Fr. Ivan will be leaving Annunciation for a new position beginning on June 1st.

We congratulate Fr. Ivan on his new assignment as Rector of Mary Queen of the Universe Basilica and National Shrine in Orlando, guiding all of the faithful and pilgrims that visit the Shrine. He will continue to serve as our Pastor until then and we will have time to wish him well and thank him for his almost 5 years of dedicated service to this community. We are grateful to Fr. Ivan for helping us to live our mission during these years and to strive to become a people of great prayer.

REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

“The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.” Have you ever experienced authentic joy? That kind of joy that is real and true joy. The kind of authentic joy that simply comes deep from within? The kind of authentic joy John the Baptist displayed in his mother’s womb upon hearing the greeting of Mary’s sweet voice and upon nearing the real presence of the Lord in the holy tabernacle of Mary’s holy body and Immaculate Heart. The kind of authentic joy Mary sang in her beautiful hymn and song of Magnificat responding with great authentic joy of being the lowly handmaid and the Mother of our Lord. The kind of authentic joy that caused the disciples to leap for great joy in knowing they were found worthy to suffer imprisonment and endure harsh words and threats from local and religious authorities for proclaiming Jesus Christ crucified and risen from the dead. Authentic joy is the kind of joy that is real. It is not fake or plastic and cannot be masked or covered over by a fake put on smile, or an impersonal greeting, or a fake good morning. It is simply pure joy. A pure joy that is authentic, truly from the heart, unselfish and lives in the glorious freedom of the beloved children of God. This kind of joy is seriously authentic and childlike. Not childish as in the joy we might get in pulling off the world’s funniest prank or the joy we might get in finally proving someone wrong, or the feeling and sensation we get from embarrassing a friend or foe or even the joy we might get in doing something dirty, deceitful or illegal and never getting caught. That is not joy. We cannot and can never feel good about doing harm or wrong to another. Real authentic joy seeks the good of the other. The real joy found and experienced in doing something authentically good, helpful and truly supportive to another or someone with a special need. The kind of joy we experience from truly listening to the Holy Spirit’s promptings interiorly guide, counsel and direct us from within to the joy we manifest in doing what is truly good in God’s eyes and avoiding the evil he detests. The kind of joy that causes us to sing with our Beloved Mother Mary in knowing we are so loved, have been saved, and are now called by the Good Shepherd to graciously and joyfully follow him as he leads us to authentic joy and profound holiness.

Join us on Sunday May 18th in the St. Gabriel Life Center, after the 12pm Mass, to thank Fr. Ivan for his time with us and to wish him well on his next assignment.

We will be welcoming Fr. Matthew Hawkins as our new Pastor.

Father Matthew Hawkins was ordained to the Priesthood on May 26, 2018 at St. James Cathedral in Orlando. He celebrated his first Mass as a priest at Annunciation on May 27, 2018 and was very active at our parish during his time in the Seminary.

Fr. Hawkins served St. James Cathedral as parochial vicar in his first assignment and later as parochial administrator of St. Paul Parish in Leesburg where he became Pastor on December 11, 2022.

We will have more information in the coming weeks.

Please keep all of our priests in your prayers and for the communities that they serve. 🙏

A Prayer for Religious Vocations

God our heavenly Father,

You are the potter, and I am the clay.

Mold me to be Your disciple.

Give me courage to discern Your call to Priestly or Religious Life.

Give me strength to serve Your Church.

May I lead Your people to holiness.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Catechism Corner

The practice of goodness is accompanied by spontaneous spiritual joy and moral beauty.

425 The transmission of the Christian faith consists primarily in proclaiming Jesus Christ in order to lead others to faith in him. From the beginning, the first disciples burned with the desire to proclaim Christ: "We cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard." And they invite people of every era to enter into the joy of their communion with Christ.

Celebrate the Month of Mary by joining us for this beautiful evening of prayer.

If you would like to sign up to be a candle holder, visit www.annunciationorlando.org/rosary to sign-up. Do you have a group or ministry that would like to be together in a decade (10 individual candle holders)?

