Holy Father's Prayer Intentions

For formation in discernment.

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

How can we pray for you?

Everyday life can be challenging and we want to pray for your intentions. We will pray for each specific intention that you submit.

Submit your intentions at:

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

It's interesting that it was Martha who welcomed Jesus, but it was Mary who sat at His feet listening to Him. As the story goes on, we discover that Martha took her responsibility of hospitality seriously; she was very busy preparing a meal. But it appears that Mary needed a different form of hospitality from our Lord Himself. As Martha prepared to feed Jesus so as to care for His physical hunger, Mary sought to be fed by our Lord so as to feed her spiritual hunger. And interestingly, it was the generosity of Martha who was diligent in preparing the meal that made it possible for her sister to receive the spiritual food she longed for.

When we read this story, we can easily become critical of Martha because she complained to Jesus about her sister. It is easy to see Martha's frustration in her words, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." And though Martha may have been a little impatient, Jesus' response to her was gentle and corrective. "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." What was that "better part?" It was Mary's prayerful attentiveness to Jesus. She was hungry for His teaching, and Jesus offered it to her in a very personal and loving way. And though this image of Mary before Jesus is a beautiful image to ponder and to use as a model of our own prayer, there is also something important to be said about Martha's role in making Mary's prayer possible.

Because Martha was diligent in taking care of the duties of hospitality, Mary felt the freedom to sit at Jesus' feet. Perhaps the ideal response from Martha would have been to notice that Mary was being spiritually fed by our Lord and to rejoice in that fact, giving her the continued freedom to sit at Jesus' feet. If Martha would have realized this, then she would have continued working in the background so that her sister could continue listening to Jesus. But even though Martha did interrupt this sacred moment for her sister, the fact remains that her initial diligence in taking care of preparing the meal did give Mary some time alone with Jesus.

In a similar way, we will all be given various opportunities in life to take care of the daily mundane tasks that are needed within a family or community. It is easy to fall into the trap of thinking that unless everyone does their equal part, then things are not fair. But being "fair" should not be our focus. True charity, especially within the family, means that, first and foremost, we look for opportunities to better the lives of those around us. For example, spending extra time cleaning a home so that others can enjoy it more adds much to family life. Or spending hours preparing a nice meal for family or friends may afford everyone the opportunity of time well spent together. These are only a couple of the countless ways that our diligence and generosity toward others is fruitful, especially within family life.

Martha and Mary

One day, Jesus went to visit two sisters named Martha and Mary. Martha was the one who welcomed Jesus into their home. Martha was very busy cooking and getting everything ready for Jesus. But Mary did something different — she sat down and listened to Jesus talk.

Martha wanted to make sure Jesus had food to eat. She wanted to take care of Him. But Mary wanted to listen to Jesus and learn from Him. She wanted to feed her heart and soul with His words.

Martha got upset and said, “Jesus, don’t you care that Mary isn’t helping me? Tell her to help!”

Jesus kindly said, “Martha, you worry about so many things. But Mary has chosen the better thing, and it will not be taken away from her.”

Jesus meant that listening to Him was even more important than cooking and cleaning.

But Martha’s work was still important too. Because she was working hard, Mary had the chance to sit and listen to Jesus.

Sometimes, we have to work hard to help our family and friends, like Martha. Other times, we need to be quiet and pray, like Mary.

Think today about whether God wants you to be like Martha or Mary. Sometimes we help by doing chores, and sometimes we help by spending time with Jesus. Both ways show our love!

NEW ADULT FAITH FORMATION STUDY!

In The Creed, a film series blending both documentary footage and dynamic talks, Bishop Robert Barron guides viewers through the Nicene Creed, a fourth-century statement of faith that has profoundly influenced both Eastern and Western spirituality, theology, and liturgy. It is also the 1700th Anniversary of the opening of the Council of Nicaea, which took place in Asia Minor in the year 325. This was the first ecumenical council in history, and it produced the creed that, completed by the First Council of Constantinople in 381, has become the distinctive expression of the Church's faith in Jesus Christ.

All are welcome to join us for this six session study starting on August 4th and 5th

WHEN: Offered on Mondays at 10:30am or Tuesdays at 5:30pm

WHERE: St. Gabriel Life Center.

Fr. Matthew will be facilitating the sessions from the Bishop Robert Barron series. There is no cost to attend. Registration is required: www.annunciationorlando.org/creed

St. Bonaventure, Bishop and Doctor

St. Bonaventure (1128-1274), Franciscan, Superior General of his Order, later Cardinal-Bishop of Albano, is one of the great philosophers and theologians of the thirteenth century. His was a time of great theological endeavor and accomplishments. A contemporary of St. Thomas Aquinas, Bonaventure was both teacher and administrator, preacher and mystic, held in great esteem by all, especially by Religious orders of men and women, and by high ecclesiastical authority.

His writings are extensive – biblical commentaries, ascetical and mystical writings, sermons, a biography of St. Francis of Assisi. He is recognized for his outstanding contributions to theology, both in his time and still today, and is honored with the title Doctor of the Church.

A chronicler wrote of him: "Bonaventure was a man of eminent learning and of eloquence and outstanding holiness; he was known for his kindness, approachableness, gentleness, and compassion." That tells us much about this saint, and we can get a further appreciation of his holiness and spiritual character from a reading which is part of our prayer today. In the Liturgy of the Hours, we read from one of his mystical writings, The Journey of the Mind of God: Christ is both the way and the door. Christ is the staircase and the vehicle, like the throne of mercy over the Ark of the Covenant, and the mystery hidden from the ages. A man should turn his full attention to this throne of mercy, and should gaze at him hanging from the Cross, full of faith, hope and charity, devoted full of wonder and joy, marked by gratitude, and open to praise and jubilation.

We are the beneficiaries of the wisdom of St. Bonaventure, and he is a gentle teacher of God's love. May we learn from him and follow his example.
