

*Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD,
whose hope is the LORD.*

He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream: it fears not the heat when it comes;
its leaves stay green; in the year of drought it shows no distress, but still bears fruit. Jeremiah 17:7-8

BELOVED PEOPLE OF GOD:

My hope is burning: I trust in the Lord! Our Holy Father, Pope Francis announced this year as a Jubilee Year, a special gift of grace calling us to be a leaven of God's hope.

Hope, together with faith and charity express the heart of the Christian life. Surely we "abound in hope", so that we may bear credible and tender witness to the faith and love that dwell in our hearts; that our faith may be joyful and our charity enthusiastic; and that each of us may be able to offer a smile, a small gesture of friendship, a kind look, a ready ear, a good deed, in the knowledge that, in the Spirit of Jesus, these can become, for those who receive them, rich seeds of hope.

The ministries funded by Our Catholic Appeal are rich seeds building upon the hope offered through the Lord. These ministries introduce us to God; teach us the beauty of the gift of life; nurture the bonds of God and family; open the heart of God to our brothers and sisters who live in our neighborhood; fill our spirit with joy as we proclaim the Gospel through our word and deed; and enrich our soul with God's Eucharistic feast. The ministries funded by Our Catholic Appeal are the outreach of hope in the Lord opening our eyes to God's wisdom, for we no longer look at the world with eyes of earthly desires. Rather, we see with the perspective of God. They are the hope of God transcending the earth as we arise and settle His goodness through all our days.

I invite you to participate in Our Catholic Appeal. Our collective stewardship sustains the gifts of priesthood through Vocations and Clergy Care; forms our permanent deacons to satisfy the hunger of the people; teaches us to pray and sing within God's liturgy; leads our young people to know and serve God; offers mercy and sustenance to the meek and lowly; sanctifies the dying and buries the dead; keeps us safe as we walk the sacred ground of parishes and missions; and communicates God's essential Word through all forms of media that all might also hear God's Word. Your gracious gifts presented before God stretch the roots of God's love to more than 400,000 Catholics who live within the Diocese of Orlando.

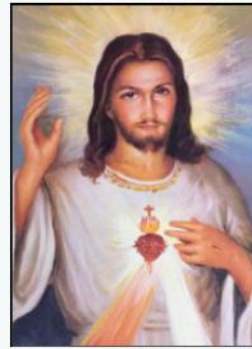

My hope is burning: I trust in the Lord! Jesus invites us to anoint each day with His hope by receiving the Eucharist and offer Him to each other.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John Noonan
Bishop of Orlando

REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

"Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is the LORD." Trust is such a big thing to ask. It is a privilege, sacred, a blessed grace. Trust in human terms is such a huge responsibility. To ask a person too blindly or too simply trust you simply because you say so. What a tall order to ask an individual. Not to worry about or be concerned about what you will possibly say or do without really knowing the outcome or how you will or might commit us to do something or live with something that might be unethical, immoral, a lie or illegal because you simply ask us to put our trust in you. To have faith in that all will be okay, taken care of, satisfactorily resolved without cheating, stealing or hurting another but by simply trusting and not questioning you when you say "trust me, all will be okay." That is such a big thing to ask of a person. Not because you cannot be trusted but because our trust has been shattered and broken so often. So many times by people who told us to trust them. Quite honestly, I shudder and shake at the thought of trusting a person at face value and doing so with such blind faith and without further inquiry. Trust because you say so. I tremble at the words, "just trust me." Honestly, they do not settle well with me. Seriously, I cannot even trust myself, tempted so often with poor judgements, lies and untruths, so many misconceptions, terrible bad memories, mistrust at so many levels and broken promises that so many individuals never intended to keep. When trust is shattered in a million pieces, healing seems an impossibility. God must bring restoration and slow healing. We need the Lord, our Divine Physician and tender surgeon, to perform reconstructive surgery to our hearts to heal our faith and trust once again. Healing is ever so slow. It requires a bridge of healing to construct and build what took one moment or incident to destroy but what will feel like so many centuries before one can begin to heal and trust again. I trust in Jesus. I trust in God. I trust in Mary. As a family, I have never been let down. Actually, they can always be trusted because they have never lied and have always kept their promises. God says do not be afraid, have faith, believe, hope in the Lord. He is trustworthy and can be trusted with the truth, always.

Catechism Corner

"By hope we desire, and with steadfast trust await from God, eternal life and the graces to merit it."

397 Man, tempted by the devil, let his trust in his Creator die in his heart and, abusing his freedom, disobeyed God's command. This is what man's first sin consisted of. All subsequent sin would be disobedience toward God and lack of trust in his goodness.

Words to Live By

My soul, give thanks to the Lord and never forget all his blessings. It is he who forgives all your guilt, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with love and compassion, who fills your life with good things.

St. Jerome Emiliani, Priest – February 8th

St. Jerome Emiliani (1481-1537) who was from Venice, Italy, chose a military career and lived a rather careless and carefree life. He was captured in battle and cruelly imprisoned in chains. During that time he learned to pray, and resolved to reform his life. After escaping he went to Treviso and became mayor of that town, but soon returned to Venice and sought ordination to the priesthood. That goal he achieved in 1518, when he was 37 years old.