Please email Scott Stafstrom at ssstafstrom@annunciationorlando.org to check availability and organize your participants.

St Joseph Men's Group

Join us every Friday morning for Mass at 7am in the Church, followed by great coffee in the St. Gabriel Life Center with a reflection on the readings and prayer. We finish by 8am.

All men of the parish are welcome.

If you have any questions, please contact Scott Stafstrom at 407-869-9472, ssstafstrom@annunciationorlando.org

Words to Live By

The Saints were not superhuman. They were people who loved God in their hearts, and who shared this joy with others... A Christian is one who is invited...

"to join in the feast, to the joy of being saved, to the joy of being redeemed, to the joy of sharing life with Christ. This is a joy! You are called to a party!

Prayer for the Election of a New Pope

O God, eternal shepherd,
who govern your flock with unfailing care,
grant in your boundless fatherly love
a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness
and to us show watchful care.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Sts. Philip and James, Apostles

We know St. Philip as one of the twelve apostles from the Gospels. His name appears in all four lists (Matthew, Mark, Luke and Acts). He came from Bethsaida in Galilee, was called by Jesus himself, and in turn brought Nathaniel (also known as Bartholomew) to Jesus. In the Gospel of John it is Philip who engages with Jesus in a brief exchange on the occasion of the multiplication of the loaves (Jn 6:5, 7). Also, it was Philip who was approached by some Hellenist Jews who wanted to be introduced to Jesus. Fr. John McKenzie suggests that he was regarded as being closely associated with Jesus. However, of his later life we know nothing.

St. James, the cousin of the Lord, son of Alphaeus, is also mentioned in the same four lists of apostles. Sometimes, he is referred to in literature as James the Less, or James the younger, to distinguish him from James the "brother of the Lord," who is also mentioned in the gospels (Mt. 13:55 and Mark 6:3, and in Acts 12:17, as the bishop of the Jerusalem community, martyred in the year 62, and author of the letter.

The Second Vatican Council, in the Decree on the Church's Missionary Activity, recalls for us the role of the apostles: "From the beginning of his ministry, the Lord Jesus called to him those whom we wished, and he caused twelve of them to be with him and to be sent out preaching....Thus the apostles were both the seeds of the new Israel and the beginning of the sacred hierarchy. Later, before he ascended into heaven, the Lord who had received all power in heaven and on earth, founded his Church as the sacrament of salvation, and just as he had been sent by the Father...so he sent the apostles into the whole world. Hence the Church has an obligation to proclaim the faith and salvation which comes from Christ."

The Decree on the Church's Missionary Activity continues: "This task which must be carried out by the order of bishops, under the leadership of Peter's successor, and with the prayers and cooperation of the whole Church, is one and the same everywhere and in all situations." (Ad gentes, nos. 5 & 6).

The task of proclaiming "the faith and salvation which comes from Christ," is now ours. Pope St. John Paul II, in his homily in San Francisco, September 18, 1987, said: "The Gospel, and together with it the salvific power of Christ's redemption, is addressed to every person in every nation....To be Christian means to proclaim the message untiringly in every generation."

Today, as we remember the holy apostles, Philip and James, we recall that the commission given to the apostles to "make disciples of all the nations," is now our commission.

The Day the Sun Danced: The True Story of Fatima

In 1917, three children in Fatima, Portugal, saw the Blessed Mother, shared her message, and witnessed the miracle of the sun dancing in the sky. Their faith inspired the world. Experience this miracle in this great film the entire family will enjoy.

The 13th Day

In a world torn apart by persecution, war, and oppression, three children in Fatima were chosen by God to offer an urgent message of hope to the world. Based on the memoirs of the oldest seer, Lucia Santos, The 13th Day dramatizes the true story of three young shepherds who experienced six apparitions of Our Lady, which culminated in the final prophesied miracle on October 13.

Our Lady of Fatima | Brother Francis and Friends

Brother Francis and Sister Imelda tell the story of the three shepherd children from Fatima who saw visions of Mary, later to be known as Our Lady of Fatima. Learn about the courage and faith these children exhibited and how they were rewarded with an amazing miracle!
