REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you.” Darkness has a way of creeping into our lives unnoticed, as if it was unassuming, unobtrusive and did not want to bother you in any way. However, darkness is unwelcomed, is sneaky, and wants to invade your entire joyous life with unprecedented deception, hidden unnatural passions and unruly disorderly desires. Darkness wants to cover you all over and smother you inside and out with darkness so that the True Light that has come into the world to save you cannot and will never reach you. Darkness wants nothing more than to disrupt your unending joy and bring an unhappy ending to your blessed happiness. True darkness hates pure light. Darkness would rather go into further darkness than admit it is wrong. It will never give way to the True Light, the Light of Life, the Light that has come into the world. Darkness wishes, hopes and diabolically plans and plots to obliterate any further hope you may have of being in the love and watchful, constant care of God who is eternal and wants nothing more than to watchfully care for you and love you totally today, yesterday and forever more. Darkness overshadows us. When it enters, it covers our lives like a dark, dreary, storm cloud. Life suddenly feels dreary, heavy, foggy, dense and confusing. Darkness covers any possible hope of finding a way out. Lost, we seem to lose our way even further, without any possible means to navigate through a life filled with darkened alleyways and busy, empty streets. We lose our way and any hope or desire of a possible rescue from darkness. We remain covered by it. Will we ever permit God to truly save us and allow him to touch us with the glorious resplendent light of his beloved Son, and beg him to cover us in any way he desires with his marvelous truth and everlasting way, the ways that never cease to rescue us from unending darkness into the light that never fades? Sin welcomes the darkness. It feeds upon it. It needs darkness to exist. Darkness tries to chase the True Light away. Its warmth, truth and the hope it brings. Eternally grateful that the True Light never fears being faded or extinguished by darkness. The True Light shines brightly, even brighter in the darkness. Its hope never fades away. The darkness cannot overcome the True Light for “upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory.”

Supporting Our Future Priests

We are called to return our blessings to God and your generosity impacts lives. Your gift supports seminarians during their formation and discernment of the vocation to priesthood. There are four pillars of priestly formation that guide the development toward ordination. They are: human, spiritual, intellectual and pastoral. During formation, seminarians minister to the community by serving the people of God. Our seminarians are answering God's call and they are the vital leadership for the future of our Church.

Use the Seminarian Collection envelope or the blue “special collection” envelopes and write “Seminarians” on the envelope.

Prayer for Vocations

GOD OUR FATHER, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

CATECHISM of the CATHOLIC CHURCH

Catechism Corner

"Christians are called to be the light of the world."

2466 In Jesus Christ, the whole of God's truth has been made manifest. "Full of grace and truth," he came as the "light of the world," he is the Truth. "Whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness." The disciple of Jesus continues in his word so as to know "the truth [that] will make you free" and that sanctifies. To follow Jesus is to live in "the Spirit of truth," whom the Father sends in his name and who leads "into all the truth." To his disciples Jesus teaches the unconditional love of truth: "Let what you say be simply 'Yes or No.'"

How can we pray for you? Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. We will pray for each specific intention that you submit.

St. Peter Canisius, Priest & Doctor

St. Peter Canisius (1521-1597) is sometimes called "the second apostle of Germany." He is a very important person in the Catholic Counter Reformation which followed the sixteenth century Council of Trent, several sessions of which he had attended.

Born in Nijmegen in the Netherlands, he entered the Society of Jesus after studying at Cologne and Louvain. He was ordained a priest in 1546 and was first given a teaching assignment. As he was noted for his preaching, Duke William of Bavaria asked that he be sent to Germany to revive Catholicism. A popular and eloquent preacher, he zealously defended the Faith, authored a simple catechism, taught and established colleges and seminaries. His influence was widespread and lasting.

Prior to his assignment to Germany, St. Peter Canisius tells of a spiritual experience. After acknowledging his acceptance of that mission, he continued:

"At length, it was as if you opened to me the heart in your most sacred body; I seemed to see it directly before my eyes. You told me to drink from this fountain, inviting me, that is, to draw the waters of salvation from your wellsprings, my Savior. I was most eager that streams of faith, hope and love should flow into me from that source. I was thirsting for poverty, chastity, obedience. I asked to be clothed, to be wholly cleaned by you, to be made resplendent by you.

