New Campus Security Cameras

History: Last Summer, our Parish applied for a Security Grant known as FL-NPSG (Florida Non-Profit Security Grant) through the Florida Department of Emergency Management. Annunciation Catholic Church was fortunate to have received this Security Grant in December of 2024. As part of the original grant application process, we had identified the need for a campus-wide security camera system... to enhance the overall security at Annunciation.

Purpose: The primary purpose of the Camera System is to provide enhanced safety and protection of Annunciation staff, volunteers, visitors and our entire parish community. The cameras will be utilized in several different ways to enhance security on the Annunciation Campus including:

- Monitoring and Surveillance: Cameras allow Security Staff to monitor activities on the premises, ensuring the safety of Staff, Volunteers, Parishioners and Visitors.. especially during large events.
- Deterrence of Criminal Activity: The presence of security cameras can discourage potential criminals from targeting the Church. Knowing that their actions are being recorded can deter acts of theft, vandalism, or other crimes.
- Evidence in Case of Incidents: If a security breach or incident does occur, security camera footage can provide crucial evidence for police investigations and legal proceedings.
- Risk Management: Security cameras are recognized as a risk management tool by many insurance companies, potentially leading to reduced insurance premiums for Churches with well-maintained security systems.

The cameras have been strategically placed to cover building entries and high vehicular traffic areas (including parking areas and entrances & exits at Montgomery Rd).

The cameras will record 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A recorder will store visual imaging for up to 60 days. The cameras will not record audio.

If you have any questions, please contact our Parish Office at 407-869-9472. Thank you!

Pope Leo's Prayer

Lord, I come to your tender heart today, to you who have words that set my heart ablaze, to you who pour out compassion on the little ones and the poor, on those who suffer, and on all human miseries.

I desire to know you more, to contemplate you in the Gospel, to be with you and learn from you and from the charity with which you allowed yourself to be touched by all forms of poverty.

You showed us the Father's love by loving us without measure with your divine and human heart. Grant all your children the grace of encountering you.

Change, shape, and transform our plans, so that we seek only you in every circumstance: in prayer, in work, in encounters, and in our daily routine.

From this encounter, send us out on mission,
a mission of compassion for the world in which you are the source from which all consolation flows. Amen.

The Body and Blood of Christ

When Jesus went back to Heaven He didn't want to leave us all alone, so He gave Himself to us in the Holy Eucharist. First He gave Himself to the Apostles at the Last Supper, and today He gives Himself to us in Holy Communion.

Normally when we eat something it gets absorbed into our body. But receiving Jesus in Holy Communion does something different. It makes us more into Jesus' Body! It brings our soul closer to God and closer to all the other people in the Church. That's what "Communion" means.

When we go to Communion in a state of grace we can get so much more grace from God. Our venial (small) sins can be taken away and we can get more strength to do His will. In fact, the time that your prayers are the most powerful is right after you receive Holy Communion, when Jesus is right inside you. He is your closest friend and only wants what is good for you. When you go to Communion remember Who you just received and don't forget to thank Him for coming to you!

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

At the holy Mass, as soon as the priest pronounces the words of the consecration, transforming the bread and wine into the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ our Lord, he genuflects, rises, and then says, "The mystery of faith." What is "the mystery of faith?"

Oftentimes, when we say that something is a mystery, we mean that the conclusion is hidden but that there are certain clues to help solve the mystery. And once the mystery is solved, everything is clear and it is no longer a mystery.

"The mystery of faith" is much different. Those words are spoken at Mass immediately after the consecration as a way of drawing the faithful into a holy awe and amazement of what just took place. But this mystery can only produce wonder and awe if the reality of what just took place is understood through the gift of faith. Faith is knowing and believing without perceiving the reality before us with our five senses or through logical deduction. In other words, faith produces true knowledge of a spiritual reality that can only be known, understood and believed through spiritual insight. Therefore, if we attend the Mass and have been gifted with the knowledge of faith, then as soon as the consecration of the bread and wine takes place, we will cry out interiorly, "My Lord and my God!" We will know that God the Son is present before us in a veiled way. Our eyes do not perceive, nor do any of our senses reveal to us the great reality before us. We cannot rationally deduce what just took place. Instead, we come to know and believe that the Son of God, the Savior of the World, is now present before us in His fullness, under the veil of mere bread and wine.

In addition to the divine presence of our Lord and our God, the entire Mystery of our Redemption is made present. Saint Pope John Paul II tells us that in this moment there is a "oneness in time" that links the Paschal Mystery, that is, the Life, Death and Resurrection of Jesus, to every moment that the Eucharist is celebrated and made present through the words of consecration. And that unity between each Mass and the Paschal Mystery "leads us to profound amazement and gratitude" (Ecclesia de Eucharistia, #5). Do you sense and experience this profound amazement and gratitude each time you attend the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass? Do you realize as you attend the Mass and as the words of consecration are spoken that the entire Mystery of your redemption is made present before you, hidden from your eyes but visible to your soul by faith? Do you understand that it is God the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity Who descends to us to dwell with us in that moment of time in this glorious Sacrament?

Reflect, today, upon the hidden but real Mystery of Faith. Allow yourself to be drawn into a wonder and awe at what you are privileged to attend. Let your faith in the Most Holy Eucharist grow by being open to a deepening of this gift of faith through spiritual insight and belief. Behold this great Gift of the Eucharist with the eyes of faith and you will be drawn into the wonder and awe that God wants to bestow upon you.

St. Romuald, Abbot - June 19th

The details of the life of St. Romuald (950-1027) tell us that from the time he first went to a monastery at the age of 20, he sought more and more an austere life of prayer and self-denial. This led him to live the life of a hermit while at the same time desiring to preach the gospel and suffer martyrdom. Illness forced him to abandon preaching in Hungary, and he returned to monastic life. Not content to remain inactive, he established several monasteries for which he modified the Benedictine Rule to allow for a more contemplative and austere life. He is revered as the founder of the Camaldolese Order.

In the Liturgy of the Hours for his feast day, we read from a life of St. Romuald by St. Peter Damian:

"For several years, he remained in seclusion at his monastery. In that setting, divine holiness transported him to such a summit of perfection that, breathed upon by the Holy Spirit, he foresaw many future events and comprehended with the rays of his intelligence hidden mysteries of the Old and New Testaments.

Frequently, he was seized by so great a contemplation of divinity that he would be reduced to tears with the boiling, indescribable heat of divine love. In this condition, he would cry out: Beloved Jesus, beloved, sweet honey, indescribable longing, delight of the saints, sweetness of the angels, and other things of that kind. We are unable to fully express the ecstasy of his utterances, dictated by the Holy Spirit."

There is much to admire and imitate in the life of St. Romuald, which we can adapt to the circumstances of our lives. There is his perseverance in and dedication to prayer even in times of dryness, and his practice of virtue and self-discipline. Above all, we can imitate his absolute trust in the providence or caring of God, and his devotion to the will of God.

Through his intercession, we pray that God will renew the life of solitude and prayer in the Church as He did through St. Romuald in his day. We also pray that our own practices of self-denial will bring us the joy of heaven.
