REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power.” Perhaps one of the easiest and simplest ways to define sin is simply to acknowledge and state that it simply is a misuse of power. Certainly, sin is evil and doing evil is a sin. It is a misuse of power created and meant to share in the beauty and goodness of God. Power to exist, to live, to be, to share purely and truthfully in the life and love of God. Power in this light or rather in darkness focuses on self, seeking selfish reasons to satisfy the self selfishly. Rather than utilizing the power in a good way or as intended, we use power as a means of achieving accomplishments at the expense of others, seeking recognition at any cost and desiring and lusting over material success without considering or willing the good of another. We misuse the power God has freely provided and given as a natural gift to assist others in their time of need. Power that can provide food and sustenance to improvised peoples or communities. Power that can really, truly bring glad tidings to the spiritual poor and material needy. We can use that power to give sight to the blind and provide direction to those who have lost their way. Power to heal and reconcile the brokenhearted, freeing those spiritually imprisoned and setting all who feel captive free. Rather than using this kind of power to provide peace and much needed relief, power is maliciously and selfishly twisted and misdirected from the capability of doing good that is natural to us and naturally for the good of others, we use power to do bad and evil to others which is an unnatural thing to do. Hurting, destroying and starving life rather than protecting, preserving and nourishing it. Jesus has the power to lay down his life and to take it up again. He uses his power only for good. Not for himself but so that others may have the grace and the power to enjoy once again the beauty and goodness of God, which is our greatest and only good. True power exercised correctly, says yes only to the will of God, which is always good for you and for me. True power exercised correctly, says no always to sin, Satan, evil and the devil who always oppose the will of God. Sin is always bad for you and for me. True power exercised correctly, always seeks to avoid evil and do what is righteous. That’s powerful.

Divine Mercy Sunday April 27th

Join us on Sunday, April 27th at 3pm in the Church for a Eucharistic Holy Hour including reflections from Saint Faustina's diary and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy in Song. Confessions will be available from 2 to 3pm. For additional information about Divine Mercy Sunday, please visit www.annunciationorlando.org/divine-mercy

Photos from Palm Sunday

Photos from Tenebrae - It was a beautiful evening. 🙏 Thank you to our choir, readers and clergy.

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the OCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program. Classes will begin Thursday, April 24th at 7pm in the Nazareth Center

TO FIND OUT MORE: Contact Mary Ann Fox at mfox@annunciationorlando.org or 407-869-9472. The next Adult Confirmation date is on Sunday, June 8th at St. James Cathedral.

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper?

Join us for our Open Door Session on Tuesday, May 6th at 7pm. For more information, please contact Mary Ann Fox at 407-869-9472 or mfox@annunciationorlando.org

Due to unforeseen circumstances, Vacation Bible School at Annunciation will not take place this summer.

We appreciate your understanding and support, and we look forward to welcoming your campers back for VBS 2026.

Our ACA NJHS members had the honor of attending the Chrism Mass at the Basilica of the National Shrine of Mary, Queen of the Universe. A powerful and prayerful experience as they witnessed the blessing of holy oils and the unity of our Church. Such a special moment during Holy Week!

We are dedicated to providing high quality day care and early childhood education for children from the age of six weeks to pre-K of registered Annunciation Catholic Church parishioners. We have a loving, dedicated staff of administrators and trained teachers working with the children. We maintain a low student teacher ratio. We believe children will learn best through active participation. We encourage parent's participation through our parent's organization, T.E.A.M. (Together Everyone Achieves More).

Please join us for our upcoming meetings and activities:

- May 1: Picnic and Prayer Meeting at St. Gabriel Life Center at 9:30a.m. Please bring your favorite snack or breakfast item to share! We will pray the Rosary and then let the little ones play outside!

For more information, email us at stannesministry@gmail.com.

St Joseph Men's Group

Join us every Friday morning for Mass at 7am in the Church, followed by great coffee in the St. Gabriel Life Center with a reflection on the readings and prayer. We finish by 8am.

All men of the parish are welcome.

If you have any questions, please contact Scott Stafstrom at 407-869-9472, ssafstrom@annunciationorlando.org

Words to Live By

Be kind to one another, compassionate, and mutually forgiving, just as God has forgiven you in Christ. Be imitators of God as his dear children, follow the way of love, even as Christ loved you. He gave himself for us as an offering to God, a gift of pleasing fragrance.

