Fr. Ivan will be leaving Annunciation for a new position beginning on June 1st.

We congratulate Fr. Ivan on his new assignment as Rector of Mary Queen of the Universe Basilica and National Shrine in Orlando, guiding all of the faithful and pilgrims that visit the Shrine. He will continue to serve as our Pastor until then and we will have time to wish him well and thank him for his almost 5 years of dedicated service to this community.

We are grateful to Fr. Ivan for helping us to live our mission during these years and to strive to become a people of great prayer.

We will be welcoming Fr. Matthew Hawkins as our new Pastor.

Father Matthew Hawkins was ordained to the Priesthood on May 26, 2018 at St. James Cathedral in Orlando. He celebrated his first Mass as a priest at Annunciation on May 27, 2018 and was very active at our parish during his time in the Seminary.

Fr. Hawkins served St. James Cathedral as parochial vicar in his first assignment and later as parochial administrator of St. Paul Parish in Leesburg where he became Pastor on December 11, 2022.

We will have more information in the coming weeks.

Please keep all of our priests in your prayers and for the communities that they serve. 🙏

REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“Write on a scroll what you see.” Do you have a journal? If so, do you use it or is it like one of those many books or apps you have or obtained that just sit idle waiting, hoping for that one day for you to open it and use it? Journaling your faith journey becomes your gospel story and the good news you share of how God is operating in your life, how Jesus is transforming your darkness into light, how the Holy Spirit is sanctifying you, healing you and making you holy. Journaling your gospel story and your personal intimate journey with Jesus provides you with the greatest spiritual tool and blessed means to pray intimately with God in such a personal and private way that it becomes ever so life changing. It is not your dear diary or your antisocial dialog with self or the disinterested electronic society or the personal means you utilize public mediums to socially publish your every step or failure or the means you share your every plateau or success or the way you socially mention your every achievement of social or antisocial success or status. The journal is certainly not like an e-scroll where you share moments and perhaps every moment what you are eating, who you are sightseeing or the places you are visiting, visited or plan to see again. In your journaling and prayer, the Lord provides you and offers to you a personal, direct knowledge with you of himself that you may increase in your faith life and grow in the spiritual one. God speaking and directly sharing his self, his vision, his plan with you that you may grow in intimate wisdom and personal understanding of heavenly things, that you may receive a personal revelation of Jesus and pray the way the holy saints of God do. It is not difficult and yes, you have the time. Simply begin by writing what is truly on your heart, acknowledge how you really feel and write, relating it directly in conversation to God. It is interesting to note, how often we recite prayers impersonally or in a disconnected way or pray unwillingly and even verbally lie or make false accusations, harsh judgements or broken promises when we pray to or with God. Journaling on the other hand makes it difficult to write a lie or make a false claim. In the power of the pen, pencil, paper, book or tablet, only the truth comes out so we simply, truthfully write what we see and hear.

Photos from Easter. Thank you to our liturgical ministers, choir, readers and clergy and all who helped welcome everyone to our campus over Holy Week and Easter!

Please continue to pray for our Elect who were welcomed into the Catholic Faith at the Easter Vigil

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the OCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program. Classes have just begun on Thursdays at 7pm in the Nazareth Center

TO FIND OUT MORE: Contact Mary Ann Fox at mfox@annunciationorlando.org or 407-869-9472. The next Adult Confirmation date is on Sunday, June 8th at St. James Cathedral.

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper?

Join us for our Open Door Session on Tuesday, May 6th at 7pm. For more information, please contact Mary Ann Fox at 407-869-9472 or mfox@annunciationorlando.org

Due to unforeseen circumstances, Vacation Bible School at Annunciation will not take place this summer.

We appreciate your understanding and support, and we look forward to welcoming your campers back for VBS 2026.

Words to Live By

"My mercy is greater than your sins and those of the entire world. Who can measure the extent of my goodness? For you I descended from heaven to earth; for you I allowed myself to be nailed to the cross; for you I let my Sacred Heart be pierced with a lance, thus opening wide the source of mercy for you. Come, then, with trust to draw graces from this fountain. I never reject a contrite heart. Your misery has disappeared in the depths of My mercy" (Diary, 1485).

"God is the author of Sacred Scripture because he inspired its human authors; he acts in them and by means of them. He thus gives assurance that their writings teach without error his saving truth."

