REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved.” The Lord God is the source and summit of our faith, the highlight of our day, the way to everlasting salvation. He is God, Creator of Heaven and Earth and all they contain. God is the essence of our breath, the blood that rushes through our veins, the spiritual food we consume, the remedy and medicine for all our sores, aches and pains. God created and made the heavens and the earth in his perfection, in his goodness, in his holiness, in his innocence and in his beautiful truth. He is the Maker who so wonderfully created and made all the stars and galaxies, the mountains, oceans and seas. The Maker of everything that lives, grows, swims, walks, jumps, eats and breathes. God who loved is love and continues to love in and through his wonderful special creation. He made them, human, male and female, his beloved children, wonderfully made in his likeness and in his own image to share forever, perpetually in his goodness and in the gracious goodness of his grace. God makes all things beautiful, holy and good once again. He makes all things new: restoring, renewing, recreating and sanctifying once again. We unfortunately uncreate, undo, shatter, break, destroy and unmake what God has so graciously built, made, created, united and called into existence and being. It is a sad thing to admit but the truth is that left to our own way and wills, we can make an ugly mess of God’s beautiful creation. We at times try to touch up what God created as if to make it better. We attempt to cover up God’s creation and believe we can make it better looking or perhaps greater or more perfect in some way. Thankfully God’s grace erases our mistakes and makes all things new again. We need God to make us good again, but not by force or against our will, but rather with the weakness and within the weakness of our imperfect decisions and wrongful willful intentions, by surrendering our will and returning once again to God. It is humbling to acknowledge that left to our own designs, we unfortunately cannot reach God or return to our true homeland in heaven. Our weakness turns to things that cause grief rather than God’s gaze that lifts us. If you feel you cannot return to God on your own or repent in anyway then it is time to say, “Lord, make me turn to you.”

If repentance arises from love of charity for God, it is called "perfect" contrition; if it is founded on other motives, it is called "imperfect."

1431 Interior repentance is a radical reorientation of our whole life, a return, a conversion to God with all our heart, an end of sin, a turning away from evil, with repugnance toward the evil actions we have committed. At the same time it entails the desire and resolution to change one's life, with hope in God's mercy and trust in the help of his grace. This conversion of heart is accompanied by a salutary pain and sadness which the Fathers called animi cruciatus (affliction of spirit) and compunctio cordis (repentance of heart).

St. Peter Canisius – December 21st

St. Peter Canisius (1521-1597) is sometimes called "the second apostle of Germany." He is a very important person in the Catholic Counter Reformation which followed the sixteenth century Council of Trent, several sessions of which he had attended.

Born in Nijmegen in the Netherlands, he entered the Society of Jesus after studying at Cologne and Louvain. He was ordained a priest in 1546 and was first given a teaching assignment. As he was noted for his preaching, Duke William of Bavaria asked that he be sent to Germany to revive Catholicism. A popular and eloquent preacher, he zealously defended the Faith, authored a simple catechism, taught and established colleges and seminaries. His influence was widespread and lasting.

Prior to his assignment to Germany, St. Peter Canisius tells of a spiritual experience. After acknowledging his acceptance of that mission, he continued:

"At length, it was as if you opened to me the heart in your most sacred body; I seemed to see it directly before my eyes. You told me to drink from this fountain, inviting me, that is, to draw the waters of salvation from your wellsprings, my Savior. I was most eager that streams of faith, hope and love should flow into me from that source. I was thirsting for poverty, chastity, obedience. I asked to be clothed, to be wholly cleaned by you, to be made resplendent by you."

"So, after daring to approach your most loving heart and to plunge my thirst in it, I received a promise from you of a garment made of three parts: "these were to cover my soul in its nakedness, and to belong especially to my religious profession. They were peace, love and perseverance. Protected by this garment of salvation, I was confident that I would lack nothing, but all would succeed and give you glory." (Cf. 2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

St. Peter Canisius was canonized in 1925 and declared a Doctor of the Church. The Antiphon in the Benedictus (Morning Prayer) reads: "Those who are learned will be as radiant as the sky in all its beauty; those who instruct the people in goodness will shine like the stars for all eternity."

Feast of the Holy Innocents

The feast of the Holy Innocents will be commemorated with a Bilingual Mass on Friday, December 27th (the Vigil of the feast) at 7pm at St. Magdalen Church, 861 Maitland Avenue, Altamonte Springs.

Please join us at this Eucharistic Celebration to remember the Holy Innocents who died at the hands of Herod, as well as all those children lost through miscarriage, abortion, accident or illness. Following the Mass, our Tree of Remembrance will be decorated to represent the children that have been lost. You may bring an ornament, or one will be provided for you. This event is sponsored by the Parish's Culture of Life Ministry.

We are dedicated to providing high quality day care and early childhood education for children from the age of six weeks to pre-K of registered Annunciation Catholic Church parishioners. We have a loving, dedicated staff of administrators and trained teachers working with the children. We maintain a low student teacher ratio. We believe children will learn best through active participation. We encourage parent's participation through our parent's organization, T.E.A.M. (Together Everyone Achieves More).

LOVING AND SERVING OTHERS

Thank you to everyone who has made this year's Fall Festival so successful!

We are grateful for the opportunity to share in fellowship, family, fun and food with our community in order to support our local charitable outreach. With your help we were able to raise $65,000 to live out our mission to love and serve others. These are some of the local charities we will be assisting:

- JMJ Pregnancy Center
- Life Choices Medical Clinic
- Kids House of Seminole, Inc.
- Latisha's House
- Samaritan Village
- Sharing Center
- United Against Poverty
- Ali's Hope
- Pathways to New Hope

November Impact Report

There is no doubt that the material support we offer to the neighbor is important. It is important to eat, but it leaves you hungry again. It is important to pay the rent, but the bill comes due again next month. God's love is eternal, and our first responsibility in serving the poor is to do so for love alone, in the hope that through our caring "the poor may catch a glimpse of God's great love for them."

"Vincentians visit not merely to drop off groceries or pay a bill, but to form relationships based on trust and friendship. Our visiting, our encouragement, and our prayers serve most importantly to bring true hope. Please consider joining with us on the first and third Wednesday of the month at 7pm in the St. Gabriel Life Center. Or, email us at: svdp@annunciationorlando.org.

Advent Outreach - Morning Star Catholic School

Morning Star Catholic School has a long history that began over 60 years ago with the Sisters of St. Joseph. Their commitment was to provide students with special needs an opportunity to receive an education, allowing them to be the best they can be spiritually, socially, academically, physically, and emotionally. This commitment lives on today. Please prayerfully consider donating to Morning Star Catholic School.

Your donation will allow the school to continue to provide a foundation of Catholic faith while providing our students with the resources to learn and receive necessary services to help them achieve their individual goals.

To make a donation, use the blue special collection envelopes and write Morning Star in the memo or visit www.annunciationorlando.org/advent to make a donation online. Thank you!

ABOUT US

Morning Star Catholic School is truly a remarkable place that has a rich history of serving God's children with special needs.

Believing that every child should have the opportunity to learn, former Archbishop Joseph P. Hurley tasked the Sisters of St. Joseph of St. Augustine to pioneer five Morning Star schools - these became Florida's first schools for children with intellectual disabilities. Under the direction of Sister Elizabeth Marie Stoup, Morning Star Catholic School was officially established in the College Park neighborhood of Orlando in 1960.

Students at Morning Star Catholic School are considered to be intellectually disabled with varying exceptionalities. Intellectual disability is characterized by a significant cognitive impairment combined with limitations in the adaptive skills needed to live, work, and play in the community. Intellectual disabilities can be caused by any condition that impairs development of the brain before birth, during birth, or in childhood years.

OUR MISSION

Morning Star Catholic School, founded in Catholic tradition, is committed to providing each student with special needs the opportunity to discover their gifts and achieve their personal best as children of God.

The Universal Church celebrates the Jubilee Year 2025 - the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord.

