The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

Jesus had many followers who were deeply devoted to Him, abandoning everything to serve Him and to cooperate in the fulfillment of His mission. Oftentimes we give most of our attention to the Twelve Apostles when we speak of Jesus' first followers. But in today's Gospel, Jesus sent seventy-two disciples to go forth to all the towns that He would soon visit. Think about that for a moment. Seventy-two is quite a few people. These would not have been casual followers of Jesus. Rather, they clearly were people who were all in and fully committed to Christ. To them, Jesus entrusted the mission of preaching and gave them authority over demons.

Try to imagine organizing and sending forth seventy-two different people. Jesus would have come to know these disciples personally, witnessed their faith firsthand, taught them at length, and recognized that they were ready to fulfill His sacred mission. We should also presume that there were many others who were His faithful followers but were not yet ready to be entrusted with divine authority and sent on a mission. Thus, the movement that Jesus started was truly transforming for many people during those first years of His public ministry.

The same is true for us today. Jesus is not finished sending missionaries on mission. He continues to gather a vast army of servants whom He calls close to Himself, with whom He establishes a very personal relationship, teaches, forms, bestows with special graces and charisms, and then sends forth to continue His apostolic work. Are you among those who are ready to be sent forth by our Lord?

One way to test your readiness for the mission of Christ is to consider the command that Jesus gave to these seventy-two. He said in part, "Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way." In other words, our Lord was telling them that His mission required sacrifice, courage, trust in divine providence, and single-minded determination. His mission is not for the casual follower. It's for those who are serious about their faith and do not hesitate to do all they need to do to get ready to fulfill Jesus' divine command.

Reflect, today, upon whether you are ready to fulfill the apostolic mission Jesus wants to entrust to you. Are you willing to sacrifice everything for this mission? Are you courageous enough to do whatever He calls you to do? Do you trust that God will provide for you so that you can accomplish the task He has given to you? And are you single-minded and fully determined? Do not hesitate. Place yourself at the service of our Lord and await His glorious calling in your life.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Jesus Sends Out His Helpers

Jesus had many friends who loved Him very much. They wanted to follow Him and help Him teach people about God. We often hear about His Twelve Apostles. But one day, Jesus chose seventy-two other helpers! He sent them to different towns where He was going to visit soon.

Seventy-two is a big number! These people were not just regular followers. They were very brave and loved Jesus a lot. Jesus gave them a special job. He told them to tell everyone about God's love and to help people.

Imagine sending out seventy-two people! Jesus knew each person very well. He saw how strong their faith was. He taught them many things and knew they were ready to help Him. There were also other people who loved Jesus but were not ready yet.

Even today, Jesus wants us to help Him. He wants us to share His love with other people. He wants us to be kind, brave, and trust Him.

Jesus told the seventy-two helpers to travel light. He said, "Go, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Do not take a money bag, a sack, or extra sandals. Do not stop to talk to people on the road." This meant they needed to be brave and trust that God would take care of them.

Think about this: Are you ready to help Jesus? Are you ready to be brave and share His love? Can you trust Jesus to take care of you?

Let us try to listen to Jesus and say "yes" when He calls us to help Him.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

The First Martyrs of the Church at Rome

The Roman Martyrology commemorates the first martyrs of the Church of Rome on June 30th. It calls them "the first fruits with which Rome, so fruitful to that seed, had peopled heaven." Throughout the history there have been so many others, from the first Martyrs in Rome to those of the present day, often, they are known only to God.

We ought to be impressed and inspired by the faith and courage of all the martyrs. St. Clement I, Pope, and third successor of St. Peter, wrote a letter to the Corinthians at the beginning of the second century. What he said is true of these first martyrs and all martyrs since: "It was through jealousy and envy that the greatest and most upright pillars of the Church were persecuted and struggled unto death." (2nd Reading, Office of Readings). Addressing those still in danger of persecution, Clement admonished: "Let us fix our gaze on the blood of Christ, realizing how precious it is to his Father, since it was shed for our salvation and brought the grace of repentance to all the world."

The martyrs speak to us of the power and presence of Jesus in the Church. We must pray that in the midst of our daily struggles in the practice of our faith that "we find strength from their courage and rejoice in their strength." (Collect of Mass).

LOVING AND SERVING OTHERS

Annunciation Council of Catholic Women ALL SAINTS CIRCLE RUMMAGE SALE

The sale will be one day, Saturday, July 26th from 8am to 4pm. This fundraiser serves many families in need in our area through locally supported charities.

The drop off days for the Rummage Sale items are July 23rd, 24th and 25th. Drop off times are 8-6pm on Wednesday and Thursday and 8am to 1:30pm on Friday in the Family Life Center. Items to be donated should be clean and clothing free of holes, stains or musty smell. We accept most everything except large appliances or TV's. We do not pick up furniture.

Questions? Please contact Eve McBride, 772-607-0631. We THANK YOU in advance for sharing your treasures with us and helping those in need in our local community.

We need volunteers! Choose a 2 hour shift during the 3 drop off days to help unload and sort. Visit:
