Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

For formation in discernment.

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

How can we pray for you?

Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. We will pray for each specific intention that you submit.

Submit your intentions at:
www.annunciationorlando.org/prayer-intentions

Please Pray for our Teens this Week!

Our Teens will be at Life Teen Camp Covecrest in Georgia this coming week. We pray for safe travel and for all of the spiritual blessings that come from this wonderful retreat experience. 🙏

The Universal Church celebrates the Jubilee Year 2025 - the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord.

Visit www.annunciationorlando.org/hope for more resources, links to information about the Plenary Indulgence and updates on events.

We have three Sacred Jubilee Sites in the Diocese of Orlando:

- St. James Cathedral
- Basilica National Shrine Mary Queen of the Universe
- St. Paul Basilica in Daytona.

If you visit one of these sites or others around the world, send us a photo of you or your group by the designated door to Scott at stafstrom@annunciationorlando.org.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

A scribe asked Jesus what he needed to do to inherit eternal life. Jesus asked the scribe what the Law of Moses taught. The above line was the scribe's response. He was essentially quoting Deuteronomy 6:4, which was a common prayer prayed by the Jews and seen as a summary of the entire Law of Moses as found in the Ten Commandments.

Notice that this summary of the Law does not present a negative prohibition such as "Thou shalt not..." Instead, it is a positive command stating, "Thou shalt love..." Love is the fulfillment of the Law of the Old Testament, as well as the fulfillment of the New Law of Christ. When we love God with our whole being, that love overflows upon all of God's creatures, including our neighbor.

In this Gospel, the scribe goes on to ask Jesus who His neighbor is. Jesus responds by telling the Parable of the Good Samaritan. In that parable, there was a man beaten and left for dead on the side of the road. A priest and a Levite passed by and ignored the man. But a Samaritan passed by and took care of the man, bringing him to an inn and vowing to pay for his recovery. The story concludes by the Samaritan being identified as the one who acted as a neighbor to the victim.

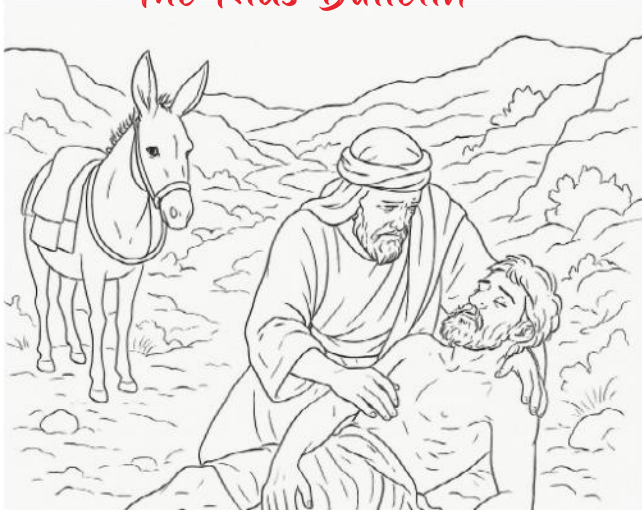

Traditionally, the victim of the robbers in this story has been seen as Adam. Adam represents fallen humanity. The Samaritan represents Jesus who cared for fallen humanity, healed us of sin and provided for our every need. Therefore, according to this parable, Jesus has acted as a neighbor to us, and we must love Him as we love ourselves. But Jesus also says, "Go and do likewise." This is a commission to fallen humanity, now healed of sin, to go forth to others, acting as Jesus Himself, bringing the healing grace they have been given and bestowing it upon others generously.

Sometimes we can see love as a feeling or emotion. Though love is often accompanied by certain emotions and feelings, love is much more. It is an action. In this parable, if the Samaritan simply looked upon the victim and felt sorry for him, had compassion for him but then moved on, he would not have shown love. The love of charity is an action and requires much of us. If we are to fulfill this first and greatest commandment of love of God and neighbor, then we cannot wait until we feel like loving to act. Instead, we must act now and not hesitate. This is love.