Outbreaks of the plague were endemic in northern Italy during the late 15th, and the 16th centuries, and like many religious individuals, Jerome began to care for the sick and the poor. He took a particular interest in orphaned children, eventually founding a religious institute to do this work and to educate the young abandoned youth. St. Jerome Emiliani, "father and friend of orphans," (Collect of his mass) died as a result of illness contracted while caring for the sick and the poor.

The Church, in the tradition of the ancient prophets, has always been dedicated to the poor and the needy in the manner of St. Jerome Emiliani. In that tradition the Church continues to urge us to be conscious of this mission:

"You hear rising up more pressing than ever, from their personal distress and collective misery, "the cry of the poor." Was it not in order to respond to their appeal as God's privileged ones that Christ came, even going as far as to identify himself with them?" (Evangelica Testificatio, n. 17).

This is an exhortation addressed to religious but is significant for all. The point of reference is the Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, nos. 63ff, which deals with economic and social life.

The World Synod of Bishops in 1971 also stated in "Justice in the World," that "we must be prepared to take on new functions and new duties in every sector of world society, if justice is really to be put into practice...." Our action is to be on behalf most especially of the "silent, indeed voiceless, victims of injustice."

Our dedication to the poor after the manner of the saints is demanding and to give ourselves to it St. Jerome Emiliani tells us "to place our trust in God and in no one else. God does not work in those who refuse to place all their confidence and hope in Him alone. But he does impart the fullness of his love upon those who possess a deep faith and hope; for them he does great things. If then you remain constant in faith in the face of trials, the Lord will give you peace and rest for a time in this world, and forever in the next." (From a letter to his brothers)

Our eighth-grade students put their hearts and hands to work, creating blankets to gift to Our Legacy, an organization dedicated to saving and improving lives through organ and tissue donation. As Catholics, we recognize organ donation as a noble and meritorious act - a beautiful expression of generous solidarity (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2296).

Through this project, our students not only provided warmth and comfort but also honored the selfless donors and their families who make the gift of life possible.

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS The Largest Catholic Men's Organization in the United States.

We are Catholic men building a bridge back to faith. There is much work to be done in this world. And that's what the Knights do every day. Assisting the sick and disabled and protecting those who can't protect themselves. Whether they are next door or halfway around the world. This is the journey we are on. We do it to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors and Catholics. We invest our time, our effort, and our resources into our values: Charity. Unity. Fraternity. Patriotism. We come from many places, backgrounds, and stages in our lives but we are all of one faith. A fraternity of men striving to better our world and ourselves. It's one thing to say who you are - It's another to live it. To put your values into action. That's what we do at the Knights of Columbus. That's who we are.

The Universal Church celebrates the Jubilee Year 2025 - the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord.

Visit www.annunciationorlando.org/hope for more resources, links to information about the Plenary Indulgence and updates on Diocesan wide events.

Did you know that Plenary Indulgences are available during this Jubilee Year? What is an indulgence?

Even though confessed and forgiven sins will not send a person to hell, consequences remain to be paid on earth or in purgatory. An indulgence frees the recipient from those consequences. Reception of an indulgence always springs from sincere repentance, the desire to live a holy life, reception of the sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion as soon as possible and prayer for the Holy Father. An indulgence cannot be bought, nor can one be obtained by going through the motions without sincerity.

A partial indulgence covers part of the punishment due for sins; a plenary indulgence removes all of it. Both kinds of indulgence come from the merits of Jesus, the Blessed Mother and the saints. These "merits" are the opposite of "demerits." They are spiritual fruits accumulated through holy living. To grant indulgences, the Church draws on a great treasury of merits: the infinite value of Christ's Passion, death and Resurrection, and the prayers and good works of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the saints – including all of those on earth who live holy lives.

This year, the faithful, 'pilgrims of hope', will be able to obtain the indulgence by undertaking a pilgrimage to any sacred Jubilee site, to at least one of the four Major Papal Basilicas of Rome, to the Holy Land or to other designated ecclesiastical sites, and taking part in a moment of prayer, a liturgical celebration or celebrating the sacrament of reconciliation. The indulgence can also be obtained by 'devoutly visiting any Jubilee site' and taking part in Eucharistic adoration or meditation, concluding with the Our Father, the Profession of Faith, and appropriate invocations to Mary.

Another way to obtain indulgence will be through 'works of mercy and penance', with which a person's conversion is manifested. The faithful 'following the example and mandate of Christ', are encouraged to carry out works of charity or mercy more frequently, mainly in the service of those brothers and sisters who are burdened by various needs. Likewise, they may obtain the indulgence by visiting those 'who are in need or difficulty (the sick, prisoners, the lonely elderly, the disabled...)', 'in a sense making a pilgrimage to Christ present in them.'

The 'penitential spirit', notes the Norms, is 'the soul of the Jubilee' and therefore the indulgence can also be obtained by 'abstaining, in a spirit of penance, at least for one day of the week from futile distractions (real but also virtual distractions), from superfluous consumption as well as by donating a proportionate sum of money to the poor; by supporting works of a religious or social nature, especially in support of the defense and protection of life in all its phases.'

We have three Sacred Jubilee Sites in the Diocese of Orlando:

- St. James Cathedral,
- Basilica National Shrine Mary Queen of the Universe
- St. Paul Basilica in Daytona.

If you visit one of these sites or others around the world, send us a photo by the designated door. Just email sstafstrom@annunciationorlando.org

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom. May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally. May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen
