Fr. Ivan will be leaving Annunciation for a new position beginning on June 1st.

We congratulate Fr. Ivan on his new assignment as Rector of Mary Queen of the Universe Basilica and National Shrine in Orlando, guiding all of the faithful and pilgrims that visit the Shrine. He will continue to serve as our Pastor until then and we will have time to wish him well and thank him for his almost 5 years of dedicated service to this community.

We are grateful to Fr. Ivan for helping us to live our mission during these years and to strive to become a people of great prayer.

Join us on Sunday May 18th in the St. Gabriel Life Center, after the 12pm Mass, to thank Fr. Ivan for his time with us and to wish him well on his next assignment.

We will be welcoming Fr. Matthew Hawkins as our new Pastor.

Father Matthew Hawkins was ordained to the Priesthood on May 26, 2018 at St. James Cathedral in Orlando. He celebrated his first Mass as a priest at Annunciation on May 27, 2018 and was very active at our parish during his time in the Seminary.

Fr. Hawkins served St. James Cathedral as parochial vicar in his first assignment and later as parochial administrator of St. Paul Parish in Leesburg where he became Pastor on December 11, 2022.

We will have more information in the coming weeks.

Please keep all of our priests in your prayers and for the communities that they serve. 🙏

REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

None of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" I think how often our person, our identity, the very source of our being, who we really are, is so often misunderstood, questioned, attacked and quite simply misguided and ever put to the test. Challenged and confronted in so many ways and questioned and threatened so many times by so many of his own people, Jesus faced the opposition's questioning with humility, silence and truth. Those who opposed Jesus constantly questioned his identity and directly challenged his person by asking, "Who are you?" - "Who do you think you are?" Questioning is Satan's favorite tactic and preferred method of distraction. His direct aim in disturbing our peace, stealing our joy and introducing his chaos in order to bring harm and confusion to the beloved children of God and wreak havoc on God's glorious kingdom. We certainly know that feeling. Having to prove your own innocence so many times or regularly having to back up your own words or even constantly having your own faith, values, belief or courage challenged because of the fear and insecurities of others. When we are not certain of our own identity, who we are, who we have become, our broken image of self, the fake personas we have created, the identity crisis we interiorly face and cause, we attack others to justify who we want to be or become. This is our false, negative self. Rather than seeking God's help and assistance to understand and know who we really are, how God wonderfully created us and the joy and freedom of being God's glorious and beloved children, we seek to destroy the identity of another because we are not sure or certain of ourselves who we are called to become. How often for lack of control or fear of being revealed, unmasked, or properly identified as a fraud, does the darkness of our own wounds directly target and question the innocence of Jesus or that of his beloved disciples in order to feed our unfortunate sinful weakness, in order to lower the esteem of another. Our broken self-image starves our good name and our good nature then seeks to hurt and harm the good portrait of another in order to feed our own sinfulness and relieve the hurt of our own painful brokenness. Knowing Jesus personally, directly and intimately is God's reflection of who we really are and meant to become. Jesus truly knows who he really is even if others continue to keep questioning him. He also really knows you.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

Are you an adult who has not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

For most of us, the Sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated when we were either in junior high or in high school. For those adults in the OCIA, their Confirmation is celebrated when they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. But, for a variety of reasons, many adult Catholics have not yet been confirmed.

THIS INVITATION IS FOR YOU!

If you are 19 years of age, have been baptized Catholic and have made your First Communion, but have not been confirmed, we invite you to begin a preparation program. Classes have just begun on Thursdays at 7pm in the Nazareth Center

TO FIND OUT MORE: Contact Mary Ann Fox at mfox@annunciationorlando.org or 407-869-9472. The next Adult Confirmation date is on Sunday, June 8th at St. James Cathedral.

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

Have you been away from the Church... or do you just want to learn more about your faith? Were you raised in another faith or maybe not raised in any faith, but feel called to something deeper? Join us for our Open Door Session on Tuesday, May 6th at 7pm in the Nazareth Center. For more information, please contact Mary Ann Fox at 407-869-9472 or mfox@annunciationorlando.org

Words to Live By

"Those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a spirit of adoption, through which we cry, "Abba, Father!" The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..."

Romans 8:14-17

How can we pray for you?

Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. We will pray for each specific intention that you submit.

Catechism Corner

Man is predestined to reproduce the image of God's Son made man, the "image of the invisible God."

1701 "Christ, . . . in the very revelation of the mystery of the Father and of his love, makes man fully manifest to himself and brings to light his exalted vocation." It is in Christ, "the image of the invisible God," that man has been created "in the image and likeness" of the Creator. It is in Christ, Redeemer and Savior, that the divine image, disfigured in man by the first sin, has been restored to its original beauty and ennobled by the grace of God.

Celebrate the Month of Mary by joining us for this beautiful evening of prayer.

Novena in Memory of Pope Francis

The Final Day of the Novena on May 4th

Day 9 - Successor to the Apostle Peter

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

A reading from a letter to the Corinthians by Pope Saint Clement I.

Having received their orders, the Apostles went out, fully convinced by the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, trusting the word of God, and assured by the Holy Spirit. They went out proclaiming that the Kingdom of God was at hand throughout the countryside and in the cities. They tested in the Spirit the first fruits of their preaching, and appointed them to be bishops and deacons for those who would later come to believe... Our Apostles knew also, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that there would be strife over the office of the episcopate. And so with perfect foresight, when they ordained those men, the Apostles gave them the mandate that when they pass away other proven men should succeed them in their ministry. (42:3-4; 44:1-2)

Pause for silent prayer.

Pray one Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.
— And let perpetual light shine upon him.

Hear with favor our prayers,
which we humbly offer, O Lord,
for the salvation of the soul of Francis, your servant and Priest,
that he, who devoted a faithful ministry to your name,
may rejoice in the perpetual company of your Saints.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, eternal shepherd,
who govern your flock with
unfailing care,
grant in your boundless fatherly love
a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness
and to us show watchful care.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the
unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

St. Fidelis of Sigmaringen, Priest & Martyr – April 24

Born in 1578, Fidelis studied law and throughout his practice took the cases of the poor and oppressed. After several years of frustration because of injustices, he abandoned his law career and entered the Capuchin Franciscans. Then he began a life of prayer and austere penances.

After his ordination to the priesthood he devoted his efforts to preaching and to counteract heresy in Germany and Switzerland. He also confirmed his care of the sick and poor. While he was preaching in 1622, an attempt was made on his life, but he was uninjured. Later the same day he was attacked on his way home and murdered when he refused to denounce his faith. He was 46 years old. The first fruits of his martyrdom was the conversion of a Zwinglian (Protestant) minister who witnessed his death. Fidelis was canonized in 1746.

In the sermon at his canonization, Pope Benedict XIV said: "Fidelis practiced the fullness of charity in bringing consolation and relief to his neighbors as well as to strangers. With a father's love he embraced all those who were in trouble. He was always helping prisoners in their spiritual and bodily needs. He showed constant zeal in visiting and comforting the sick. He was faithful in truth as well as in name. His zeal for defending the Catholic faith was unsurpassed and he preached it tirelessly."

Pope St. John Paul II, at the beatification of the English martyrs (November 22, 1987) said words that are equally appropriate for St. Fidelis of Sigmaringen: "A martyr is a person who, like Christ, bears witness to the truth. Still more, he or she is a person who bears witness to Christ Himself who is the fullness of truth."
