herself was aware of any of this. Her simple response to the Angel Gabriel's explanation of what is going to happen to her is a reasonable one: "How can this be since I have no relations with a man?" The dynamic that is running throughout this entire story is not the knowledge and understanding of how God works – which is impossible for us.

Instead, it is all about faith, and Mary is the central character whose "yes" to God makes God's plan possible. In fact, as we know, Mary said "yes" many times during her life, not just this once. She and St. Joseph were absolutely obedient to God's will. As the Angel Gabriel explained, "Nothing will be impossible for God." Many things are impossible for humans, especially, when they attempt to take the place of God, with control in life. And that never works.

There is a lot to be learned from Mary, the handmaid of the Lord. She firmly believed that nothing was impossible for God. Do we? Therefore, without fear, she could say, "Let it be done to me according to your word." Being immaculately conceived is not an option for humans. Believing that nothing is impossible for God is. Being graced and favored by God empowers Faith, for Mary and for us. God has blessed us in many ways, starting with our Baptisms, and continually through the other Sacraments.

Mary gave of herself generously. At this time of year, as we prepare for Christmas, there are many demands made on us by our family and work circumstances. At times we may feel overwhelmed. These can also be seen as opportunities to be patient, generous, and gracious, because of our love for God and desire to be of service. In so many ways, we are challenged by Mary's example, and by the Church, to respond with generosity and love.

Respect Life Prayer & Action MONTHLY PRAYER GUIDE - USCCB

May the advent of the infant Jesus
bring expectant
mothers joy,
hope, and peace.

Reflect

Each year during Advent, we prepare our hearts to celebrate the birth of Christ our Savior at Christmas. As we anticipate this joyful celebration, we recall the well-known journey of the Holy Family from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Far from home, poor, and in great need, Mary and Joseph find refuge in a simple stable. But this humble setting among the livestock soon welcomes the heavenly host of angels and the Son of God himself.

Today, women in our own communities are pregnant, poor, perhaps without a home, and in great need. They may feel alone, scared, and overwhelmed, not knowing where they can turn for help. In challenging circumstances, expectant mothers are in need of a refuge of their own. Like the Holy Family, they are often reliant on the kindness and service of others.

This Advent may the story of the first Christmas inspire us to reach out to mothers in need. May we proactively seek to offer loving support and encouragement as they prepare to welcome their children. By answering this call, may we help mothers experience the joy, hope, and peace brought by the infant Jesus. And may we, too, share in and bear witness to the miracle of new life.

Act (Choose one)

- Offer Pope Francis' Prayer for the Immaculate Conception for this month's intention: usccb.org/prayers/pope-francis-prayer-immaculate-conception.
- Contact your local pregnancy resource center or diocesan/parish pregnancy support ministry. Ask about ways you can help, such as volunteering or donating baby items.
- Offer some other sacrifice or prayer that you feel called to do for this month's intention.
