REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?” Lord, with a deep sense of humility and with an honest honesty, but at the same time with a deep respect for reverence and in all sincerity, we humbly acknowledge and relate to you the place, that deep emotional place deep inside our broken humanity that yearns for freedom, seeks redemption, and needs relief from a suffering humanity. Until then, we continue to experience daily hurts and fatigues. We suffer on-going pain from the wounds of others, the pain from our own selfish pride and the selfish pride of others. We even experience a constant fear in an act of contrition, fearing the loss of heaven and the pains of hell. We also seriously dread the fear of humiliation, being vulnerable, exposing our weaknesses and appearing weak to others. We suffer a suffering humanity that grievously suffers the darkened effects of sin in our daily duties, throughout the ages past, throughout our insignificant lifetime until the dawning of the fullness of salvation and our immediate entrance into the kingdom and presence of God. We suffer the continued daily effects of selfish lies, greedy personas, personal jealousy and the lust of original sin. Plagued by the sins of our fathers, the sins of our mothers, and the sins of family, friends and foes as well, we feel abandoned, neglected, tossed to the side and simply left behind with no sense of help insight. We experience our own helplessness and that of humanity as well. A call of hopelessness that falls on deaf ears. A cry for salvation to unreceptive hearts. A search for mercy from a fearful person rather than a trust from a faithful person. The effects of this dreadful, needless fear still sadly plagues and affects us today in being transmitted and handed down from one generation to the next, from Adam and Eve into our immediate families, throughout our surrounding communities and into the people yet to come. We feel a deep sense of abandonment. We experience hurt and mistrust. We worry about loneliness and wonder if anyone really cares or is really listening. We wonder does God really care. Will he come to save us or are we on our own? Jesus' cry of abandonment is our cry, the cry of a fearful, untrusting humanity. His cry to become our cry is a reminder that God loves us and always listens to us. He has truly forgiven us and will always provide for us. He will never abandon us. He is faithful forever.

The Veneration and Adoration of the Cross on Good Friday

The Veneration and Adoration of the Cross on Good Friday

One of the Church's most treasured liturgical traditions is the adoration of the Cross at the Liturgy of the Passion of the Lord on Good Friday. Most of us will have memories of individual veneration, kissing or touching the wood of the Cross, but where there is a large congregation the Church has foreseen that there is a real practical problem - a lengthy time of veneration destroys the integrity of a beautiful and balanced liturgy which is about the Lord, not about us. The Roman Missal instructs: "If, because of the large number of people, it is not possible for all to approach individually", the Priest is to take the Cross, stand in the middle, and invite the people all together to adore the Holy Cross in silence. Once again, we will adore the cross together at Annunciation, precisely as happens at Saint Peter's in Rome; all simply kneel at their places for a brief time of adoration. However, as the Missal says, at the end of the ceremony "the Cross remains" and when the clergy have departed in silence, you will be able to come and venerate the sacred wood. The church building will stay open until 5:30pm.

Holy Saturday Blessing of the Food - 12pm

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the OCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program. Classes will begin Thursday, April 24th at 7pm in the Nazareth Center

TO FIND OUT MORE: Contact Mary Ann Fox at mfox@annunciationorlando.org or 407-869-9472. The next Adult Confirmation date is on Sunday, June 8th at St. James Cathedral.

Words to Live By

"My son, do not forget my teaching, take to heart my commands; For many days, and years of life, and peace, will they bring you. Do not let love and fidelity forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.

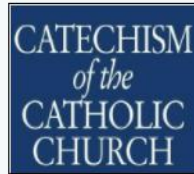

Then will you win favor and esteem before God and human beings. Trust in the LORD with all your heart, on your own intelligence do not rely; in all your ways be mindful of him, and he will make straight your paths. Do not be wise in your own eyes, fear the LORD and turn away from evil."

Proverbs 3:1-7

Catechism Corner

"After his fall, man was not abandoned by God."

55 This revelation was not broken off by our first parents' sin. "After the fall, [God] buoyed them up with the hope of salvation, by promising redemption; and he has never ceased to show his solicitude for the human race. For he wishes to give eternal life to all those who seek salvation by patience in well-doing." "Even when he disobeyed you and lost your friendship you did not abandon him to the power of death. Again and again you offered a covenant to man."

St. John Baptist de la Salle, Priest – April 7th

Complete dedication to what he saw as God’s will for him dominated the life of John Baptist de la Salle. In 1950, Pope Pius XII named him patron of schoolteachers for his efforts in upgrading school instruction. As a young seventeenth century Frenchman, John had everything going for him: scholarly bent, good looks, noble family background, money and a refined upbringing.

At the early age of eleven, he received the tonsure and started preparation for the priesthood, to which he was ordained at twenty-seven. He seemed assured then of a life of dignified ease and a high position in the church. But God had other plans for John, which were gradually revealed to him in the next several years. During a chance meeting with M. Nyel of Raven, he became interested in the creation of schools for poor boys in Raven, where he was stationed. Though the work was extremely distasteful to him at first, he became more involved in working with the deprived youths.

Once convinced that this was his divinely appointed mission, John threw himself wholeheartedly into the work, left home and family, abandoned his position as canon at Rheims, gave away his fortune and reduced himself to the level of the poor to whom he devoted his entire life.

The remainder of his life was closely entwined with the community of religious men he founded, the Brothers of the Christian School (Christian Brothers, or De La Salle Brothers). This community grew rapidly and was successful in educating boys of poor families using methods designed by John, preparing teachers in the first training college for teachers and also setting up homes and schools for young delinquents of wealthy families. The motivating element in all these endeavors was the desire to become a good Christian.

Yet even in his success, John did not escape experiencing many trials: heartrending disappointments and defections among his disciples, bitter opposition from the secular schoolmasters who resented his new and fruitful methods and persistent opposition from the Jansenists of his time, whose heretical doctrines John resisted vehemently all his life. Afflicted with asthma and rheumatism in his last years, he died on Good Friday at age sixty-eight and was canonized in 1900.

Complete dedication to one’s calling by God, whatever it may be, is a rare quality. Jesus asks us to “love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.” (Mark 12: 30b). Paul gives similar advice: “Whatever you do, do from the heart.” (Col. 3:23).

“What is nobler than to mold the character of the young? I consider that he who knows how to form the youthful mind is truly greater than all painters, sculptors and all others of that sort.” (St. John Chrysostom).