"So, after daring to approach your most loving heart and to plunge my thirst in it, I received a promise from you of a garment made of three parts: "these were to cover my soul in its nakedness, and to belong especially to my religious profession. They were peace, love and perseverance. Protected by this garment of salvation, I was confident that I would lack nothing, but all would succeed and give you glory." (Cf. 2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

St. Peter Canisius was canonized in 1925 and declared a Doctor of the Church. The Antiphon in the Benedictus (Morning Prayer) reads: "Those who are learned will be as radiant as the sky in all its beauty; those who instruct the people in goodness will shine like the stars for all eternity."

SAVE YOUR MARRIAGE

If your marriage has become troubled and stressed, unloving or uncaring; if you have grown cold and distant; even if you are divorced or separated, or are thinking about it, Retrouvaille can help, as it has helped thousands of others. Our next program begins January 31st – Feb 2nd 2025 in Winter Park. For more information call 352-274-4614. All calls and names held in strictest confidence. Please see our website at www.Retrouvaille.org.

Chalk and prayer cards are available to take home this weekend. One per family please.

CHALKING THE DOOR The Epiphany House Blessing

"Chalking the door" is a centuries-old custom in which Christians gather on the feast of the Epiphany to ask God's blessing on their home. A traditional way of doing this is to take a piece of blessed chalk and inscribe above the entrance door to the home.

20+C+M+B+25

The "20" and "25" refer to the actual year. The "+" between the letters symbolizes the cross of Christ.

The "C M B" initials have two meanings:

- 1. The initials represent the three Magi: Casper, Melchior and Balthazar.*
- 2. Also, the initials abbreviate the Latin "Christus Mansionem Benedict" (May Christ bless this house).*

*Blessing the Home on Epiphany
God of Light, bless our home. Make it a haven of rest for all in need of your warmth and care. And when we go out from this place, may we never lose sight of Christ's light. We mark our door with the symbol of blessing:*

20+C+M+B+25

May all who enter, through the year, find love and light; for Christ has come to dwell in this home and in these hearts.

Amen.

St. Vincent DePaul Society November Impact Report

There is no doubt that the material support we offer to the neighbor is important. It is important to eat, but it leaves you hungry again. It is important to pay the rent, but the bill comes due again next month. God's love is eternal, and our first responsibility in serving the poor is to do so for love alone, in the hope that through our caring "the poor may catch a glimpse of God's great love for them."
"Vincentians visit not merely to drop off groceries or pay a bill, but to form relationships based on trust and friendship. Our visiting, our encouragement, and our prayers serve most importantly to bring true hope. Please consider joining with us on the first and third Wednesday of the month at 7pm in the St. Gabriel Life Center. Or, email us at: svdp@annunciationorlando.org.

MARY
QUEEN OF THE UNIVERSE
— ORLANDO —

The Universal Church celebrates the Jubilee Year 2025 - the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord.

Pope Francis stated in his February 2022 letter announcing the Jubilee 2025: "We must fan the flame of hope that has been given us and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart and far-sighted vision. The forthcoming Jubilee can contribute greatly to restoring a climate of hope and trust as a prelude to the renewal and rebirth that we so urgently desire..."

Visit www.annunciationorlando.org/hope for more resources and updates on Diocese wide events.

The opening of the Holy Door

The opening of the Holy Door by the Pope marks the beginning of the Jubilee. The Holy Year of 2025 includes this ritual, followed by the celebration of Holy Mass on Christmas Eve inside St. Peter's Basilica. The inner wall sealing the Holy Door was recently dismantled, and the metal box containing the key to open the door was retrieved. The Pope symbolically pushes the door open, while the traditional use of a hammer to strike the brick seal on the outside has been discontinued for safety reasons. After the ceremony, the door remains open for the entire year to allow pilgrims to pass through. This gesture signifies a complete experience of the indulgence associated with the Holy Year.

Crossing this threshold also symbolizes the journey of conversion, sealed by the encounter with Christ, the "door", uniting us with the Father. The Jubilees are part of a profound history of faith that opens its doors to the world—a journey in which the steps of the Pontiff join those of the people of God, along the paths of forgiveness.

Friday Morning Scripture Group

Join us every Friday Morning from 10:30am - 12noon in the St. Gabriel Life Center. We gather each week to learn our faith history, through the story of each Sunday's readings. As we read, reflect and pray, we ask by whom, to whom, where, and why were they written? Why are we reading this on this Sunday? What does it mean for us? For more information please contact Janine Jack at 407-333-2136
