Fr. Ivan will be leaving Annunciation for a new position beginning on June 1st.

We congratulate Fr. Ivan on his new assignment as Rector of Mary Queen of the Universe Basilica and National Shrine in Orlando, guiding all of the faithful and pilgrims that visit the Shrine. He will continue to serve as our Pastor until then and we will have time to wish him well and thank him for his almost 5 years of dedicated service to this community.

We are grateful to Fr. Ivan for helping us to live our mission during these years and to strive to become a people of great prayer.

Join us on Sunday May 18th in the St. Gabriel Life Center, after the 12pm Mass, to thank Fr. Ivan for his time with us and to wish him well on his next assignment.

We will be welcoming Fr. Matthew Hawkins as our new Pastor.

Father Matthew Hawkins was ordained to the Priesthood on May 26, 2018 at St. James Cathedral in Orlando. He celebrated his first Mass as a priest at Annunciation on May 27, 2018 and was very active at our parish during his time in the Seminary.

Fr. Hawkins served St. James Cathedral as parochial vicar in his first assignment and later as parochial administrator of St. Paul Parish in Leesburg where he became Pastor on December 11, 2022.

Fr. Matthew will celebrate Mass with us on June 1st. See Announcement letter from Bishop Noonan on the next page

REFLECTIONS FROM THE HEART

by Fr. Ivan

"Behold, I make all things new." Most of us, given an opportunity to do so, can from our early childhood years of catechetical instruction and teaching or through the sacramental formation we received, easily recite, probably word for word, the classical definition of what is a sacrament: "The sacraments are efficacious signs of grace, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church, by which divine life is dispensed to us." Nevertheless, what does that mean? What does that mean to you? How would you respond to the text? How would you describe what a sacrament is in your own words? Where is God leading you in thought and heart to consider explaining a sacrament to a child, a neighbor, a person who does not believe or to a person who has lost all hope but wants and needs to believe? Where is God graciously inviting you today to grow, know, change or simply be inspired? Given my own lack of intellectual wisdom, knowledge, and comprehension and in the little ways that I can provide any sort of explanation or can claim any confidence of understanding a textbook definition, I probably would complicate the matter and add further confusion to any definition. Thankful that God has graciously helped me to understand sacraments in simple terms and in a simple language that I can understand and in a language I can share: a sacrament is simply a life giving, lifesaving and life-changing gift from God to make us new again. When we encounter Jesus in his real presence and the gift of sacramental grace, we simply are not the same. How can anyone who truly encounters the real presence of Jesus remain unchanged? We are touched by God, changed by grace, transformed by love, made into a new creation. God makes all things new. He renews us and makes us new in, through and with the sacraments. The Church teaches us that Jesus himself, through and in the power, peace and unity of the Holy Spirit, graciously bestows himself and celebrates the sacraments with and in us. It is Jesus who truly baptized and confirmed you. In and through his poor priests, Jesus consecrates you and gives himself freely as gift to you. Jesus sanctifies you and sacramentally feeds and nourishes you in Holy Communion and through special graces in, and through and with the Blessed Sacrament, the Holy Eucharist, with his Precious Body and Blood conforms you, heals you, loves you, transforms you, restores you, makes you good, holy and new once again; a living sacrament.

"Follow me" (John 21:19).

May 1, 2025

Beloved Parishioners of Annunciation Catholic Church:

Grace and Peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you this Easter season. On the Third Sunday of Easter, Jesus speaks to Peter and to all of us, telling us to follow Him. He asks us to see one another as His disciple, as a brother or sister to you, and to love each one; leading him or her to holiness. During this Jubilee year especially, our care for one another brings forth hope in the heart of each person whom we encounter.

Your pastor, Father Ivan Olmo has thus been leading you to know God. He follows God's call as a priest and exalts God by his love of God's people. Now, he is following a call to serve in a different capacity; as rector of the Basilica of the National Shrine of Mary, Queen of the Universe. The Basilica is not a parish, but a sacred space for pilgrims who travel from all over the world to offer praise and thanksgiving to God and participate in the celebration of Mass and Sacrament of Penance. Our Blessed Mother's advocacy for our pilgrimage toward heaven through Jesus, her Son, comes alive in this beautiful Shrine, offering spiritual respite to those who seek and eternal Peace to those who love. If you have not already been to this holy destination, I encourage you to visit. I am grateful to Father Olmo for bearing God's love to you.

I am pleased to appoint Father Matthew Hawkins pastor of Annunciation Catholic Church, effective June 1. Father Hawkins is returning to his 'home parish,' Annunciation Catholic Church.

Born in Miami, his family moved to Orlando when he was 7 months old, and he considers himself an Orlando native. He and his sister were raised in the Presbyterian Church. He received a bachelor's degree in computer science and engineering from the University of Florida. He was introduced to the Catholic Church during his later years of college, when a friend invited him to join him at the celebration of Mass. That invitation was the beginning of the transfiguration of Matthew Hawkins. He said, "It was Christ for whom I had always been searching...and I knew I wanted to give my life totally to Him, in service to the people and living always in the presence of God." After graduation from St. Vincent de Paul Major Seminary, Bishop John Noonan ordained Father Matthew Hawkins on May 26, 2018, in St. James Cathedral. He is 48 years old.