Pope Francis stated in his February 2022 letter announcing the Jubilee 2025: "We must fan the flame of hope that has been given us and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart and far-sighted vision. The forthcoming Jubilee can contribute greatly to restoring a climate of hope and trust as a prelude to the renewal and rebirth that we so urgently desire..."

Visit www.annunciationorlando.org/hope for more resources and updates on Diocese wide events.

Pope Francis looks ahead to the Jubilee, praying that it might "strengthen us in the faith," and transform us into "pilgrims of Christian hope"

- In his prayer intention for December, Pope Francis invites us to pray "that this Jubilee strengthen us in our faith, helping us to recognize the Risen Christ in the midst of our lives, transforming us into pilgrims of Christian hope."
- The Pope invites us to be pilgrims of hope in a world that "needs it a lot," and that "through us, let us allow it to reach everyone who is looking for it."
- "Hope," Pope Francis says, "is an anchor – an anchor that you cast over with a rope to be moored on the shore. We have to hold onto the rope of hope."

(Vatican City, December 3 2024). – "For pilgrims of hope" is the prayer intention chosen by Pope Francis for the month of December. It is a special invitation within the context of the upcoming Jubilee 2025. For this reason, the Pope asks us to "pray that this upcoming Jubilee strengthen us in our faith, helping us to recognize the Risen Christ in the midst of our lives, transforming us into pilgrims of Christian hope."

The boat and the anchor

In the Statio Orbis during the pandemic in a deserted Saint Peter's Square, Pope Francis used the Gospel metaphor of the boat in the midst of the storm to recall the fragility and disorientation of humanity in the face of great trials. In a certain sense, the Holy Father brings us back to that boat so as to highlight the importance of the anchor in this month's prayer intention. "Hope," he says, accompanying his words with very eloquent gestures, "is an anchor – an anchor that you cast over with a rope to be moored on the shore. We have to hold onto the rope of hope."

In the footsteps of Abraham

"The virtue of hope gives us a lot of strength to walk through life," Pope Francis said on 28 December 2016 during the General Audience dedicated to the figure of Abraham. On the one hand, Abraham was not "afraid to see reality for what it was," and on the other hand, he was capable of "going beyond human reasoning, beyond the world's wisdom and prudence, beyond what was normally considered common sense, to believe in the impossible." Like Abraham, the protagonists of this month's The Pope Video set out on a journey, beginning with their own difficulties: the worries of a woman in front of an empty pantry, the doubts of a student regarding the future. (see this month's video on our website)

"Day by day, let us fill our lives with the gift of hope that God gives us, and through us, let us allow it to reach everyone who is looking for it," the Pope says in his message that accompanies his prayer intention. And this is exactly what happens to the protagonists in the video: on their journey, both of them meet some "pilgrims of hope" who welcome and comfort them, inviting them to join them on their symbolic journey toward the Holy Door which will remain open during the entire Jubilee year.

Jubilee 2025, an invitation to walk in hope

Jubilee 2025, whose theme is "Pilgrims of hope", will be a unique moment for celebration and profound reflection. Also called the "Holy Year," it is not only a stop on the journey of faith, but also an invitation to recognize Christ in the everyday.

Diocese of Orlando - Jubilee Year Opening Mass, Dec. 28th - Bishop John Noonan invites all the faithful to join him in the opening liturgy for the Jubilee Year, Spes non confundit ("Hope does not disappoint."), declared by Pope Francis. The Jubilee Year opens as a gift from God. In the Diocese of Orlando our observance will begin with an anticipated Mass for the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, Saturday, December 28th, at 4 p.m. at St. James Cathedral, 215 N. Orange Ave., Orlando. The Diocesan Jubilee will conclude on the Feast of the Holy Family on December 28, 2025 with the concluding Mass of the Ordinary Jubilee Year of 2025. The Jubilee Year will be a time of pilgrimage, and pious visits; a time to practice the works of mercy and penance; to renew our common baptism; to seek to be "Pilgrims of Hope." Bishop Noonan has designated St. James Cathedral as a place of pilgrimage for all to "come and see."
