The Universal Church celebrates the Jubilee Year 2025 - the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord.

Pope Francis stated in his February 2022 letter announcing the Jubilee 2025: "We must fan the flame of hope that has been given us and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart and far-sighted vision. The forthcoming Jubilee can contribute greatly to restoring a climate of hope and trust as a prelude to the renewal and rebirth that we so urgently desire..."

Human trafficking Outreach Ministry & Education

January is Human Trafficking Awareness Month. Please pray with us.

Prayer to End Human Trafficking

Loving Father,
We seek your divine protection for all who are exploited and enslaved.
For those forced into labor, trafficked, and denied freedom.
We beseech you to release them from their chains.
Grant them protection, safety, and empowerment.
Restore their dignity and provide them a new beginning.
Show us how we might end exploitation by addressing its causes.
Help us reach out in support of victims and survivors of human trafficking.
Make us instruments of your spirit for their liberation.
For this we pray through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." I often think and wonder in the deepest interior of my being, like so many of the famous holy people in the gospels, who am I? Who am I that the Lord should come to me? Who am I that the Mother of our Lord should come to me? At first, the seriousness and painful reality of my own human brokenness bubbles up. The acts of my own sinfulness, the helplessness I encounter when I seek to control certain outcomes and the true weakness I encounter in truly being limited in what I can know and what I can really accomplish surfaces to the forefront and smacks me right in the face. I encounter the unfortunate, unpleasant bitter taste of my own impoverished poverty, my own unrealistic self-worth and the false selfish hopes and unrealistic expectations of those unwanted circumstances I place myself into or allow others to do to me or for me. Why give that kind of power, permission and control to myself or to others? Then in all that sadness, happy thoughts from the Lord displace the unhappy thoughts of my past mistakes, the unpleasant aches of present moments and the worries, concerns and the confusion of those things and situations that might be, might become or may never happen. God reminds me of his great love that is eternal and the unchanging choice he made to create, redeem and sustain me. He reminds us all of his divine mercy, his unwavering care, his desire to forgive and his hope for eternal peace. God never abandons us, criticizes us, diminishes us or makes us feel unwanted, unloved, not necessary or unworthy. Who we are is not for us to determine. God has determined that who we are has to do with everything of who God is: made very good, created in his sacred image and patterned after the likeness of his own beauty, goodness, kindness and truth. "Who we are", is simply reflected in who God created us to be - his beloved worthy children. All God does and continues to do is to make us understand and realize we are worthy of his promises because he has done so. He will always be our Almighty God and our Heavenly Father and we will always be worthy to say we are his poor beloved children. God gives us poor sinners the privilege to come into his presence and our Mother Mary to pray that we may be made worthy of his promises.

Catechism Corner

"On this way of perfection, the Spirit and the Bride call whoever hears to perfect communion with God"

2550 There will true glory be, where no one will be praised by mistake or flattery; true honor will not be refused to the worthy, nor granted to the unworthy; likewise, no one unworthy will pretend to be worthy, where only those who are worthy will be admitted. There true peace will reign, where no one will experience opposition either from self or others. God himself will be virtue's reward; he gives virtue and has promised to give himself as the best and greatest reward that could exist. . . . "I shall be their God and they will be my people. . . ." This is also the meaning of the Apostle's words: "So that God may be all in all." God himself will be the goal of our desires; we shall contemplate him without end, love him without surfeit, praise him without weariness. This gift, this state, this act, like eternal life itself, will assuredly be common to all.

St. Anthony, Abbot

"Seeing the kind of life he lived, the villagers and all the good men he knew called him the friend of God, and loved him as both son and brother." We read these words from the Life of St. Anthony by St. Athanasius in the Office of Readings.

What we know of St. Anthony (or Antony, 251-356) is from St. Athanasius. Born in Egypt, he is honored as the founder of monasticism. St. Athanasius wrote about St. Anthony's life shortly after his death, writing that "you also, once you have heard the story, will not merely admire the man, but will wish to emulate his resolution, as well." Athanasius presents a model of a life consecrated to God. St. Augustine in his Confessions tells us that the book had a decisive influence on his own conversion and on the vocations of others to the monastic life.

At age of 20, he took literally the Gospel injunction to sell what he had and give it to the poor. For the next 85 years, he lived an austere, ascetical life, devoting himself to prayer, and reading the scriptures. He did manual labor to earn his food, and gave any excess he had to the poor.

Though he preferred solitude, he took time to give guidance and instructions to the many who lived an ascetical life in the desert. He organized them into monasteries, laying the foundation for monasticism.

Another great desire of Anthony's was to be a martyr, but he failed to obtain this grace. Athanasius tells us that he then "went back to his solitary cell; and there he was a daily martyr to his conscience, ever fighting the battles of the faith. For he practiced a zealous and more intense ascetical life." For Anthony, the monk was the successor to the martyr. St. Anthony died in solitude at the age of 105.

He had renounced the world to serve God in the solitude of the desert and was "called the friend of God." We ask through his intercession the grace to keep in proper perspective the material things we have and to live in a spirit of detachment from them through self-denial. We also ask for the grace to understand the love of God above all things.

Isabella Donna Veronica Vella
WILL BE CONSECRATED AS
Bride of Our Lord Jesus Christ

It is with joy and thanksgiving that His Excellency, Most Reverend John Noonan and the Church of the Diocese of Orlando request the honor of your presence at the solemn Mass of Consecration to the life of virginity in which Isabella Vella will be consecrated as a bride of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Join us Tuesday, Jan. 21, Noon-1p, at Most Precious Blood Parish, 113 Lockwood Blvd., Oviedo. Vella is the fourth woman to be consecrated to virginity in the Diocese of Orlando. A consecrated virgin is a woman who has been consecrated by the church to a life of perpetual virginity as a bride of Christ. Consecrated virgins spend their time in works of penance and mercy, in apostolic activity and prayer, according to their state of life and spiritual gifts.

December Impact Report

There is no doubt that the material support we offer to the neighbor is important. It is important to eat, but it leaves you hungry again. It is important to pay the rent, but the bill comes due again next month. God's love is eternal, and our first responsibility in serving the poor is to do so for love alone, in the hope that through our caring "the poor may catch a glimpse of God's great love for them."

"Vincentians visit not merely to drop off groceries or pay a bill, but to form relationships based on trust and friendship. Our visiting, our encouragement, and our prayers serve most importantly to bring true hope. Please consider joining with us on the first and third Wednesday of the month at 7pm in the St. Gabriel Life Center. Or, email us at: svdp@annunciationorlando.org.

Our affiliation is comprised of a network of five Circles. Members are spiritual, supportive, and very dedicated in giving their time, talent, and treasure to serve God through helping the less fortunate in our community and supporting the needs of our Parish.

Circles allow women the opportunity to join ACCW based on their schedules and commitments. Each month, two Circles meet in the morning, two in the evening, and one alternates months between day & evening. Each Circle sponsors a fundraiser to individually support non-profit organizations in our area.

Let us give you the opportunity to serve God in friendship with spiritual, dedicated, and supportive women to affect the needs of many in our Parish, community, and beyond.