Ephesians 4:32-5:2

New Beginnings

A ministry of healing and reconciliation to serve the divorced and separated.

Join us on April 28th at 6:30pm as we continue our New Beginnings meetings with Fr. Ivan. RSVP to Jody North for location info at jnorth@annunciationorlando.org

Catechism Corner

"The risen Christ, by giving the Holy Spirit to the apostles, entrusted to them his power of sanctifying: they became sacramental signs of Christ."

1353 In the institution narrative, the power of the words and the action of Christ, and the power of the Holy Spirit, make sacramentally present under the species of bread and wine Christ's body and blood, his sacrifice offered on the cross once for all. In the epiclesis, the Church asks the Father to send his Holy Spirit (or the power of his blessing) on the bread and wine, so that by his power they may become the body and blood of Jesus Christ and so that those who take part in the Eucharist may be one body and one spirit.

St. Martin I, Pope and Martyr – April 1

Known for his learning and piety, St. Martin I was elected pope in the year 649, a time of difficulty. The Church again had to struggle against a new heresy - monotheletism, which denied that Jesus had both a human and a divine will, thus denying that he had two complete and perfect natures.

Martin was vigorous in condemning this error at the Lateran Synod in 649. Infuriated, the Emperor Constans had Martin taken prisoner and brought to Constantinople. Already ill, he was further mistreated and humiliated, condemned and publicly flogged. As a result of all this and more mistreatment in the year 656, he died, the last of the popes to be honored as a martyr.

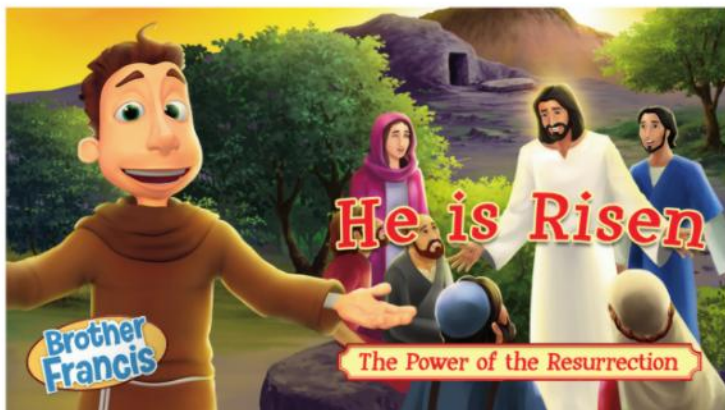

It was a painful time for St. Martin. From his confinement he wrote of his loneliness and expressed his trust in God. "I am writing to you of things which do oppress us. I have been amazed and continue to be amazed at the lack of perception and the callousness of those who were once connected with me, both my friends and my relatives. They have all completely forgotten about my unhappy state, and do not care to know where I am, whether I am alive or dead."

What had distressed Martin was that the Roman church had abandoned him and even elected a successor in his place, Eugene I, who is described as a mild and saintly man. Martin acquiesced, but Eugene proved to be ineffective, although he was revered for his goodness. He died about two years after St. Martin, and Eugene also is honored as a saint. Martin's trust in God and his acquiescence to Eugene's election is expressed in the same letter: "God wishes all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth through the prayers of Peter. Hence I pray that God will strengthen (all) in the orthodox faith, help them to stand firm against every heretic and enemy of the Church, and guard them unshaken. And I ask this especially for their shepherd to Eugene), now designated to be over them, that none may fall or go astray." (Cf. 2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

Today we honor St. Martin I whose faith could not be weakened by "hardship, pain, nor the threat of death," and we ask for "courage to endure whatever sufferings" may be inflicted upon us. (Cf. Collect of Mass).

The Liturgy of the Hours of the Eastern Church pays tribute to St. Martin I: "Glorious definer of the Orthodox faith, sacred chief of divine dogmas, unstained by error, true reprovcr of heresy, foundation of bishops, pillar of the Orthodox Faith, and teacher of religion. Thou didst adorn the divine see of Peter, and since from this divine Rock, thou didst immovably defend the Church, so now thou art glorified with him."

The Boy from Milan | Trailer

You may have heard of him, the sneaker-wearing, computer-loving "gamer saint" of our time. But beyond the headlines and hashtags, the real story of Carlo is something deeper, something the world desperately needs to hear. Known for his deep love of God, devotion to the Eucharist, and quiet acts of charity, Carlo's life was a testament to everyday holiness.
