New Campus Security Cameras

History: Last Summer, our Parish applied for a Security Grant known as FL-NPSG (Florida Non-Profit Security Grant) through the Florida Department of Emergency Management. Annunciation Catholic Church was fortunate to have received this Security Grant in December of 2024. As part of the original grant application process, we had identified the need for a campus-wide security camera system... to enhance the overall security at Annunciation.

Purpose: The primary purpose of the Camera System is to provide enhanced safety and protection of Annunciation staff, volunteers, visitors and our entire parish community. The cameras will be utilized in several different ways to enhance security on the Annunciation Campus including:

- Monitoring and Surveillance: Cameras allow Security Staff to monitor activities on the premises, ensuring the safety of Staff, Volunteers, Parishioners and Visitors.. especially during large events.
- Deterrence of Criminal Activity: The presence of security cameras can discourage potential criminals from targeting the Church. Knowing that their actions are being recorded can deter acts of theft, vandalism, or other crimes.
- Evidence in Case of Incidents: If a security breach or incident does occur, security camera footage can provide crucial evidence for police investigations and legal proceedings.
- Risk Management: Security cameras are recognized as a risk management tool by many insurance companies, potentially leading to reduced insurance premiums for Churches with well-maintained security systems.

The cameras have been strategically placed to cover building entries and high vehicular traffic areas (including parking areas and entrances & exits at Montgomery Rd).

The cameras will record 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A recorder will store visual imaging for up to 60 days. The cameras will not record audio.

If you have any questions, please contact our Parish Office at 407-869-9472. Thank you!

We welcome three seminarians that will be in residence with us this summer as they work at Catholic Charities. In order: Jonathan Arias, Dakota Milborn and Gavin Foreman.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

Today's solemnity entered the General Roman Calendar in the fourteenth century as a designated Sunday on which we ponder the inner life of the Most Holy Trinity, renewing and deepening our honor and worship.

The Trinity is The Divine Mystery above all mysteries. Not even in Heaven will we have a complete understanding of God's essence. Only God knows Himself fully. Nonetheless, every angel and human is called to probe the mysteries of God to the fullest extent possible. In that probing, contemplating, and understanding, we discover the purpose of our lives and experience the fullness of beatitude to which we are called. God alone satisfies the hungry, weary, and seeking soul.

God is incapable of change because He is perfection. He is exactly Who He is, always has been, and always will be. God alone is all-powerful and has supreme authority over all creation. He alone perceives all potentiality within creation and within Himself. He is perfectly wise, just, and merciful. He is both completely beyond creation (transcendent) and intimately involved with every aspect of creation (immanent). God is the perfection of holiness and morality. He is the only standard of goodness and truth. He is present everywhere at all times - unchanging and eternal.

God is One God, not three. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit each share perfectly in the one divine nature, and all share the same divine attributes. The Scriptures reveal God to us as one-in-three. The Old Testament alluded to the threefold personhood of God, and Jesus identified the three persons as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Human reason alone could never arrive at that realization.

God's attributes and existence can be summed up as "God is love" (1 John 4:8). Love must have a giver, a receiver, and the love that unites them. God's very nature is to love perfectly, to receive love perfectly, and to be love itself.

In the Trinity, the Father loves the Son, the Son loves the Father, and the Holy Spirit personifies their mutual love. The Church defines God's love as an "eternal begetting" and an "eternal procession." "Begetting" and "proceeding" point to love's relational origin. The Father eternally begets the Son in an eternal exchange of love. The Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son, emanating from their mutual love.

How can we pray for you?

Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. We will pray for each specific intention that you submit.

St. Ephraem, Deacon and Doctor

St. Ephraem (306-373), a deacon, is the greatest Christian poet of the early Church. He lived through the last of the persecutions and the first years of peace for the Church, and during the time of the first great theological controversies. His poetic ability was devoted to expressing Christian truth and doctrine in hymns and songs in the Syriac language. His hymns combine scriptural teaching, doctrinal truth, and theological argumentation as well as spiritual theology. His poetry is intensely personal and very spiritual. The Collect of the Mass for this feast acknowledges Ephraem's ability to sing the praise of God's mysteries.

At times, his writings were directed to combatting the heresies of Arianism and Gnosticism. He is also revered for his devotion to Mary. Ephraem is so respected that he has been given the title of "Doctor of the Church." In his ministry as a deacon, he was a friend of the poor among whom he worked humbly and with gentleness, seeking only the honor of God. The following text from his Testament is a tribute to his holiness:

"Lay me not with sweet spices, for this honor avails me not, Nor yet use incense and perfumes, for the honor befits me not. Burn ye the incense in the holy place; As for me, escort me only with your prayers, Give your incense to God, and over me send up hymns. Instead of perfumes and spices, be mindful of me in your intercessions."

From Ephraem's preaching, we can learn much as we read from a sermon in today's Second Reading in the Liturgy of the Hours: "Lord, shed upon our darkened souls the brilliant light of your wisdom so that we may be enlightened and serve you with renewed purity...Grant that we may come to know the risen life and that nothing may distract us from the delights you offer...In your sacrament we daily embrace you and receive you into our bodies; make us worthy to experience the resurrection for which we hope...Teach us to find our joy in your favor...May your resurrection, Jesus, bring true greatness to our spiritual self and may your sacrament be the mirror wherein we may know that self...Savior, your divine plan for the world is a mirror for the spiritual world; teach us to walk in that world as spiritual men and women."