After Ordination, Father Hawkins served as parochial vicar of St. James Cathedral, Orlando; and in 2021 as parochial administrator, then named pastor of St. Paul Catholic Church, Leesburg in 2022. While serving the parishioners of St. James Cathedral, he also served as director of ecumenism for the Diocese of Orlando.

Father Hawkins prays that all the people might come to know, love and serve God and one another through, with and in our triune God. He will invite you, good people of Annunciation Catholic Church, to be faith-filled and embrace the Lord by your daily living. Welcome Father Matthew Hawkins with an open heart as he responds to Jesus, "Lord you know I love you," and comes to feed you with the Gift of Finest Wheat.

Know of my prayers of gratitude for you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John Noonan

With joy and gratitude, we share wonderful news about the future leadership of our beloved school. First, with deep gratitude and appreciation we give thanks to God for the guidance and leadership of Mrs. Patty Kahle. We are ever so thankful and grateful for her steadfast dedication, support, and love to our Annunciation family. We wish her the very best and hold her in our prayers as she continues to make a positive impact in Catholic education.

With great excitement, we announce Mrs. Misty Merritt, who has faithfully served as our school's Assistant Principal since July 2015, as the next Principal of Annunciation Catholic Academy.

Please join us in welcoming Mrs. Merritt and entrusting her and our school to our Beloved Mother Mary, Seat of Wisdom and our Lady of Grace.

CATECHISM
CHURCH

"All the sacraments are sacred links uniting the faithful with one another and binding them to Jesus Christ."

1129 The Church affirms that for believers the sacraments of the New Covenant are necessary for salvation. "Sacramental grace" is the grace of the Holy Spirit, given by Christ and proper to each sacrament. The Spirit heals and transforms those who receive him by conforming them to the Son of God. The fruit of the sacramental life is that the Spirit of adoption makes the faithful partakers in the divine nature by uniting them in a living union with the only Son, the Savior.

The Universal Church celebrates the Jubilee Year 2025 - the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord.

Words to Live By

Our Mother Mary always wants to walk with us, be close, help us with her intercession and love. So I would like to pray together with you.

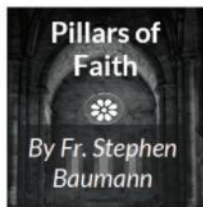

Let us pray together for this new mission, for the whole church, for peace in the world, and let us ask Mary, our Mother, for this special grace.

Fall Festival SAVE THE DATES

Our Fall Festival will be held this year on November 7-8, 2025

St. Matthias, Apostle – May 14

The only mention of St. Matthias in Scripture is in the Acts of the Apostles. The passage we read tells us how he came to be numbered among the apostles (Acts 1:15-26). They drew lots to determine the next apostle, "The choice fell to Matthias, who was added to the eleven apostles."

Legend says that Matthias preached in Judea, Cappadocia (present day Turkey) and on the shores of the Caspian Sea, where he was martyred.

The Opening Prayer or Collect of the Mass says that St. Matthias was called by the Father "to share in the mission of the apostles." That mission was to give witness to the resurrection of Jesus. Peter said to the disciples –about 120 were gathered together – that one of their company should be named as witness with the apostles to Jesus' resurrection.

St. John Chrysostom explained this passage in a homily. "Peter did not say 'a witness to the rest of His actions' but only a 'witness of the resurrection.'" The rest of Jesus' action, the signs and wonders were known by general admission. Many disciples and non-disciples witnessed these; they had taken place openly. "But the resurrection took place secretly."

Peter prayed that the Lord would make his choice known, for as St. John Chrysostom said "they did not feel themselves worthy to make the choice of their own accord, and therefore they wanted some sign for their instruction."

So we are to understand that the call to be an apostle is a privileged grace, a call by God, and an act of God. Our call to the Christian life is also specific and personal. At baptism we are called first by name, and we are to continue the mission of the apostles and be witnesses to Christ today. Our faith in the resurrection of Jesus gives meaning and significance to our lives. We have been chosen "to go forth and to bear much fruit."

Saint Celestine: The Pope Who Quit

This docu-drama investigates the secrecy of this dramatic time in history and reveals a story that involves deadly dealings, apocalyptic maneuverings, and papal intrigue. It uncovers the riveting and mysterious story of Pope St. Celestine V, the pope who retired from the papacy after a very short reign. At the close of the tumultuous Middle Ages, this future monk and pope seemed destined from birth to save the world.

Saint Rita

St. Rita of Cascia is immortalized in this wonderful, deeply moving film. This story is about the brave woman who married her knight, helped him overcome his dark past and convert to faith, happily bore him two children, and later endures immense pain as she loses everything in her life. Her story and love for Christ will inspire you to great holiness!
