We welcome Fr. Matthew Hawkins as our new Pastor.

Fr. Matthew will be celebrating his first Mass with us as Pastor on June 1st.

Congratulations to our two newly ordained priests in the Diocese of Orlando - Father Bill Burns and Father John Triolo! Their ordination was celebrated on Saturday, May 24th at St. James Cathedral.

How can we pray for you?

Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. We will pray for each specific intention that you submit.

Submit your intentions at:

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

*Jesus said to his disciples: "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.
You are witnesses of these things.
And behold I am sending the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high." Luke 24:46-49*

And with that, the earthly mission of Jesus was completed and He ascended into Heaven. Or was it?
Was His mission completed? Yes, but only in the sense that our Lord's work of destroying death and offering new life was accomplished by His life, death and resurrection. Human nature was now invited to share in a new life of grace.

Prayerfully imagine standing on the mountain of the Ascension with our Lord. As you gaze upon Him, imagine that you were also present with Him throughout His public ministry. Imagine witnessing His many miracles, the way that He converted the hardest of hearts, the authority with which He spoke, His arrest, torture, death and then His Resurrection. Imagine seeing His hands and feet, once pierced, now radiating glory from those wounds. As you see our Lord in this way, imagine Him looking at you with love and saying to you that He has chosen to send you forth to the world to be a witness to Him and to all that you have seen and encountered. You are to go forth sharing the Good News of His life, death and resurrection with all whom you come in contact with.

The promise given by our Lord to the disciples on the mountain of the Ascension is also a promise given to you. He is promising to send the Holy Spirit upon you so as to clothe you "with power from on high." Only by receiving that power and using it fully will you be able to accomplish the mission that our Lord has given to you. Therefore, will you open yourself to the Holy Spirit and commit yourself to the continuation of Christ's mission?

Reflect, today, upon the particular mission that God has given to you. Prayerfully look at Jesus as He stands on the mountain of the Ascension and looks at you. As He does, let Him reveal to you not only His very Person but also your particular sharing in His ongoing mission of sharing the Good News to the ends of the earth. Receive that mission with courage, joy and holy fear. Reverence it, savor it, ponder it and accept it. Commit yourself to this glorious sharing in the life of Christ by committing yourself to become a witness to Christ until the end of your life on earth.

St. Bede the Venerable, Priest & Doctor

St. Bede (672-754) was a Benedictine monk and priest in the late 7th and early 8th century. He was a scripture scholar, historian and teacher, and is recognized by the Church with the title “doctor,” an acknowledgement of his learning and influence. Bede said of himself: “My special joy was always study, teaching and writing.” This he did while living the monastic life, faithfully observing its rule.

One cannot point to any great events in his life and career, but he has left his mark and influence on Church history and English literature. He was a devoted student of the Sacred Scriptures, and what was worth knowing at his time, Bede knew. His outstanding contribution to scholarship and Catholic learning is his history about the English or Anglo-Saxon Church and people, which he completed in 751, a few years before his death (754). His title, “the Venerable,” speaks to us of his wisdom and learning, and of the respect given him.

Though dedicated to the pursuit of knowledge, he was possessed of a profound spirituality, and was aware of the neglect of the sacraments by the people of his day. He encouraged greater devotion and daily reception of the Holy Eucharist. He knew his own strength and ability came from prayer which enabled him to find God in his scholarly pursuits as well as in the wonders of creation. We have no difficulty relating to this 8th century saint and scholar.

As a teacher, he believed that it was not enough to pass on his knowledge. He would have us understand that religious and secular knowledge must have an influence on how we live. Our lives must be lived in gratitude to God and for the good of others.

From St. Bede, we learn to appreciate our special gifts and learn to use these talents and graces to enhance our relationship with God and others. As an historian, he shows that learning from past experiences, can affect our future.

In our prayers at Mass on his memorial day, we proclaim that the Church has been enriched by St. Bede’s learning, and we ask that we may “learn from his wisdom and benefit from his prayers.”

LOVING AND SERVING OTHERS

Faith Partner of the Year: Annunciation Catholic Church!

For over 20 years, Annunciation has put their faith into action with Habitat Seminole-Apopka - showing up with open hearts, ready hands, and a deep commitment to serving others.

From generous giving to countless hours on the build site, their support has helped local families build not just homes, but a brighter future rooted in hope and stability.

We’re deeply grateful to honor Annunciation as our Faith Partner of the Year. Thank you for being a constant reminder of what it looks like to live out your faith in our community.