GROW IN YOUR FAITH

The Kids Bulletin

Love in Action

A man who studied God's laws asked Jesus what he needed to do to live forever with God. Jesus asked him what the laws say. The man answered by saying we should love God with all our heart and love our neighbor as ourselves. This was a very important prayer for Jewish people and a way to follow God's commandments.

This law doesn't say "Don't do this" or "Don't do that." Instead, it says "Love." We should love God with everything we have, and that love should also go to other people.

Then the man asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus told a story called the Parable of the Good Samaritan. In the story, a man was hurt and left on the side of the road. Two people walked by and did not help. But a Samaritan man stopped, took care of him, and paid for him to get better. Jesus said the Samaritan was a true neighbor.

Many people think the hurt man in the story is like Adam, who stands for all people who have sinned. The Samaritan is like Jesus, who helps us and heals us. Jesus loves us and wants us to love Him too. Jesus also says, "Go and do the same." This means we should help others just like Jesus helps us.

Sometimes we think love is just a feeling. But love is also something we do. The Samaritan did not just feel sorry for the hurt man — he helped him. We should not wait to feel like loving others. We should choose to love and help right now. That is true love.

NEW ADULT FAITH FORMATION STUDY!

In The Creed, a film series blending both documentary footage and dynamic talks, Bishop Robert Barron guides viewers through the Nicene Creed, a fourth-century statement of faith that has profoundly influenced both Eastern and Western spirituality, theology, and liturgy. It is also the 1700th Anniversary of the opening of the Council of Nicaea, which took place in Asia Minor in the year 325. This was the first ecumenical council in history, and it produced the creed that, completed by the First Council of Constantinople in 381, has become the distinctive expression of the Church's faith in Jesus Christ.

All are welcome to join us for this six session study starting on August 4th and 5th

WHEN: Offered on Mondays at 10:30am or Tuesdays at 5:30pm

WHERE: St. Gabriel Life Center.

Fr. Matthew will be facilitating the sessions from the Bishop Robert Barron series. There is no cost to attend. Registration is required: www.annunciationorlando.org/creed

Pillars of Faith

By Fr. Stephen Baumann

Saint Junipero Serra

In September of 1731, Junipero Serra (1713-1784) professed religious vows. He was known as a pious and intelligent young man. After his ordination to the priesthood in 1738, he pursued graduate studies in theology and then taught theology for about ten years. Fr. Serra was an accomplished homilist (preacher), but always had a great desire to be a missionary.

His wish was granted and he was finally assigned to New Spain. He reached Mexico in 1750. For Father Serra and the Friars who labored with him, the work was arduous, but they were tireless in preaching the gospel and improving the life of the Indians in Mexico and in California. He established many missions along the coast of California.

In his homily at the Mass of beatification of Father Serra, Pope St. John Paul II said:

"He is a shining example of Christian virtue and the missionary spirit. His great good was to bring the gospel to the native peoples of America, so that they, too, might be consecrated in the truth."

Pope St. John Paul II called Father Serra an "exemplary model of the selfless evangelizer," and we honor him as one of the great pioneer missionaries of our country. He is given special recognition also as one of the builders of that state of California. A bronze bust of Father Serra stands in Statuary Hall of our nation's Capitol, holding a crucifix in his right hand and a California mission in his left.

St. Junipero Serra was canonized by Pope Francis on September 23, 2015 at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D. C.

Mission Co-op Weekend - July 12-13

Hope for the Future: Building Dreams Through Education

Santo Tomás de Aquino Catholic School is located in Guasmo Norte, one of the most vulnerable neighborhoods in southern Guayaquil, Ecuador. Our school serves a community marked by poverty and limited infrastructure. The current building is no longer sufficient to accommodate our growing student population or provide a safe and motivating environment for learning.

Through this project, we seek to acquire new land and build a secure, uplifting space designed to meet the physical, emotional, and academic needs of our students.

Your support will directly impact the lives of over 115 children by giving them a dignified place to learn, grow, and thrive. This initiative will create lasting opportunities and help transform an entire community through the power of education.

With your help, we can continue to educate and evangelize with love. Thank you!