2705 Meditation is above all a quest. The mind seeks to understand the why and how of the Christian life, in order to adhere and respond to what the Lord is asking. The required attentiveness is difficult to sustain. We are usually helped by books, and Christians do not want for them: the Sacred Scriptures, particularly the Gospels, holy icons, liturgical texts of the day or season, writings of the spiritual fathers, works of spirituality, the great book of creation, and that of history the page on which the "today" of God is written.

Pope Francis - December 17, 1936 - April 21, 2025

Quotes from Pope Francis

Bishop Noonan Letter - Pope Francis

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today, on this Easter Monday, we arise from our rest at the announcement of the death of our Holy Father, Pope Francis. This holy man led us to the core of our faith, the heart of God. His legacy is always to lead us, as Christ does for us, as our Blessed Mother advocates, as all the saints offer, the treasure of God's love. His challenge to us was to seek things from above, not from this earth. Time and time again, he called us to listen to one another, to open our eyes to the dignity and sacredness of each person, to love one another as Jesus loves us. He asked us to be instruments of the Peace of the Lord, not from an earthly view; but from the extraordinary forgiveness which heals wounds and lays to rest sorrows.

Now, as we pray for the repose of his soul, we also ask God to guide us to extend His tender mercy to one another. We pray that we journey as pilgrims of hope in the Lord all our days. May we be transfigured, as Pope Francis prayed, into tireless cultivators of the seed of the Gospel that heaven and earth become one.

Many of you may ask, 'what is next?' I suggest that Pope Francis would say, 'Do not weep for me. Do not delay in the work of the Lord; rather go forth and be Christ to one another.'

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

On Mercy: "A little bit of mercy makes the world less cold and more just."

On Compassion: "Indifference is dangerous, whether innocent or not."

On Faith: "God's love calls us to move beyond fear. We ask God for the courage to put on faith, hope and love as we go out into the world and become the word in body as well as spirit."

On Change: "To be faithful, to be creative, we need to be able to change."

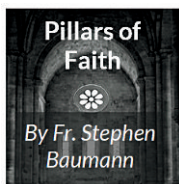

On Service: "The world is crisscrossed by roads that come closer together and move apart, but the important thing is that they lead towards the Good."

On Peace: "Peace is not a product that is bought; it is built day by day with justice, forgiveness, and love."

Novena in Memory of Pope Francis

The entire Church mourns the death of the Holy Father, Pope Francis. In cathedrals, basilicas, parish churches, shrines, and chapels the Holy Eucharist will be offered for the repose of his soul. Communities and individuals will ask God to bestow his infinite mercy on the man who served the Church as Bishop of Rome.

This novena (available at the USCCB website at www.usccb.org/novena-memory-pope-francis) has been prepared to help pray for the Pope during the time of mourning. The daily novena – lasting for the novendiales period from April 26 to May 4, 2025 – consists of a short reading from Scripture or some other ecclesiastical text and some brief prayers, including orations drawn from the Roman Missal and the Order of Christian Funerals.

St. George, Martyr – April 23

That St. George was a martyr in Palestine about the year 303 is a fact; the dragon-slaying is a legend. But the legend has captured the imagination of Christians everywhere. He is a favorite patron of England, and of many other countries, provinces and cities. He is also patron of Catholic Scouting.

St. Peter Damian, an eleventh century Doctor (teacher) of the Church, and a great preacher, managed a sermon about George without facts and without legend. In part, he said:

"St. George was a man who abandoned one army for another: he gave up the rank of tribune in the Roman army to enlist as a soldier of Christ. Eager to encounter the enemy, he first stripped away his worldly wealth, by giving all he had to the poor. Then, free and unencumbered, bearing the shield of faith, he plunged into the thick of battle, an ardent soldier for Christ. Clearly what he did serves to teach us a valuable lesson: if we are afraid to strip ourselves of our worldly possessions, then we are unfit to make a strong defense of the faith."

He continued: "As for St. George, he was consumed with the fire of the Holy Spirit. Armed with the invincible standard of the cross, he did battle with an evil king and acquitted himself so well that, in vanquishing the king, he overcame the prince of all evil spirits, and encouraged other soldiers of Christ to perform brave deeds in his cause..." He continued: "Dear brothers, let us not only admire the courage of this fighter in Heaven's army, but follow his example." (2nd reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

A strong witness for Christ, St. George followed Jesus "in suffering death, so may he be ready to help us in our weakness." (Collect of Mass).
