REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

In today's Gospel we are given three teachings on prayer. First, Jesus teaches His disciples what has come to be called "The Lord's Prayer." Second, He teaches about the importance of persistence in prayer. Third, He teaches about the fruit that comes from correct and persistent prayer.

The Church Father Tertullian said that The Lord's Prayer "is truly the summary of the whole Gospel." Saint Augustine said, "Run through all the words of the holy prayers [in Scripture], and I do not think that you will find anything in them that is not contained and included in the Lord's Prayer." Saint Thomas Aquinas said, "The Lord's Prayer is the most perfect of prayers.... In it we ask, not only for all the things we can rightly desire, but also in the sequence that they should be desired" (See the Catechism of the Catholic Church #2761-2763).

It's amazing to consider what these great teachers of the faith have said about this short prayer. Perhaps because of our familiarity with this prayer we can easily gloss over the depth of its meaning. We can fail to use it as a foundation and model for all of our prayer. One way to correct this tendency is to use The Lord's Prayer for an extended period of time by prayerfully pondering every word slowly and meditatively. Doing so will help open us up to these perfect "instructions" on how we should pray.

Immediately after Jesus taught this short prayer, He taught a lesson about persistence in prayer. He taught that we must not simply say a few prayers and leave it at that, giving up if they do not appear to be answered. Instead, we must continuously beg God for His grace until it is bestowed in its fullness.

What will we receive from persistent prayer? This is an important point. We ought not go to God with our own wants and desires. We ought not beg Him for things that do not fall within His perfect will. Instead, when our prayer is modeled on the Lord's Prayer, and when it is persistent and grounded in faith, then our prayer will be for what the Father bestows upon us, that is His will alone. We must pray that His Kingdom will come. We must trust that He will provide for our needs. We must seek His forgiveness for our sins, and we must pray that He will protect us from the evil one.

Reflect, today, upon that perfect prayer, The Lord's Prayer. Spend time studying it, thinking about each petition, the order in which Jesus laid it out, its simplicity and its clarity. Acknowledge that because we pray The Lord's Prayer so often, we can sometimes miss its true meaning and beauty. Our Lord gave us this prayer for a reason. Make sure that you do all you can to discover its meaning and practice its teaching.

Teach Us To Pray

Today's Gospel is about prayer.

Jesus teaches us three things:

1. He teaches us the Lord's Prayer.
2. He tells us to keep praying and not to give up.
3. He says good things come when we pray the right way.

A man named Tertullian said the Lord's Prayer is like a short version of the whole Bible.

Saint Augustine said every good prayer is inside the Lord's Prayer.

Saint Thomas Aquinas said it's the best prayer because it asks for the right things, in the right order.

This prayer is short, but it is full of meaning.

Sometimes we pray it so fast, we forget how special it is. We should slow down and think about each word.

After Jesus taught the prayer, He said to never give up. Don't just pray once and stop. Keep asking God, and trust that He will answer when the time is right.

But remember—don't just ask for anything. Pray for what God wants for you.

Ask for His help, His forgiveness, and His protection.

Think about the Lord's Prayer today. Say it slowly. Think about what each part means. Jesus gave us this prayer to help us know how to talk to God.

NEW ADULT FAITH FORMATION STUDY!

In The Creed, a film series blending both documentary footage and dynamic talks, Bishop Robert Barron guides viewers through the Nicene Creed, a fourth-century statement of faith that has profoundly influenced both Eastern and Western spirituality, theology, and liturgy. It is also the 1700th Anniversary of the opening of the Council of Nicaea, which took place in Asia Minor in the year 325. This was the first ecumenical council in history, and it produced the creed that, completed by the First Council of Constantinople in 381, has become the distinctive expression of the Church's faith in Jesus Christ.

All are welcome to join us for this six session study starting on August 4th and 5th

WHEN: Offered on Mondays at 10:30am or Tuesdays at 5:30pm

WHERE: St. Gabriel Life Center.

Fr. Matthew will be facilitating the sessions from the Bishop Robert Barron series. There is no cost to attend. Registration is required: www.annunciationorlando.org/creed

Held in the Nazareth Center Please contact Mary Ann Fox at mfox@annunciationorlando.org

St. Mary Magdalen

To St. Mary Magdalen was given the privilege of being the first to whom the risen Jesus appeared. The Collect of her Mass states that Jesus "first entrusted to Mary Magdalen the joyful news of his resurrection," and the gospels tell us that she was sent to the disciples to make this reality known. One who is sent, is an apostle, and the Church teaches that Mary Magdalen became "the apostle to the apostles."

Who is this Mary of Magdala? Apparently not the woman, the unknown sinner who anointed the feet of Jesus (Cf. Luke 7:36): nor the sister of Martha, for she has been wrongfully identified with both.

From the Gospels, we do conclude that she was the one from whom Jesus had cast out seven demons (Cf. Mk. 16:9 & Lk. 8:2); that she is one of the women who ministered to the needs of Jesus (Lk.8:2), was a witness of the crucifixion (Mt. 27:56; Mk. 15:40; Jn. 19:25), was present at his burial (Mt. 27:61; Mk. 15:47), and was at the empty tomb (Cf. Mt. 28:1-10; was the first to whom the risen Jesus appeared. (Cf. Jn. 20:11-18).

Among the women who followed Jesus during his public ministry, Mary Magdalen is always mentioned first, and it would seem that she was the leader of this group of women who used their personal means to provide for Jesus and his apostles. From the attention that she is given by the evangelists, we are certain that she was a devoted follower, and because she received the privilege of being the first to experience the Resurrection, we understand that she was obviously greatly loved by Jesus.

Today, we pray that we may "proclaim Christ as our living Lord and one day see Him in glory," (Collect of Mass), and that we might be filled "with the same faithful love that kept Mary Magdalen close to Christ."

Locally, our mother parish, St. Mary Magdalen, was founded on this day in 1959.

Food Pantry Update

We started last school year with approximately 50 backpacks of food distributed to local elementary schools in a 5 mile radius of Annunciation. We ended the school year with 98 and an increase of 3 schools. Next month we will start this new school year with 120 backpacks. It's truly a blessing that our Food Outreach can help so many families in these very challenging times. We supply backpacks weekly for food insecure children to take home to offset hunger on the weekends.

The Third Grade class from the Academy comes to the pantry a total of 4 times throughout the school year. They learn about the needs of other children and truly get a passion for wanting to help those less fortunate. They learn about food safety and how to stock the pantry and they pack backpacks, which they love to do. This all culminates with a food drive at the Academy for all grades, spearheaded by Third Grade! We are thankful for their kind, giving hearts.

Large food distributions are scheduled for the third Friday in August, September and October. This is a huge undertaking in conjunction with Second Harvest and The Sharing Center. We serve 30k pounds of food, including frozen protein and produce to over 350 families! Please consider joining us to serve our community. It's very rewarding!

We are very blessed to have several food drives scheduled for before each mass with the first one August 2/3. Your generosity and kindness blesses our neighbors and specifically young children.... thank you.
