REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

Saints Peter and Paul are often referred to as two of the great "Pillars of the Church." They each played an incredibly essential role in the establishment of the early Church. And though each of their roles was essential and foundational, their roles were as different as they were different as persons.

Peter was a family man, a local fisherman, uneducated and quite ordinary. From what we know about him prior to being called by Jesus, there was nothing that made him uniquely qualified to become one of the pillars of the new Church to be established by the Son of God. Jesus simply called him, and he responded. Jesus got into Peter's boat, ordered him to lower the nets, and produced a huge catch of fish. When Peter saw this miracle, he fell down at Jesus' feet and acknowledged that he was "a sinful man" who was unworthy of being in Jesus' presence (See Luke 5:8). But Jesus informed Peter that he would from now on be catching men. Peter immediately left everything behind and followed Jesus.

Paul describes himself as "a Jew, born at Tarsus in Cili'cia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gama'li-el, educated according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God as you all are this day" (Acts 22:3). Paul was well educated in the strictest interpretation of the Jewish law, understood philosophy and was quite zealous as a young man. Recall, also, that prior to becoming a convert to Christianity, he "persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it" (Galatians 1:13). In many ways, Paul would have been seen as the most unlikely person to be chosen to be a pillar of the Church, because he so vigorously opposed it at first. He even supported the killing of Saint Stephen, the first Christian martyr.

Though each of these men would have been considered by many as very unlikely founders of the Christian Church, this is exactly what they became. Paul, after his conversion, traveled far and wide to preach the Gospel, founding several new Churches throughout Asia Minor and Europe. Eventually he was arrested in Jerusalem, brought to Rome for trial and was beheaded. Over half of the New Testament books are attributed to Paul and half of the Acts of the Apostles detail Paul's missionary journeys. Paul is especially known for his missionary activity to the Gentiles, those who were not Jews.

Peter's role was truly a unique one. His name was changed from "Simon" to "Peter" by Jesus. Recall Jesus saying, "And I tell you, you are Peter (Petros), and on this rock (petra) I will build my church...(Matthew 16:18). "Peter" in Greek is Petros. However, the Greek word petra means a rock as a solid formation that is fixed, immovable, and enduring. Therefore, Jesus chose to make Peter a solid foundation of immovable rock on which the Church was to be built.

You, too, have been called by our Lord to a unique mission within the Church that has not been entrusted to another. In your own way, God wants to use you to reach certain people with the Gospel as He did with Saint Paul. And like Saint Peter, God wants to continue to establish His Church upon you and your faith.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Saints Peter and Paul: Friends of Jesus and Builders of the Church

Saint Peter and Saint Paul were two very important friends of Jesus. They were leaders in the early days of the Church.

Peter was a fisherman. He was not famous or rich, but Jesus chose him. One day, Jesus helped Peter catch lots of fish. Peter was amazed! Jesus told him, "Now you will catch people." That means Peter would help people learn about God. Peter followed Jesus right away.

Paul was very smart. At first, he didn't like Christians and tried to stop them. But one day, Jesus spoke to Paul. Paul changed his life and started to teach people about Jesus. He traveled to many places and started new churches.

Jesus gave Peter a new name, which means "rock." He said Peter would be like a strong rock for the Church.

God had a special plan for both Peter and Paul. And God has a special plan for you too! You can help others learn about Jesus, just like they did.

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith?

The Universal Church celebrates the Jubilee Year 2025 - the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord.

Visit www.annunciationorlando.org/hope for more resources, links to information about the Plenary Indulgence and updates on events.

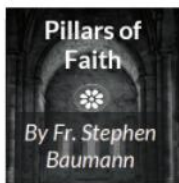

We have three Sacred Jubilee Sites in the Diocese of Orlando:

- St. James Cathedral
- Basilica National Shrine Mary Queen of the Universe
- St. Paul Basilica in Daytona.

If you visit one of these sites or others around the world, send us a photo by the designated door: sstafstrom@annunciationorlando.org.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

St. Aloysius Gonzaga, Religious

"Remarkable innocence with a spirit of penance." So states the Collect of the Mass about his life. From his early years as a young teenager, he was pious and interested in the revival of a true religious faith and practice.

His opportunities for a military or political career were many. But Aloysius chose religious life, and at age 18 he entered the Society of Jesus. The practice, then as now, was to combine the years of study with some practical ministry and experience. He was interested in instructing young people, and was called upon to care for the sick during the time of the plague in Rome. Already frail, he became more ill, and died at the age of 23. Canonized in 1726, he was declared protector of young students and later patron of Catholic youth.

The overly pious images and statues of St. Aloysius do not do him justice, because they do not convey the strength of character of this young Jesuit. He was a mature, intelligent and remarkably decisive young man, who was strong in his religious vocation.

We invoke his intercession and pray to imitate his prayerful faith and spirit of self-discipline and penance. He is a model not only for youth, but for all who sincerely strive to live in the positive spirit of the Gospel. Like him, we hope that we "shall climb the mountain of the Lord and stand in his holy place. The innocent man, the pure of heart." (Entrance Antiphon).
